Postal Inspector Thrall comments on its similarity to that when the same train was hald up on the night of July 1, 1800, firty miles south of the scene of this mited in the same manner in order to stop the train, and Thrail believes the same parties are responsible for both holdups. Five men were conserned in the first robbery and two men were arrested for their participation in it.

They were John Case and John Pool. After a trial in the United States district court of Portland the jury found them guilty. A new trial was demanded and Judge Sellinger granted a new trial, stating that in his opinion there was not sufficient evidence to convict. As the pestal officials had no further evidence the cases were dismissed. Speaks of the Advancement Made in Med-Invious to the Village Doctor of Fifty

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The occasion of the celebration of the semi-centennial of the New York Academy of Medicino at Carnegie Hall last night was made auspictous by the presence of President Cleveland. The hall was taxed beyond its capacity by the doctors and their guests long before the exercises of the evening were begin. On the stage and in the audience were many leading phy-sicians from all over the United States. The feature of the entertainment of the evening was, of course, the address of President Cleveland, which excited considerable merriment and good, feating.
Other addresses were made by President
Bryant, Dr. Samuel S. Purple, of New York, and Dr. Lewis A. Sayro. President Claveland spake in part as

"H, in pursing through the period in whood when the destrable choice of future activity seemed to rest between running saway from home to be a sailor and slaying at home to be a doctor, I hudbled towards the more quist and ortherly of the pursuits, this surely furnishes no basis at this late day for a claim of reintionship to the medical fraternity.

Confessing, therefore, that I have no right to even standing room within the inner circle of the profession, I have boidly and without the least authority determined to speak to you as a representative of the vast army of patients and laymen. We are obedient and submissive to your commands—that is, when we are sick and we sometimes pay your bills even after a recovery to health, which we are always certain would have resulted without your interference. In these circumstances, if, when in perfect health, we venture to assert ourselves and tell you what is to our minds, it is not fair to like ous to a certain personage who when sick a mint should be, though very differently in-clined when wall.

From the Chronicle, Chicago, Ill.

Five years ago last winter, there was considerable commetton on the banks of the White River, Wisconsin, as a young man named E. N. Halleck, had broken through the ice, and was fur some moments lost to view. It was not long, however, before Mr. Halleck came in sight again, and by artistic means was fished from the field and restored to society. If the ducking had been all, it would have been well, but unfortunately, the young gentleman contracted a heavy cold, resulting in chronic rheumatism, compitated with ansess of kidney and urinary organs.
