FRATERNAL VISIT.

Ashland Members Visited the Local Encampment Last Night.

A pleasant feature of last night's regular meeting of Shenandoah Valley Encampment No. 238, I. O. O. F., was a fraternal visit from Prof. William C. Estler, principal of the Ashland school, Rev. T. Davis and George H. Helfrich, all members of Shenandoah Encampment No. 134, of Ashland. Upon the conclusion of the Encampment's meeting a delegation escorted the visitors to the Ferguson House, where Mine Host Hutchinson had in readiness one of his exquisite spreads and a couple of hours were spent very pleasantly. Among those who shared in the banquet were Messrs. Estler, Davis and Helfrich, Henry L. Jones, Charles G. Palmer, School Director Edwin R. Williams, William Draper, John Bunn, David D. Williams, John Hodgetts, Orval Miller and Joseph Hinks.

Can't Donate the Lands.

At a meeting of the Board of City Trusts held in Philadelphia, an opinion from the solicitor, F. Carroll Brewster, was read in which he says the Girard Estate cannot donate a lot of ground for a hospital to be built by the state of Pennsylvania. The land must be devoted exclusively to the objects directed by the testator, Stephen Girard. He also says the Trusts cannot deed land to the hospital to be erected near Mahanoy City, neither can they deed for a nominal sum the surface right of a tract of land to be used for that purpose.

POSITION OF PROF. BOGART.

His Suspension Made Upon His Own Suggestion.

HE IS STILL SUPERINTENDENT!

He Will Not Visit the Schools, or Draw Salary Pending the Proceedings on Appeal—The Legal Status of the Matter—Prof. Cooper Acting.

A special meeting of the School Board was held last night and in addition to the presence of all the members of the Board there were six newspaper reporters in attendance, representing all the local publications as well as newspapers of Mahanoy City and Pottsville. This unusual array of paragraphers was due to the expectation of interesting and lively proceedings bearing upon the case of Superintendent Bogart, but in this respect the meeting was to a great extent disappointing. Under the order of the Board, the communications Secretary Hanna held up three or four letters which he said contained applications for the position of Superintendent of the schools, should there be a vacancy. President Price told the secretary to lay them aside as they were unnecessary to read them at this time. Among the communications read was the following from Superintendent Bogart:

"SHELANDOAH, Jan. 11, 1897. "Board of School Directors, "Owego, N. Y. Dear Sirs: I have been, both by what I heard direct, and by the opinions of others in a position to judge impartially, that my trial at Pottsville was unjust and unfair—also in the fact that I have been asked for a new trial; also because of a concurrent opinion of many disinterested members of the legal profession and citizens of Pottsville, to use, as the saying is, 'the good and the bad' of the trial, I feel justified in asking a continued suspension of judgment on the part of all 'minded people until, at least, the close of a new trial."

"I will further state that it is proper to discontinue my salary during the interval between Thursday, January 7th, 1897, from the time of the verdict, and the date of granting the new trial. "Respectfully submitted, "W. D. BOGART."

When the proper order of business arrived President Price exclaimed, "Well, gentlemen, what do you propose doing with the communication of Mr. Bogart?" A silence followed for almost four minutes. Some of the directors whispered to each other, others seemed to fall into profound thought and others took up the table and leaning slightly over it, and facing the president as directly as his position would allow, he broke the spell of silence by quietly and with some deliberation, saying: "I move, inasmuch that Mr. Bogart is to remain without pay, that further action in the matter be postponed until the result of the motion for a new trial is heard. Mr. Cooper remaining in charge of the school in the meantime. Director Treise seconded the motion.

Director Hanna arose and said that, in view of all the facts connected with the matter, and the fact that he had no good reason for further delay, he would offer an amendment that the Board immediately demand Superintendent Bogart's resignation. Director Higgins seconded the amendment.

Director Lee asked, "What position will it put the Board in if it does demand the resignation? I want to understand this matter."

Director Hanna again arose and said, "I fully determined to remain silent upon this matter. There are certain legal steps that must be taken and it is presumed that the gentlemen who have motioned in the matter thus far are the proper parties to take them. Under the belief that they would do that for the best interests of the schools, and all concerned, the minority had made up their minds to leave it in their hands. It will be very uncomfortable for the minority to take the steps that the majority would take. So far as the assertions of Prof. Bogart are concerned I don't propose to go into a discussion of the matter. All the slander has been transferred from the shoulders of the members of the Board to the Judge and Jury at Pottsville."

Mr. Hanna's remarks broke the case very lengthy and he drifted into the assertion that if any of the directors had any manhood they would not attempt to uphold Prof. Bogart any further, when President Price rapped with the gavel and called the secretary to order. Mr. Hanna said he was only expressing his fears and President Price told him to avoid personalities and confine himself to a discussion of matters before the Board. Mr. Hanna took his seat.

President Price then had his inning. He said: "I have made inquiry into this matter and I expected to have a communication from the State Department in writing to show the Board, but I have not received it yet. But I have been to the State Department, personally, and have seen the four men at the head of the department, and this Board has no legal right to demand the resignation of that man. We can demand it, but he can refuse it, or not. The State Department has nothing to do with the case while it is in the court, and until the new trial has been refused, or granted, we can do nothing with it. Unless Mr. Bogart decides, of his own free will, to tender his resignation. Therefore, it would not be any more than right for this Board to be waiting. The State Department is in the same boat as we are. If a new trial is granted he places Mr. Bogart in the same position he was in before the trial. If refused, then, as I understand, Mr. Bogart will push the case still further. Dr. Schaeffer, the State Superintendent, and Mr. Stewart say they can do nothing for the present. I think the suggestion of Mr. Ogden is as good as anything we can do. When the courts are done with him the State Department can annul his commission."

A vote on the amendment was called. Mr. Hanna was not present and may vote, but President Price said a standing vote would make the same purpose, and it was taken. The amendment was defeated by a vote of 9 to 6. Mr. Ogden's motion was carried by a vote of 9 to 6.

Among the other communications was one from Acting Superintendent Cooper, in which he stated that there were 380 pupils absent from the schools on account of the vaccination law. All but about ninety of them are children of the first and second primary grades. A few of them have been vaccinated, but have lost their certificates and their parents are too poor to pay for new ones. As an example, Mr. Cooper cited the case of a woman on Line street having four children. Many parents object to vaccination in the winter time.

Mr. Edwards moved that the case of the four children be left in the hands of the committee on compulsory education and before the close of the meeting it was announced that the committee had decided to allow the children to return to school to-day.

On motion of Mr. Treise the vote applying to the vaccination of night school pupils was extended one month, and on motion of Mr. Hanna the day school cases were left in the hands of the compulsory education committee and letting Superintendent Cooper.

Upon a request of the Peck-Williams company for payment of the balance claimed on its plant, the Board decided to postpone action until it becomes satisfied with the plant.

A proposition to discontinue one of the evening schools and put an assistant in the evening High School was left in the hands of Acting Superintendent Cooper with power to act.

The Secretary was instructed to correspond with Architect Davis relative to the suit by the Shenandoah Lumber and Feed Company against the School Board for $150 as extra work on the new building.

JOHN A. CAIRN'S EXPELLED.

The Pittsburgh Mine Leader Condemned by the National Convention.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 15.—The proceedings of the national convention of the United Mine Workers yesterday were of a sensational order. John A. Cairn, ex-president of the Pittsburgh district, being expelled from the convention. Cairn had distributed among the delegates a circular claiming that the gas law had been applied by the officials of the organization in refusing to publish an article written by him for the United Mine Workers' Journal, and making an attack on President Pottner.

The trouble between Cairn and Pottner grew out of the convention in the Pittsburgh district, which made a voluntary reduction in the price of mining on the advice of Mr. Pottner, the object of the reduction being defeated by a flank movement of Deamitt, the coal operator. Cairn refused to appear in the convention to make a defense and was unanimously condemned and expelled. The official act of President Pottner during his term of office were endorsed unanimously.

A proposition to levy an assessment of twenty-five cents per capita per month on all members of the organization, to create a defense fund, was referred to a special committee. A committee was also appointed to arrange for a joint conference with the operators for the Ohio and Pittsburgh districts on the question of a differential between the two districts.

Cardinal Gibbons Lauds the Treaty.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 15.—Cardinal Gibbons, in an interview with an Associated Press reporter yesterday, expressed in unqualified terms his approval of the arbitration treaty between England and the United States. His eminence has upon every suitable occasion advocated the settlement of international disputes by this method, because, in his opinion, it reduces to a minimum the danger of a war. He says the treaty "should afford to all lovers of peace the keenest satisfaction. Its importance and its significance cannot be overestimated."

Senator Sherman Visits His Chief.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Senator John Sherman, who has accepted the position of secretary of state in Mr. McKinley's cabinet, left for Canton last night, to have a conference with the president-elect. It is understood that during Senator Sherman's visit to Ohio it will be definitely determined when his resignation will take effect, so that there will be no delay in the appointment of his successor. His resignation will be tendered to Governor Bushnell, who will, as now agreed upon, name Mr. Hanna to serve until the meeting of the legislature.

CHOATE HAD ONLY SEVEN VOTES.

While the New York Republican Leader Captured 147 and Was Then Declared the Unanimous Choice of His Party. Senatorial Contests Elsewhere.

ALBANY, Jan. 15.—Without the usual formality of a nominating speech, with no word of eulogy, but with a strength of votes that was overwhelming, Thomas C. Platt was named as the Republican candidate for United States senator by a vote of 147 to 7 for Joseph H. Choate. Two were absent. Seldom, if ever, has the assembly chamber—the meeting place of the joint Republican caucus on the United States senatorship—presented such a lively scene as it did last night. Long before the hour for assembling arrived, the galleries were filled with visitors. Before the ballot was taken a resolution was adopted to make the choice of the caucus binding on all Republican members. The nomination was made unanimous amid applause. The caucus selected Choate S. Lord, of New York, to be regent of the state university. Few men have been more in the public eye during the last fifteen years than Thomas Collier Platt. His emergence into national prominence in 1881 was under conditions so unusual that his earlier public career and his prominence as a banker and merchant had been generally forgotten. Unable, on account of bad health, to pursue his college course beyond the sophomore year at Yale, Mr. Platt took up a business career, which led the way to the presidency of a national bank at Troy, N. Y., and to a successful venture in the lumber trade in Michigan. In 1872, when 30 years of age, he was elected a representative in congress, and began in 1874. He was elected to the United States senate to succeed Francis Kernan, his term beginning March 4, 1881. In May of the same year, in consequence of a quarrel with President Garfield over the distribution of patronage in New York state, Senators Conkling and Platt resigned their seats, expecting to be re-elected, instead of which the places they had vacated were given to Messrs. Lapham and Miller.

Mr. Platt held the office of commissioner of quarantine of New York city from 1880 to 1882, when he was removed by proceedings instituted on account of his alleged non-residence. He has been a delegate to all of the Republican national conventions, beginning with that of 1876 and including that of last year. He has been the recognized director of the Republican party organization in New York state for the last twelve or fourteen years, and though his title to supremacy has frequently been attacked, he has as often demonstrated his ability to hold it against all comers. Mr. Platt is the president of the United States Express company. At this time he is in his 61th year.

Senator Irbly's Successor.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 15.—The legislature yesterday decided to elect a successor to Senator Irbly on Jan. 25. At a primary of the Democratic party last summer Circuit Judge Joseph H. Bly was nominated for the position against Governor Evans, and he will be elected by the legislature on the date fixed without opposition. Representative Rainford today introduced an anti-trust bill modeled on the Georgia law. The punishment for violation is a fine of $500 to $10,000, or imprisonment for six months to ten years, or both. The bill will doubtless become a law, as it seems to have general approval.

Mitchell's Re-election Probable.

SALT, Ore., Jan. 15.—The Republicans, in joint caucus last night, by a unanimous vote of the members present, nominated John H. Mitchell to succeed himself in the United States senate. Forty-four members were present and letters were read from two others who were detained by sickness, stating that they would abide by the will of the caucus. This gives Mitchell a bare majority of the legislature. The Mitchell men are jubilant, and claim that four more members who refused to go into caucus will cast their vote for Mitchell.

Kernan Captured an Empty Honor.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 15.—The Republican caucus to nominate a candidate for United States senator to succeed Senator Vest, was held here last night and resulted in the selection of Hon. Richard G. Keays, national commissioner from Missouri, over Gummery Ives Piley, chairman of the state committee, by a vote of 30 to 20. There was a big fight in the caucus between the two factions. The honor is an empty one, as it is considered that the Democrats will re-elect Senator Vest.

Mason Will Succeed Palmer.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 15.—Martin B. Madden, the Chicago alderman who has been one of the leading candidates in the senatorial contest, withdrew last night, throwing his support to Ex-Congressman William E. Mason, of Chicago, who had been his most prominent rival for senatorial honors. It is generally believed that Madden's action weakens the selection of Mason a certainty.

Mahoe's Senatorial Headlock.

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 15.—The ballot for senator yesterday resulted: W. H. Claggett, 51; Fred T. Dubois, 50; C. W. Cooper, 6; J. R. Wester, 5; scattering, 4. Claggett, the Populist, lost the votes of two Democrats who supported him on Wednesday.

Probable Suicide.

Sarah Kelly, aged about 15 years, who lived at the home of James Wilson, of New Castle, since the death of her parents several years ago, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by shooting herself in her room. Mrs. Wilson heard the report of the revolver, and going up stairs found the body of Sarah stretched upon the floor with the weapon near her and blood flowing from the bullet wound in the head. A physician was sent for but the unfortunate girl died before his arrival. Mrs. Wilson could advance no reason for the tragedy, as they had always treated the child as one of their own.
