Death at a Christmas Dinner,

To our thousands of patrons we extend our beat as a Christmas Dinner.

New York, Doo 26.—John Draks Townsend, the well known lawyer, died suddenly at a Christmas dinner last night. He had been out calling on friends during the day, and was feeling unusually well. With his wife and daughter he went to a friend's house in the aventer. While best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

to a friend's house in the evening. While dinner was in progress Mr. Townsend laughed heartily at a remark that was made by one of the guests present. Then suddenly putting his hand to his left breast he leaned forward on the table. He was assisted to a lounge and died in a few minutes. Mr. Townsend was 68 years old and was for many years prominent in politics. He was one of Edward Stokes' counsel in the trial for the killing of James

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 26 — Reports of rich discoveries of zinc and lead in Trago and Ellis counties were made recently. Great excitement followed and capitalists subexcitement followed and capitalists sub-scribed $20,000 for machinery to smelt the rich ores. Professor Howarth, of the Kansas university, has made a report on his investigations in this alleged mineral district, which shows that there are not even traces of zine and lead in that region. The scheme was originated by Benver parties, who first secured options on lands and Mace and McLean in the Ring. Philadelphia, Dec. 26.—Those two veterans of the puglitatic world, "Billy" Mo-Lean, of this city, and Jem Macs, the retired champion of the world, met in four friendly rounds last night at the Art Athletic club before a good sized audience. Despite Mace's 68 years and McLean's 68 they put up a pretty fight. Each round lasted about two minutes and demonstrated that the club stagers are even yet a match for some of the young blood. During the bout Mace exhibited some of the rapid left hand hitting that distinguished him in other days. McLean started some fast fighting in the last round and both men were warming up in great shape when time was called and Referce "Jimmy" Ryan announced a draw. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26.—Those two vet-

Tours to California.

California has been most fittingly termed the "Italy of America." All the delicious balm, the cloudless sky, and the rich verdure of the great European peninsula are duplicated in this sunny land of the Pacific. duplicated in this surmy land of the Pacific. Here nature basks in the sunshine of her own beauty; and here who has established her own sanitarium, where eternal spring inspires everlasting youth. With the snowmantled peaks of the Sierras upon the one hand, the calm Pacific with its soft breezes upon the other, and a veritable paradise of flowers, fruits and plants between, man can find and needs no lovelier hand. To visit such a country is a privilege, a blessing.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, recognizing the need of a more comfortable and pleasant way of crossing the continent, inaugurated a series of annual tours to California, running a through train of Pullman palace cars from New York to the Pacific Coast, and stopping at the principal points of interest en route. The great popularity of these tours demonstrates the wisdom of the movement.

For the season of 1897 three tours have been arranged to leave New Yo k, Philadel-phia, and Pittaleurg, January 17, February 24, and March 27.

The first tour will ran direct to San Diego via St. Louis and the Santa Fe Route, and return from San Francisco via Salt Take City.
