Launch of the Daniel Manning. BOSTON, Jan. 28.—The new revenue outter Daniel Manning was launched yester-day afternoon from the yards of the Atlantic works. The new vessel did not slide easily into her natural element, and fully an hour passed from the time that the last shores were knocked away until she finally moved down the ways into the water. It required the service of three tugs to start the new boat down the ways, and it was an hour after high water when the cutter plunged into the water. Just as she started Miss Margaret Warren, daughter of Col-lector Warren, dashed a bottle of Ameri-can character against the hear, whisten can champagne against the boat, christenamount, however, the government will redeem at maturity the bonds now out-standing, the last of which does not be-come due until 1899. The interest on those bonds until maturity will also be paid by the government.

In official circles the agreement is regarded as highly advantageous to the government Although the interest which the government has paid, and will con-tinue to pay until the last of the outstanding bonds mature, was at the rate of 6 per cent., the figure obtained by the attorney general is very liberal.

For many years the government's money involved in the Pacific railroads has not been regarded as an investment and the interest payments have not been looked upon other than as an expense. The set-tlement of the matter, therefore, without further trouble or expense, even at the figure guaranteed, is looked upon with much favor.
