SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1920.

This is the last month of the Democratic administration, and, appropriately, the shortest of the year.

When it becomes necessary to resort to affidavits, the political contest in this town may be said to be interesting.

A WHIST party of 3000 players is to be held in one of the Boston halls. No curtain of old dream of such a thing, but unless the rest of the world is to be kept by some automatic device he would enjoy the spectacle.

ALABAMA has abandoned the Australian ballot. The method of voting in that state is now little if the final majority is to be fixed up as usual in the black belt, where the figures are manipulated to make a Democratic stronghold.

It is contrary to professional ethics for doctors to advertise, but the Watson (Ill.) physician who built a private telephone line connecting his office with the homes of all his country patients did the best and most effective sort of advertising.

AS THE Democrats find nothing to say against the Citizens candidates, they can only renew campaign tactics and abuse certain representatives of the party. Personal abuse never yet won a political battle, and the present contest will be no exception to that rule.

SENATOR QUAY has had an operation performed on his eye, which gives both his eyes the same appearance and which, it is thought, will not only prove ultimately successful, but will enable the Senator to see things as they really are, which all will agree will be a most desirable acquisition, especially to the average reader after a place.

An effort will be made at the present session of the Legislature to amend the Brooks High License law. A petition is being circulated among the hotel men of the state praying that the law be so amended as to permit the sale of liquor to hotel guests on Sunday. There is much opposition to the proposed amendment, and the members of the Legislature should go slow in its consideration.

LIKE Banquo's ghost, the promises made the Polish and Lithuanian citizens by the Democratic leaders, and which were not carried out, will not down, and will haunt them on election day. The Germans, too, have a grudge against this nature of long standing.

WHEN a Hazleton man goes out at night he takes, if he is wise, a gun and a revolver, and his faithful wife sees that he does not forget his brass-knuckles. And yet Luzerne county taxpayers are paying dearly for the services of a county detective that does not detect murderers and cut-throats. The experience of our neighboring county ought to be sufficient to show the members of the Legislature from Hazleton that we have an abundance of political sinners.

It is asserted that if an express train, moving at the rate of forty-five miles an hour, were to stop suddenly, it would give the passengers a shock equal to that of falling from a height of fifty-four feet. This is not to be compared with the shock our Democratic friends will receive when they awake on the morning of the 17th inst., and find every branch of the local government in the hands of the Citizens party. But such is fate!

THE Philadelphia Record says: "A suggestive conversation between two ladies took place in a trolley car lately. One of them wished to match a dress made of out-of-date goods, and spoke of going to a certain store. 'What is the name of going there?' exclaimed the other. 'They don't keep anything old. The only chance is to hunt up a store that seldom or never advertises.' How suggestive of modern methods that 'a hunt' should be required for a store of that description!"

This Legislature has at length agreed to occupy one of the Methodist churches of Harrisburg as the place for holding their business sessions, a much more suitable place than one of the large Philadelphia halls, as was at first proposed. There are too many temptations in large cities to make them suitable places of sojourning for the unsuspecting young men who are usually selected by the rural voters to be sent to Harrisburg to make laws for us. They are generally well meaning folk, but at the same time will always be watching. They should therefore be content to stay at the place selected for them, where they will no doubt be happier and will return to the homes of their families more virtuous, wiser and better men than if the session were spent in the heart of Philadelphia.

The destruction of the state capital building at Harrisburg may have some bearing upon the project looking to the erection of a general hospital near Malvern City. It is to be hoped, however, that the lawmakers may be inspired to see their way clear to avoid the curtailment of appropriations of this nature. The constitution of the state provides that "no debt shall be created by, or on behalf of the state, except to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or pay existing debt, and the debt created to supply deficiency in revenue shall never exceed in the aggregate at any one time $1,000,000." If this provision, correctly construed, forbids the creating of a debt to erect a state hospital in place of the one recently destroyed by fire, then it will become necessary to pay for the building out of the current revenues. To do this it will require a severe pruning of the appropriations, and this fact causes the friends of the hospital project to fear that the appropriation for that institution may be withheld.

THE CONFLICTS IN CRETE.

They originated in an extended report of the Constantinian Massacres.

Athens, Feb. 6.—Advices received from the island of Crete are to the effect that the trouble at Canes originated in the unprovoked report that the Christians had killed twenty-seven Christian monks at Akrotiri.

When this report was received the wali ordered the troops to proceed to the district of the Christian villages. The Crete was attacked, and it is reported that twenty persons were killed. Several villages were destroyed by fire. Canes itself is in a state of complete ruin. The Mussulmans are claimed to have initiated the attacks upon the Christians and commenced the discharge of firearms. A considerable number of persons perished in the fire. Finally the soldiers themselves fired from the ramparts on the heads of the Christians.

The Mussulmans set fire to the quarters occupied by the Christians, and the flames were visible from the western shore of the harbor. The flames appeared to be spreading in the direction of the palace of the archbishop and the Greek schools. The commanders of the Italian and French ambulances attempted to stop the fighting, and landed small detachments of soldiers for the purpose of protecting the telegraph offices. The Christians at Akrotiri sought refuge at the office of the foreign consuls and on board the gunboats. The wali and the consuls of the powers were near Akrotiri when the outbreak commenced, but they were unable to enter Canes until nightfall. The fighting ceased, but the fires have not yet been extinguished.

Minutes seem like hours when a life is at stake. Crete gives no time to send for a doctor, delay may mean death. One Minute Cough Cure is the only medicine that produces immediate relief. C. H. Hagenbuch.

Trusted Cashier and Cash Missing. Bethlehem, Pa., Feb. 6.—C. E. H. Hagenbuch, cashier of the First National bank, of Bethlehem, is missing, and the examination of his books by an expert has shown a total loss of $100,000. The amount was taken in small sums, and the population extended over a period of ten years and showed a systematic form of operation. The directors announced that the defalcation will not affect the bank in the least. Hagenbuch has been connected with the bank since its organization, and has been the trusted cashier of the institution for over twenty years. The general belief is that he has fled only to commit suicide.

Beware of the Knife. Mr. Lincoln Nelson, of Marshfield, Mo., writes: "For six years I have been a sufferer from a scrofulous affection of the glands of my neck, and all efforts of physicians in Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Ill., St. Louis, Mo., and Chicago, failed to give me relief. After six months' constant treatment here, my physician urged me to submit to a removal of the gland. At this critical moment a friend recommended S.S.S., and I bought a bottle of DeWitt's S.S.S. I began its use. Before I had used one bottle the enlargement began to disappear, and now it is entirely gone, though I am not through with my second bottle yet. Had I only used your S.S.S. long ago, I would have escaped years of misery and saved over $100."

This experience is like that of all who suffer with deep-seated blood troubles. The doctors can do no good, and even their resorts to the knife prove either failures or fatal. S.S.S. stops all the real blood remedy; it gets at the root of the disease and forces it out permanently. S.S.S. (guaranteed purely vegetable) A Real Blood Remedy.

is a blood remedy for real blood troubles; it cures the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, Eczema, Cancer, Rheumatism, etc., which other so-called blood remedies fail to touch. S.S.S. gets at the root of the disease and forces it out permanently. Valuable books will be sent free to any address by the Swift Specialties Co., Atlanta, Ga.

KENNEY GETS HIS SENATE SEAT

It Will be Contested, However, by J. Edward Adkins.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The senate yesterday admitted Richard H. Kenney to the Delaware seat vacated many months ago by Mr. Higgins, and which since then has been the subject of continuous controversy. This augmented the Democratic number to 49 and for the first time raised the full membership of the senate in its proper quota of 90. It effected no essential change in party strength, however, the division being: Republicans, including independents, 44; Democrats, 40; Populists, 6.

All opposition to the seating of Mr. Kenney was withdrawn. Republican senators conceding that his credentials for the regular legislature had chosen him in due form, gave him a prima facie right of admission. Mr. Chandler and Mr. Hoar expressed this view, and stated that Mr. Kenney's title would be attacked hereafter on the ground that his credentials, while prima facie correct, came from a legislature fraudulently elected. Mr. Hoar made the further statement that the Dupont case could not be reopened, having once been passed upon by the senate. The effect of this course is to leave J. Edward Adkins as the contestant for the seat held by Mr. Kenney.

The Nicaragua canal debate proceeded without definite conclusion. Mr. Caffery, of Louisiana, speaking against the bill. The pension calendar was cleared during the day, about fifty pension bills being passed.

Senator Sherman has given notice that he will ask the senate to go into executive session on Monday for the purpose of taking up the arbitration treaty. It is expected that the motion will be antagonized by those who desire to have other measures considered. The Nicaragua canal bill, directly with the Nicaragua canal bill.

Yesterday was private bill day in the house, and the entire day was spent in clearing the calendar of the unnumbered bills reported from the Friday night sessions. Out of sixty-three bills fifty-nine were passed.

It pays us to lose—Sometimes! Here's a case in point. We have left a small lot of those excellent, popular warm-lined shoes. We haven't the room, nor the disposition to keep them until next winter, and rather than run the risk of so doing we've cut the prices even below the money-saving factory prices.

It's positive loss to us, but we'd rather lose than carry them over. Factory prices were 65c, 75c, $1 and $1.25. The get-out-quickly figures are 50c, 60c, 75c and $1.

If you want a taste of this best of all shoe chances, you must come quickly. Can't last long at these prices. Checks with every purchase; $2 worth gets a handsome Parlor Lamp.
