Their Self Appointed Excentioners Permitted the Two Segmes to Posumal Each Other and Then Strung Thom Up and Riddled Their Rodies with Bullets.

AMITE CITY, La., Jan. 21,-Three neuro murderers are dead. They are Arch Johnar and John Johnson, who at the last mo-ment confessed their guilt of the killing of five of the Cotton family, and Gus Will-lams, allas Morrissey, who shot and killed his young wifa. The bodies of the two former were found hanging to a limb of a stout calc in the woods about half a mile from the house in which they butchered their victims.

Johnson's story of the slaughter of the Cotton family was peculiarly brutal. He said that he had always liked the family, and would not have barmed them had it not been for the fact that he was builled into what he had done. He said he armed himself with an ax, not to hurt any of the numeri with an ax, her to durt any of the people in the bouse, but to prevent their oscepting, as its had been told to watch a door. The murior, Johnson said, was planned by Bud McKnight, a white man, tation of the heart. I had not taken one both of Dr. Greene's Nervora blood and nerve remark, before my head and eyes must cleared of their duil aching, and I am growing stronger every day. I cannot do half platter in the praise of this medicine." If constituted, use Dr. Greene's Cathartic Fills with the Nervora. Dr. Greene, 35 West 14th St., New York City, the most successful physician'in entring pervons and chronic diseases, can be con-sulted free, personally or by letter. who was a suttor of the girl, Maude Miller, whose mother, Mrs. Cotton, whipped her for allowing McKnight's attentions. This is the only motive he knew for the crime. He sold at first that Arch Joiner shot Cot-ton, the head of the bousehold, with a gun, then struck Merven Stevens, the son of Mrs. Agnos Stevens, with an az on the forehead, knocking him back on the bed and killing him. Joiner finished the mon and then went into the room which was "WILL YOU BE CURED . . . . . . OF YOUR INFIRMITY ?" complete by Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Cotton and Lizzie Miller, with Maudo and several children, and killed the three woman. Three hundred men approached the Three hundred men approached the court house, the greater part, on hore-sharek, and immediately began searching the deputies, so that they could get the keys. After a delay of about ten minutes the men found Deputy Wainwright in one of the rooms of the hotel and forced him to deliver up the keys before he had time to make an attempt to hide them. The work of getting into the prison was simple. Johnson my his executioners and slipped on his shirt, so that when they opened his cell door he would be ready. Joiner was told that he would be taken, *AT* ALL DRUGGISTS. COUGHS AND COLDS, RHEUMATISM, DYS.

Joiner was told that he ready. Joiner was told that he would be taken, too, and immediately set up a wall that could be heard from outside. He swore that he was innocent, but the men who were to take charge of all three three him down and tied his hands behind his back. Johnson asked one of the men who mere Johnson asked ons of the men who were tying his hands if they meant to burn him or not. He was told that the crowd meant to do so. Williams claimed that he shot his wife accidentally while endeavoring, at 1 o'clock in the morning, to kill a rate with a Winchester. He was joured at and told that rat killing was a had practice, and he should be hung for it. Knowing that his fate was sunled, Williams said nothing more, going with his captors quietly

The three negroes were led out into the The three negroes were led out into the court green, where the horeeness sur-reunded them and waited a little while until the captain of the squad announced his readiness to depart. Before going the ceptain thanked the people, and said that they were there for business only, and if any one wanted to join in and take a hand in the avecution they were welcome. The any one wanted to join in and take a name in the execution they were welcome. The three captives, with long ropes attached to their nocks, were led by horsemen to the Little Zion church, on Oak street, in this place, and there it was declided to hang Williams to a tree that did duty be-fore as a gallows. One of the man slimbed on the ack and fastamed the ronce while up the oak and fastened the ropes, while another slipped the noose over the unfortunato's head.

While this was going on Johnson said to the men about him that if they hung Arch Joiner, whom he had implicated in previous statements, they would be killing an innocent man, as the man who helped itm, wave not in the country. For his pains he was given a rap over the head with a heavy piece of rope, which quisted him for the time. Williams was told to pray and he did so, after which he was ordered to get upon a horse. He became contrary and it was necessary for some of the men to lift him upon the back of the animal. He was then quickly strung up and the party probesided with the other two prisoners. Joiner and Johnson walked about a mile, when Johnson said he could go no further, as he was exhausted. A wagon was procured and both negroes hustled
