BLANKENBURG'S MISSION. THE POLICE He Secures Thirty People to Assist in

Forming a League. Special to EVENING HERALD.

Evening

ASBLAND, Dec. 29.-According to an-nouncement Messra Rudolph Blankenburg and James Pollock, the Philadelphia ad-vance agents of Hon. John Wanamsker. succeeded in securing the consent of thirty persons to form a Business Men's League here last night. The organization was effected by the election of Harry C. Harper president, W. H. Heaton vice president, William James, of the Local, secretary, and John H. Rowe. The Prosecutor Swears to False Arrest, trensurer.

A. H. Tiley, editor of the Telegram, a Democratic paper, offered resolutions en-dorsing John Wanamaker for United States Senator, which were adopted. J. Harry James was elected chairman of the executive committee, and in a speech declining defined his attitude as against Penrose and favorable to Wanamaker. He was subsequently elected chairman of a committee appointed to call upon Representa-tive Kehler for the purpose of inducing him to vote for Wanamaker.

Mr. Kehler will hardly consider the views of thirty men as a true expression of the sentiment of his constituents, and will vote for Penroso. All the county officials and prominent Republican workers as well as leading business men and others in Ashland do not favor Wanamaker, and that is why A complete line of the latest collars and cuffs at our usual low the latter's agents could not secure a larger attendance at the meeting.

> The Girardville Meeting. Special to EVENING HERALD.

GIBARDVILLE, Dec. 29.-Messrs, Blanken-burg and Pollock, of Philadelphia, arrived here this morning to form a Business Men's League in the interest of John Wanamaker. When the meeting was called to order there was a very slim attendance, and at no time were there more than 13 present. An organization was effected, after speeches by Blankenburg and Pollard, by electing Peter Grif-fiths president, Al. Bordey vice president, William Horsewood scoretary and John E. votes for Wanamaker. The meeting was a dismal failure.

Still on the Jump.

Special to EVENING HERALD. TAMAQUA, Dec. 29 .- In their flying trip through the county, Mesars, Blankenburg and Pollock stopped long enough in this place to form a Business Men's League in John Wanamaker's interest. The same cut-and-dried program adopted at other places was carried out here. Maj. Dress was elected president, John Weldy scoretary and A. L. Lutz treasurer. Resolutions endorsing Wan-

Give Their Version of the Affair.

Justice Lawlor's office was crowded last hight by principals and witnesses and curious people anxious to hear what testimony would be offered against Policemen Lee and Good the one-real against references field when on the charges made against them be-fore the Justice yesterday morning by one William Shustock. The latter appeared at the office accompanied by several friends and his counsel, M. M. Burke, Esq. The police-men appeared and said it was their first intention to waive a hearing and enter buil for trial at court, but upon second consideration they had decided to demand a hearing for the purpose of learning what the prosecutor had to say.

The charge made by Shustock was that in the lockup on Saturday night Policemen Lee and Goodman tried to rob him and when he resisted they beat him unmercifully, and then took eight dollars from him. Shustock al-o alleged that he was arrested without

Dr. Stein was sworn and mid he treated Shustock in the lockup on Saturday night. He put two stitches in a cut on the head and Shustock expressed his willingness that the doctor should be paid his fee from the money in the purse. Dr. Stein said he was not called to attend Shustock, but was at the lockup to attend another prisoner, upon being summoned by Chief Tosh.

Stiney Rakes, who is under charges of as sault and battery made by Constable Phillips and Policeman Goodman, swore he was arrested with Shustock. While in his cell he saw Lee strike Shustock and when the latter fell the policemen jumped on him. Goodman and Lee were in first and then Tosh came in. In the attack Goodman had Shustock by the nock and Lee struck the prisoner. After the testimony was in Lawyer Burke asked that Policemen Goodman and Lee be placed under $500 bail each on each of the three charges, assault and battery, false ar-rest and larceny. Bail in the sum of $300 each on each charge was fixed, and furnished by John A. Titman. The police say the charges are simply a game of bluff to offset the charges of assault
