NEW YORK, Jan. 26 .- Surrogate Fitz-

Mr. Palmer, accompanied by Jo-suph Hololube, the socretary and agent of hor majesty Lilitokalani, as his card states, called to me Private Secretary Thurber, and presented a note from the ex-queen directed to the president, re-questing the privilege of making an unofficial and informal visit. The president assented, and named 5 o'clock as the most convenient hour. Accordingly, at the hour named, a carriage drove to the White House, and from it alighted the ex-queen, Mr. Paimer, Joseph Helsluhe and Miss Kia Nahaolena, the latter being indy compaulon to her majesty Lilluokaban

The ex-queen was assisted from her car riage to the decrway by Mr. Palmer, but at that point her attendants dropped in the rear, and she led the way alone across the lobby and through the doors, which were thrown open by the ashers, to the blue room, where the president soon joined her. The president greeted the exqueen in the most kindly fashion, express-ing pleasure at her call, and stating that he should have felt disappointed had she refrained from making him a visit while she was in Washington. The president and Liliuokalani chatted with evident intorest on both sides for twenty minutes. The ex-queen asked for Mrs. Cleveland. and the president responded that she would be gind to see his visitor, but a mea-nonger sent to Mrs. Cleveland to summen har to the blue room returned with the nows that Mrs. Cleveland had gone out walking.

In all of the talk there was no reference to politics, save a brief expression of thanks by Lillinokalami in behalf of the Hawalian race for his action in withdrawing the annexation treaty which was pending before the senate when the president assumed his office four years ago.
