Miss Mamie Owens and Lizzie Wolfgang, of Ashland, were in town last evening. Dr. W. N. Stein, after a visit of three or four days in Philadelphia, returned home to-day.

William Broughall, of Ellangowan, was a noon passenger to Pottsville. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mullaly, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Evans and George W. Keiper went to Mt. Carmel to-day to attend the funerals of Hugh J. Evans and Miss Wert.

Harry Faust is now entering to the patrons of the "Fido" cafe. He presents a fine appearance in a white duck coat and button-hole boquet.

MR. RUST GETS A LETTER. It is somewhat delayed because addressed to Elm Grove, Elm Grove, Mo.

What should have been the third line of the address was in the shape of a more or less accurate map of Kansas City, showing the location and the character of the locality.

After puzzling his brain for a long time, without any good result, he took the letter to Nick Clark, a friend of his, who is supposed to be able to guess all sorts of conundrums.

That is how J. S. Rust received the letter over which his friend in Concepcion, Mo., had spent so much time.—Kansas City Times.
