The place has a Spanish garrision of 200 men. The Delgados marched to attack it and word was sont by Spanish as property to it, and word was sont by Spaniards to San Martin for aid. As the Spaniards came upon the bridge it went down and precipitated thirty men into the water. The regular formations were broken in the attempt to resone the soldiers in the water. Here the Cubans poured in a destructive fire, and then shouting "Cuba libro" charged fiercety upon them with machetes. The Spaniards could not retreat, and the fight was a hot and bloody one. Major Andres, the Spanish officer, was killed, with two of his ligutemants.

Spanish officer, was killed, with two of his lieutenants.

The troops suffered terribly, the Cubans bewing their way through them towards the colors, where a more desperate hand to hand encounter occurred, but the Culans captured the flag, and then the Spaniards fled. The troops at Las Mangas, hearing the firing, made a demonstration, and the Cubans, fearing to be esught between two fires, retreated carriers of tween two fires, retreated, carrying off their dead and wounded. The Spanish their dead and wounded. The Spanish loss is reported at over a hundred, while the Cubans did not lose over fifteen men. At the palace in Havana the report was sent in from Las Mangas of a Spanish victory, but it added "the Spanish troops left the field before the insurgents did."

On Jan. 24 the insurgents dynamited the iron bridge over the Tunion river at Sagna and as a consequence traffic is suspended. Major Prats has destroyed the prefectures of the Insurgent, Captain Cardese, in the zone of Placetas as far as Buena Vista, seizing the cattle and horses. The capture is important on account of the location, which is a strong strategic position. The prefectures of Quinco Ceperes at Dos Sierras were also destroyed. Captain General Weyler arrived at Colon, in Matanzas province, vestorday and went thence to province, yesterday and went thence to Manguite, proceeding then to the south.
