Although accustomed to sadden deaths, seldom have the people of this community been as greatly shocked as they were when it was announced on Thursday afternoon that was autounced on Thursday aftermeen that Miss Jenuic Thomas had passed away of heart failure during an Illness of but two days, which otherwise would probably at have proven very serious. The deceased was born in Statington, P.a., July 20th, 1859.

Must of her life was spent within the bounds of Schuylkill county, throughout the whole of which the of which she was well known! While at times she was a great sufferer, yet she always seemed possessed of a quiet peace and joy. In the community she will be missed not has been a consistent member of the Presby-terian church of this town, during the most of ours has won its way into your confidence. We thought of which time she was a teacher in the infinite department and treasurer of the Sabbath school. She was also a member of the Sabbath school. She was also a member of the Mallor and the regular organist at the midwesk prayer meeting. Here the place made vacant by her death will be noticed for many years. But the greats wide will be noticed for many years. But the greats wide will be felt in the quiet of her own home, where in spite of her great suffering she was always joyful, noperal and helpful. From her quiet christian home life there went forth an influence akin to this week prayer meeting, the regular organist at the midwesk prayer meeting.
