The Oppressed Miner. The Labigh Valley Coal Company at Jennes-ville has, with the advent of the new year, again commenced, only on a more extensive acute, the annual promulgation of orders. The men have been notified that not a drop of coal all will be allowed in the ulues, and forthermore that they are, after this week, to get their oil from the company, paying 35 come for it, and not from any of the stores, where it can be had for ten cents less. A dime is a dime and means a great deal, not alone for the poor, oppressed miners, whose wages have been reduced to the starvation sint and who will soon be obliged to work for practically nothing, but to any one. The company has very little consideration for the hard working men in their employ. Some of the officials so active in "reducing" wages, but never 'reducing' anything at the stores, may have been utiners themselves once upon a time, but they must have en-
