

ESTABLISHED 1870. Published every evening, except Sunday, at 100 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Ill.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1907.

That old bug bear, the Borough Justice, is again in the courts of this county.

This lowest temperature ever recorded was on December 30, 1871, and was experienced by Professor Gorochov.

Dows in New Jersey a week or so ago a fire was put out with wine, and now a Chicago fire has been extinguished with milk.

Thin wheelmen say that there will be very little change in the make of wheels this year and that the prices will be the same.

President-elect McKinley has insured his life for $50,000. He had to do it in self-protection.

The dissimulation that exists in the ranks of the local Democracy, because of the unpopularity of the candidates and the questionable manner in which they secured their nomination, has become so apparent that the "bosses" of that party have restricted that old familiar chestnut, and place the blame on the conference system of making nominations.

OUR criticism upon the attempt being made to further burden the taxpayers of Schuyler county by the creation of the office of county detective, was favorably commented upon last evening.

MEAN common has recently arisen among fashionable people regarding the annual and even phenomenal size of this new generation of women.

THE business men of Shenandoah recognize the merits of the HERALD as an advertising medium; in fact, there is no other channel through which to reach the masses.

THE New York Sun says the following compliment to the new Senator from Pennsylvania: "The greatest piece of good fortune which has come to Harvard University for many years is Mr. Boies Penrose, of Pennsylvania, recently elected Senator of the United States."

late President Roberts from the position of reformer to the Presidency of the road was the logical outcome of this admirable system, and the election of Vice-President Frank Thompson to the place vacated by the late President Roberts is the natural result of the same system.

TO CALL A COLD IN ONE DAY. Pickle Juice (Lime) Quinine Tablets. At druggists and the corner 24 E. 10th Street, Chicago.

LONDON'S WATER SUPPLY. The whole of Greater London, covering an area of about 600 square miles, is supplied by these organizations, whose powers are defined by law.

The daily total is about 220,000,000 gallons, or 40 gallons per head. Every drop of the water is carefully purified, with the exception of that from the wells.

The pumping operations represent an enormous expenditure of force. The Southwark company, for instance, pumps 15,000,000 gallons every day a distance of 15 miles to Stratford, with a rise of 115 feet, for distribution thence to the other parts of the district.

HOW TO FIND OUT. Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

Fill a bottle of common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

INTERESTING EXPERIENCE. Of an Iowa Lady Who Was Cured of Dropsy After Suffering for Twenty Years. Mrs. Sarah A. Skeels, an estimable lady residing at Lyonsville, Jasper Co., Iowa, was for twenty years a sufferer from Dropsy, and her complete restoration to health is so remarkable that we present the facts in detail.

THE Old Constitution as a Remedy. Washington, Feb. 5.—Representative Fitzgerald, of Massachusetts, appeared before the naval committee yesterday and succeeded in securing a provision in the naval appropriation bill for testing up the Old Constitution, now lying at the Portsmouth yard, as a naval museum.

TO Florida via Pennsylvania Railroad. The winter exodus has begun. The discomforts and dangers of wet winter weather are here, but to the southwest, from a cloudless sky, beams a beautiful sun upon a blushing sea.

Reduced Rates to Washington on Account of the Inauguration via Pennsylvania Railroad. For the benefit of those who desire to attend the inauguration incident to the inauguration of President McKinley, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Washington March 1, 2, 3, and 4, valid to return from March 4 to 8, at the following rates: From Potomac, $7.25; from Baltimore, $8.50; from Philadelphia, $10.00; from New York, $12.00; from Chicago, $20.00.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

SIAM'S TROUBLOUS TIMES. The Demands of Many Governments, Including the United States. London, Feb. 5.—Special dispatches received here from Bangkok say that serious complications have arisen between the Siam government and the United States and German ministers.

TO Florida via Pennsylvania Railroad. The winter exodus has begun. The discomforts and dangers of wet winter weather are here, but to the southwest, from a cloudless sky, beams a beautiful sun upon a blushing sea.

Reduced Rates to Washington on Account of the Inauguration via Pennsylvania Railroad. For the benefit of those who desire to attend the inauguration incident to the inauguration of President McKinley, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Washington March 1, 2, 3, and 4, valid to return from March 4 to 8, at the following rates: From Potomac, $7.25; from Baltimore, $8.50; from Philadelphia, $10.00; from New York, $12.00; from Chicago, $20.00.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

A MONTREAL SENSATION. Alleged Kidnaping of a Billionaire Heir Estate Dealer. Montreal, Feb. 5.—A millionaire real estate dealer from New Hampshire is alleged to have been held a prisoner in this city by a couple who passed as Mr. and Mrs. Stanton, of New York, but who are said to be the Rev. and Mrs. Richardson. Three months ago the Richardsons rented a furnished house in this city. With them when they took possession of the house was the man whom they are supposed of having kidnaped. The police refused to disclose the name of this person, but he is described as small, dark and about 60 years of age, and it is alleged that he controlled immense interests in New Hampshire.

TO Florida via Pennsylvania Railroad. The winter exodus has begun. The discomforts and dangers of wet winter weather are here, but to the southwest, from a cloudless sky, beams a beautiful sun upon a blushing sea.

Reduced Rates to Washington on Account of the Inauguration via Pennsylvania Railroad. For the benefit of those who desire to attend the inauguration incident to the inauguration of President McKinley, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Washington March 1, 2, 3, and 4, valid to return from March 4 to 8, at the following rates: From Potomac, $7.25; from Baltimore, $8.50; from Philadelphia, $10.00; from New York, $12.00; from Chicago, $20.00.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Sick Headache. Remedies and Extra Remedies. VERBEE'S I was eighteen years old until I learned of Dr. Miller's Restorative. I suffered from sick headache, nervousness, and dizziness. In the latter stages of my illness, I was treated by several doctors with no relief. Shortness of breath, and smothering spells made me most miserable. I procured Dr. Miller's Restorative Nervine and New Headache and took them alternately as directed. Improvement began at once and increased so rapidly that inside of five months I increased thirty-six pounds in weight. All pains in the stomach, all the rheumatism has wholly left me.

TO Florida via Pennsylvania Railroad. The winter exodus has begun. The discomforts and dangers of wet winter weather are here, but to the southwest, from a cloudless sky, beams a beautiful sun upon a blushing sea.

Reduced Rates to Washington on Account of the Inauguration via Pennsylvania Railroad. For the benefit of those who desire to attend the inauguration incident to the inauguration of President McKinley, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Washington March 1, 2, 3, and 4, valid to return from March 4 to 8, at the following rates: From Potomac, $7.25; from Baltimore, $8.50; from Philadelphia, $10.00; from New York, $12.00; from Chicago, $20.00.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

MADE ME A MAN. AJAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE ALL Diseases Involving the Urinary and Reproductive Systems. I was afflicted with gonorrhea and prostatic hypertrophy for several years. I was treated by several doctors with no relief. Shortness of breath, and smothering spells made me most miserable. I procured Dr. Miller's Restorative Nervine and New Headache and took them alternately as directed. Improvement began at once and increased so rapidly that inside of five months I increased thirty-six pounds in weight. All pains in the stomach, all the rheumatism has wholly left me.

TO Florida via Pennsylvania Railroad. The winter exodus has begun. The discomforts and dangers of wet winter weather are here, but to the southwest, from a cloudless sky, beams a beautiful sun upon a blushing sea.

Reduced Rates to Washington on Account of the Inauguration via Pennsylvania Railroad. For the benefit of those who desire to attend the inauguration incident to the inauguration of President McKinley, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Washington March 1, 2, 3, and 4, valid to return from March 4 to 8, at the following rates: From Potomac, $7.25; from Baltimore, $8.50; from Philadelphia, $10.00; from New York, $12.00; from Chicago, $20.00.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.

Verdict in a Life Insurance Case. St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The United States court of appeals has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of the heirs of A. J. Mitchell, a resident of Memphis, who was killed by falling from a train while returning home from St. Louis.