Probably Die. NEW YORK, Dec. 31.-A family of four persons were asphyxiated at their home in the northern portion of this city yester-day. Two are dead and another is likely to die. John Lichtenberg, a cloakmaker, his wife, Lizzle, and their two children, Willis, 22 months old, and Jacob, 12 weeks old, comprised the family, who occupied four rooms at the rear of Acker's Port

Morris hotel. When Lichtenberg was missed from his bench yesterday a mossenger was sent to his rooms to learn the cause. There the two children were found dead and the parents unconacious. The physicians who were called decided that asphysicitou was the cause and that Mrs. Lichtenberg would probably die. The origin of the nonlous gas, however, has not been discovered.

In the room where the family slept an oll lamp was burning, smoking, and there was a fire in the coal stove, but those who first entered the place could detect no odor of coal or illuminating gas. Just outside of the building, however, there were two large gas holders, belonging to the Central Gas Light company, and it is possible that sufficient gas excaped from these tanks to find its way into the poorly constructed building and accomplish the mis-

As it costs nothing to try the experiment it would seem that any man, suffering with the nervous troubles that unsally attack men who never stopped to realize what might be the final result, ought to be deeply interested in a remedy which will restore them to health, strength and vigor, without which they continue to live an existence of untoil misery. As the remedy in question was the They continue to live an existence of untoil miscry. As the remedy in question was the result of many years research as to what combination would be peculiarly effective in restoring to mon the strength they need, it would seem that all mon suffering with any form of nervous weakness ought to write for such a remedy at once. A request to H. C. Guids, Box 1712, Kalaminoo, Mich., stating that you are not sending for the prescription out of idle curiosity, but that you wish to make use of the medicine by giving it a trial, will be answered promptly and without evidence as to whore information came from. The prescription is sent free and although some may wonder how Mr. Olds can afford to give away his discovery, there is no doubt and side to Mr. Olds so that he may know how you came to write him. 12.28-781
