ONE REPUBLICAN AGAINST HIM!

The Young Philadelphia Was Presented With Resolutions Adopted by the State Labor Convention—A Banquet by the Republican Clubs of the State in His Honor.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 20.

Boies Penrose this afternoon elected to take the place of J. Donald Cameron in the United States Senate. Only one Republican voted against him, that of Daniel F. Black, of Chester. The final vote was taken this afternoon at a joint convention of the House and Senate. Both Houses voted separately yesterday, and the vote in the House was Penrose, 108; Chauncey P. Black, York, 33; John Wannamaker, 1; absent or not voting, 2. In the Senate Penrose polled 42 votes and Black, 6. Senators Mitchell, Bradford and Penrose not voting.

When Representative Moore arose and voted for Wannamaker, this bolting the Republican cause, he was greeted with a little burst of applause which was soon drowned in a storm of hisses.

At noon to-day both branches met in joint session, when the vote was officially declared as 210 for Penrose, 30 for Black and 1 for Wannamaker.

The Senate elect was the recipient of many congratulatory expressions from his friends. One of the features of the election was the presence of Senator Penrose of a series of resolutions adopted by the labor convention held in Pittsburgh on the 15th.

The Republican State League of Clubs will give a banquet in honor of Senator Penrose, and it will be a love feast. The leaders of both factions of the party will be asked to attend.

It can be stated upon high authority that there will be no attempt to punish members of the Legislature for voting for Wannamaker.
Such rumors have no foundation. There will be no discrimination, and Senators Loach, Sprunt and Kaufman, among the Wannamaker supporters, received assurances to-day that they would receive the recognition due them as Senators. Each Senator will receive an appointment.

The state committee has experienced some trouble in satisfying everybody. Hon. Joseph Wyatt, of Schuylkill county, received the appointment as Sergeant-at-Arms of the House.
He was endorsed by every member from that county, and his appointment is credited to the entire delegation. J. T. Jones will be appointed to a minor position for Senator Coyne.

Senator Penrose will not go to Washington until March 4th, and will therefore retain his seat in the Senate until that time.

CITIZENS PRIMARIES.

Final Arrangements by the Standing Committee Last Night.

The members of the Citizens Standing Committee and a number of the ward and borough candidates met at the HERALD office last night and concluded the arrangements for holding the primaries of the Citizens party on the 24th inst. The time for candidates to file their names with the secretary of the committee expired last night and no more will be received and any vacancies that exist will be filled by the committee.

The primaries will be held from 4 to 8 p. m. on the date named and at the following places: First ward, Kendrick House; Second, Farmers' Hotel; Third, Benj. Richards; Fourth, Peter Hilber's Fifth, Schmidt's hall.

Two new candidates for Chief Burgess announced themselves last night. They are Messrs Morgan and VanDusen. This makes the candidates for the position eight in number, namely: John Dando; T. H. Van Dusen, C. G. Palmer, Wolf Levine, C. H. Haggenbuch, Pierce Walker, James H. Morgan and Alexander Davis, and in this order the names of the candidates will appear on the official tickets to be used at the primaries. In order to avoid any complaint as to preference being given in placing the names of candidates on the tickets the committee decided that in all cases where there were two or more candidates for the same office lots be drawn and the names be placed on the tickets in the order in which they were drawn from a hat.
This rule was applied to borough and ward offices and with the consent of the candidates in attendance.

Councilman A. D. Gable has no opposition as candidate for nomination as Recorder of Taxes.

There are three candidates for Borough Auditor: Edward C. Mallick, Harry Reese
and William L. Snoger.

The candidates for Borough Justices of the Peace are two in number, ex-Judge William H. Shoemaker and Thomas T. Williams.

The ward tickets thus far arranged are as follows:

FIRST WARD.

Council, William Benne; School Director,
Charles E. Smith; Judge of Election, James Major; Standing Committee, William Wagner.

SECOND WARD.

Council, Charles Schoppe and Martin L.
Shoemaker; School Director, Marshall Baugh; Daniel Ogden, Israel Eisenbender and Harry Kelper; Judge of Election, D. H. Lowellyn.
Standing Committee, E. C. Mallick.

THIRD WARD.

Council, Charles T. Strangh and John G.
Thomas; School Director, George L. Hafner.
Thomas Dove, Jr., John F. Schaeffer and Harry C. Boyer; Judge of Election, Evan J.
Davies; Inspector of Election, Thomas H.
Snyder; Standing Committee, Daniel H.
Snyder.

FOURTH WARD.

School Director, David Morgan. Standing Committee, Samuel Shoen.

FIFTH WARD.

Council, George Mangum, Charles F.
Hoffman, Thomas Paulkovich and Frank Bock. School Director, John T. Lee, Judge of Election, George Millinger. Inspector of Election, Jeffrey Williams. Standing Committee, W. J. Watkins.The Standing Committee will have 10,000 tickets printed for the primaries and the members of the committee will distribute the tickets to the candidates in their respective wards. The tickets will be given out next Tuesday evening.

Change of By-Laws.

The members of the Washington Reunited Society are notified that action on change of By-Laws will be taken at the next meeting of the society, on the 24th inst. By order of the society, CHRIST SCHMIDT, Pres.
Attest: FRANK WILSON, Secy. 1-20-97.

A RAILWAY
DISASTER IWreck on the "Pennsy" at Pottsville
Last Night.

THE ENGINEER'S TERRIBLE DEATH

Jones Shoup Died With His Hand on the Throttle—Fireman Herman Barely Escaped Death—Other Trainmen Injured—None of the Passengers Suffered.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

POTTSVILLE, Jan. 20.—A fatal railroad wreck occurred here last night. The list of killed and injured:

KILLED.

Jones Shoup, engineer, of Delano, aged about 45 years, married and leaves a large family. He died two hours after the accident.

INJURED.

William Herman, fireman, lives at Delano, wife, no children, terribly scalded about the legs and body, not dangerously hurt.Frank Koch, conductor of passenger train, hurt by heavy trunk falling on him.Jere Donovan, baggage-master, received ugly bruises.Lehigh Valley passenger train No. 312, engine 400, one hour after dark at 9:50 last night, crashed into a car loaded with scrap iron that had been knocked across the main line near the old shoe factory, by a runaway coal train from the Pottsville branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The engine and truck were thrown off the track and were turned over on their sides. None of the passengers were seriously hurt, but all were badly shaken up.

The accident occurred north of the junction
