Tours to Pterida.

No district in America presents, during the Winter season, so many varied attractions as the State of Florida. Besides its delightful if mate, which to one co-spring from the cold and unhealthful changes of the North seems minust ethereal, it is pre-emineatly a land of spatiand pleasure. Along its eleven hundred niles of salt-water must and in its twelve hundred fresh-water lakes are fish of almost every conceivable variety. Irom the migratory tribes common to Northern waters to the tarpen, pompane, and others of a more tropical character. land can the angler find a greater variety of game or better sport.

Here also the most enthustatic hunter finds satiety. Deer, turkeys, bears, panthers, and wild cats roam at large through the more aparsely settled regions, while birds of all kinds may be found in abundance throughout the State. The more novel sport of alligator and manutes hunting may also be indujed in by the more adventurous tourist. With its matchless climate, its orange graves, its rivers and lakes, its beating and bathing, its fishing and hunting, and its extensive forests, Florida presents unrivabled attractions for the valetualizarian, the lover of inture, the sportsman and the explorer.
