IN SENATE AND HOUSE,

A Pacettons Amendment to the Indian

Appropriation Bill. Wannission, Jan. 97. - The sauate had a busy seeden yesterday. Cuba, the propound international monetary conference and the Nierragua canal such coming in for a share of attention. Mr. Turpis, of Indiana, closed his speech on the Cuban resolutions, urging that Spain had utterly falled to quel the outbreak, and that the United States should intervene. The Wolcott bill for an international monetary coalerence was considered for the first time. Mr. White, Mr. Cannon and Mr. Daniel urged that the conference would be futile and was not intended as a sorious movement toward bimetallism.

It was made syidont, however, that the he has reached a ripe old age. The nill would meet with little opposition become who yand the expression of senators that the bill would accomplish nothing. Mr. Stowart offered an amendment providing that in case the conference falled the sec-retary of the treasury shall within thirty days begin the free and unlimited colonge of both gold and silver. No final action time Canal commany, of Nicaragua.

The house overrode another of President Cleveland's pension vetoes by a vote of 137 to 52. The bill pensioned Jonathan Scott, of the Sixth Iowa cavalry, who is now living at Oswero, Kan, at the rate of $72 per month. Mr. Cleveland veteed it on the ground that the disability for which the beneficiary was to be pensioned were not contracted

The rest of the day was devoted to a continuation of the debate on the Indian appropriation bill. Mr. Hartman, of Montana, offered in a spirit of facetions ness an amendment to the Indian appropriation bill appropriating $1,000,000,000 for the education and elethration of the The house enjoyed a good laugh and the amendment was quickly rule tout on a point of order.

One thing is certain: It will not do to fool with a bod cold. No one can tell what the end will be.
