FREE CURE FOR MEN.

covery Free. Claims to Be a Benefactor to Weakened Mankind.

There is always more or less suspicion attached to anything that is offered free but sometimes a man so overflows with gonerosity that his cannot rest until his discovery is known to the world, in order that his fellow men may profit by what he loss discovered. It is open this principal that a resident of Kalamazoo, Mich., desires to send free to mankind a prescription which will cure them of any form of neurous debility; relieves them of all the doubt and meeriality which such men are poculiarly liable to and restores the ergans to matural size and vipor. As it reads softly in the analystic world serve that any man, safering with the increase touching to try the experiment it would seem that any man, safering with the increase troubles that assuly attack men who never stopped to realize what might be the final result, ought to be desply interested in a remody which will restore them to health, strength and vigor, without which they continue to live an existence of unteld miscry. As the remedy in question was the result of many years research as to what combination would be peculiarly effective to restoring to men the strength they need, it would seem that all men suffering with any form of nervous weakness ought to write for such a remedy at once. A request to H. C. Olds, Box 1712, Kalamazoo, Mich., stating that you are not sending for the prescription out of idle curiosity, but that you wish to make use of the medicine by giving its trial, will be answered promptly and without a vidence as to where information came from. The prove tryton is sent free and although some may wonder how Mr. Olds can afford to give away his discovery, there is no doubt along the offer being geomine. Out the out and send to Wr. Olds so that he may know how you cannot be write him.

the negro outlaw, who on Thursday murdered three members of the Wilson family and a colored second s and a colored servant, while fleeing from justice for another murder, was lymbed near here yesterday. Cooper was cap-tured by the sheriff's posse and was being taken to Sumter when the mon decided to two men, resisted the lynchers, but were to everyowered. A rope was thrown over a limb of a tree, and as the man swung upward the body was pierced by more than 150 bullets. One bullet cut the rope and the corpuse fell to the ground, where the corpus fell to the ground, where the corpus found it some hours later when he went to hold an inquest.

Cooper was captured in a cable for bor, and said that Cooper was at his house asleep. Burkett rode to Sumter with the news, and a deputy sheriff, with a posse of nine men, immediately left. A woman and man were in the house with Cooper.

Cooper was well armed, and kept up a continuous fire. The house is small and on a hill in the open, so that the posse could not at first come within range with any degree of safety. Once Cooper came out of the house with a gun, and was taking aim when a Mr. McCown fired at him. Cooper immediately dropped his gun and seemed to be hit. He did not shoot, but

Cooper's steady fire kept the crowd under cover for some hours. About noon, however, an advance was made, and the posse closed in. Several men posted them-selves at the door, and as the outlaw stepped out he was seized by the hands. As he stood facing the crowd a shot was fired, and Cooper dropped with a rifle ball through his cheeks. He was not badly wounded, however, and as he rolled over made an attempt to get his hand to his trousers. In his shirt a razor was found, while beneath his trousers band was a loaded revolver. Cooper was drunk, and after the shot became almost ununnage-

A search of the cabin revealed a Winchester rifle, two revolvers, a valise filled with cartridges and a number of flasks, some empty and others fliled with whisky. On a page torn from a blank book was written: "Remember that I killed myself. There never was a man that could take me. Simon Cooper."

Cooper was placed in a wagon with Mr. McKagen of Sumter and Mr. Turbiville of Florence, and the party started for town, with the crowd of nearly 100 men following. There were mutterings of lynching, but the trouble did not culminate until Greenswamp was reached, about two miles from Sumter. Then the mob demanded Cooper's surrender, the officers were overpowered and the negro lynched as related.

The coronw's jury returned a verdict that Cooper "came to his death at the hands of a mob whose members are un-known to the jury."

Workmen Before the Tariil Committee Washington, Jan. 9.—The workingmen played the principal parts in the tariff hearing yesterday by the ways and means committee. Delegations of operatives from the organizations of glass blowers, flint and lime glass workers, the bottle and window glass blowers of Illinois and by the state of Pennsylvania and the potters of Trenton, N. J., and East Liverpool, O., spotta. All told the same story of decreased wages, mills running on short time and general for the manufacturers of cylinder window glass, and Congressman Taylor, of Ohio for the potters, gave interesting illustra-tions of ruinous competition from Japan, F. Both loco-motives were deniedlished and many cars' damaged. Engineer W. F. McKwan took to the woods and has not yet been found. The loss will be heavy.

One thing is certain: It will not do to fool with a bad cold. No one can tell what the end will be. Pneumonia, camerh, chronic conchitis, if not consumption, invariably result from a neglected cold. It is surprising too, that bad colds are so often neglected when one remembers how easily and at what little expense they may be cured. Cham-Pilsner Beers, berhain's Cough Bomedy is always prompt and effectual, and costs but a triffs; 25 or 50 cents is a trifle as compared with the disastrons effects of a neglected cold. Mr. Abner Mercer, of Dilworthtown, Chester County, Pa., in speaking of this remedy, said : "Some time age I had a bad cold and cough, I tried almost everything. Finally Mr. Huut, the druggist, recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and one 50 cent bottle of it cured me entirely." For sale by Gruhler Bros., druggists.
