state of Gragon from ascending.

Davis asked by what anthority they refused to permit him to take his chair. He was told that they had been authorised by Speaker Benson to allow no ous to take the chair. Davis repeated his question, and after it had again been answered called on bystanders to witness what had passed. He then went to the other side of the restrum, where the proceedings were re-peated. At this juncture a compromise was effected by permitting Davis to take the seat on condition that his house ad-journ before the Benson house was called to order. Davis then took the sent and called the house to order. A roll call showed only seven mornisers present, and the Davis house then adjourned until this aftermoon. Then the Benson house took
