The New Jersey Editorial Association endorsed the libel bill recently introduced into the Legislature of that state, which makes the communicator of such libelous news the responsible party in the estimation of the law.

A LADY attended the colebration in Roston on Sunday of the one hundred and sixth anniversary of the birth of Thomas Paine, and listened patiently for an hour to speeches enlogizing his memory and belittling christianity, but when finally a speaker counseled the company to teach their children to become free thinkers, she arese and quietly but emphatically said : "Mr. President, ! should like to say that when I give up my religion and my children, it will be for something very much better than anything you have offered to-day." Then she walked out, and for a full minute there was allence.

The total destruction of the old-style but still handsome, commodious and in good cundition State Capitol building at Harrisburg Tuesday, involves, or couple, the eraction of another structure to replace it. As has been the case whenever of late years State Capitol buildings have been erected, they have without exception been of the most costly character, same of them extravagantly so, and such no doubt will be the case at Harrisburg, for although a building equal in size quality of architecture and finish could be replaced at a cost of six or seven hundred thousand dollars, the state will be lucky if in the erection of the new structure it escapes with a bill four or five times as large. While the new building should be handsome and commodious, there will be n excuse for such needless waste as that entailed upon the state of New York and of Illinois also in the erection of new state buildings.

DURING the campaign in the First Legislative district, hast year, it was charged that Representative Griffiths had pledged himself. in the event of his election, to introduce a bill in the Legislature providing for the ap-nointment of a county detective for this senting the Eric railroad, spoke in oppothe member from this district, and calls for the spolarment of such an official in all counties having a population of over 150,000. The consensus of opinion in Schaylender of Schoylender of Schoylende office as called for in Mr. Griffiths' bill, and we are of the opinion that the representatives from this county will find the sentiment of our people almost unanimously against it if they make inquiry among their constituents. Luzerne county has had an experience in this respect, and from which other counties might profit. They have a and passing counterfoit $10 treasury notes. county detective, and newhere in These are supposed to be the last of the the state is lawlessness more rampant and rob. Outs of ten counterfolders who operated beries and murders more frequent. The newspapers there have made a demand for the abelishment of the office, and in doing so they voice the sentiments of their readers. If we may judge from the bills already introduced into the Legislature, a large number of which provide for the creation of new offices, the present session will be an expansive one for the state. If Representative Griffiths has political favors to confer, he should not redeem those obligations at the expense of the taxpayers of the county.

WILL IT BE VETOED ?

President Cleveland has just twenty-seve full days before him in which to round out his career. It is believed by many persons who have given their attention to the subject of his personal aims and ambitions that Mr. Cleveland branxious to retire from office in a blaze of glory; that he depends on the arbitration and Alaska treaties to place him in history among the great Presidents of the Union; that he wishes to be remembered as the inaugurator of "peace with honor" as the leading principle of American diplomacy.

The simbition, if he entertains it, is bou-erable enough. Nobedy will find fault with bim. But Mr. Cleveland can utilize the next twenty-seven days very coully in crowning himself and his Administration with infamy, and unless he is grossly libeled by a Washingtoo correspondent of a bestile newspaper by is contemplating an official set that will cartainly place his name beside those of Buchange and Johnson rather thun Washington and Lincoln.

It is reported that he intends to vete the bill for the restriction of immigration that has just passed the House and lelikely to pass the Senate. He is represented as characteristing it as "fithuman," "obnexious" and "altogether distasteful," and it is added that it entited be passed over his veto. Of course, it is possible that Mr. Cleveland's attitude may be misrepresented, and it is to be hoped that such is the case. But the President who obstructs legislation designed to project the lives of his fellow-citizens from destruction and the murals and the future of his country from ruin will indeed go down to posterity as the representative of "perfidy and dishanor."
