"Res" is of the Opinion That the Citizens Ticket Will Win.

Ev. Herald.—I might state here, as an introduction and in confirmation of all assertions that have appeared in these letters, that it is noticeable the "managing editor" of the News has perfectly satisfied that my statements as to the inside history of the Democratic campaign were as true as gospel. I was of the opinion that the hint I gave would be sufficient to clear away all doubts on that score, without giving names. In my first communication, you remember, I stated Democratic authority could be produced to prove my assertions. That statement still holds good.

I must congratulate the Citizens candidates upon one thing, and that is the manner in which they have conducted themselves during the campaign. This is as it should be. There is no good reason why the local fight should be made as bitter as some in the past. It is true the Citizens candidates have performed some active work, and it will show itself in the result to-morrow night. The change has been made by the Democratic organ, and reflected, that the Citizens have conducted a "dark-lantern" campaign; simply because our Democratic friends do not know what their opponents are doing. The political moves on the chess-board, so far as the Citizens are concerned, have not been heralded from the mountain tops, and as a result the enemy is at a loss to know the true situation.

A pertinent question for every voter of the Citizens party to ask himself, on the eve of the election, is: What will I gain by voting against the Citizens candidates? In local elections, when national and state lines are obliterated, or should be, it is the duty of the voter to compare the qualifications of one candidate with that of the other, and cast his vote for that one which is best qualified for the position sought. This is essential to secure good local government.

The Citizens candidates have nothing to lose, but everything to gain, in a campaign of this nature. Dear voter, you have a duty to perform to-morrow; and upon your decision depends the character of the government—whether it shall be good or bad—in store for Shenandoah during the next three years. It is a matter of life and death to you, and you have no right to shirk it. It is essential, therefore, that the taxpayers of Shenandoah should pause and study well the qualifications of the men now seeking office. Let not personal prejudice or other considerations sway you from your duty to your home and your children.

There was much activity among the Democratic leaders last night. They reminded me of a storm-tossed ship without a rudder, seeking a harbor at any port. The grand moguls were called together yesterday afternoon in secret caucus, so I am informed. The nature of the conference was said to have a bearing on the Second and Third wards, where a number of Democrats are kicking the traces. Pledges were said to have been made to retain a certain Democratic borough official in office in the event of the Democratic securing control of the Borough Council—an event that is not likely to happen, however, at this time.

Last night another conference of the Democratic leaders was held. The Lithuanian, and Slavonian voters was the bone of contention, and the Democratic leaders were prepared to offer them even the Presidency if they would fight in for the entire Democratic ticket. My advice to the Lithuanian, Polish and Slavonian people is to accept promises from that source with a grain of salt. They were promised three positions on the Democratic ticket, and received one. The party organ has on several occasions said they were entitled to the appointment of overseers in each of the five wards, something unusual in the Second and Third wards, where the elections pass off without any conflict between the two parties. I have not heard that application for the appointment of overseers has been made; but the movement is an indication that our Democratic friends propose to resort to extreme measures to-morrow. The duties of and privileges of overseers are such that they may remain in the polling place during the whole time the election is held, the votes counted and the returns made. It may keep a lot of voters, especially any person offering to vote, interrogate him and his witnesses under oath, and examine his papers; and election officers are forbidden to interfere with the duties of overseers, under a penalty of fine and imprisonment.

Another result of that Sunday night conference by the Democrats, as stated by a prominent member of that party, was to secure the appointment of overseers in each of the five wards, something unusual in the Second and Third wards, where the elections pass off without any conflict between the two parties. I have not heard that application for the appointment of overseers has been made; but the movement is an indication that our Democratic friends propose to resort to extreme measures to-morrow. The duties of and privileges of overseers are such that they may remain in the polling place during the whole time the election is held, the votes counted and the returns made. It may keep a lot of voters, especially any person offering to vote, interrogate him and his witnesses under oath, and examine his papers; and election officers are forbidden to interfere with the duties of overseers, under a penalty of fine and imprisonment.

When you get a voter to thinking, then there's trouble for the designing politicians. That is just what many Democrats are doing to-day. I have opened their eyes to more than one wholesome truth. Many of them now see that the Democratic party is being used—for what? To place in position two men. To gain that and these men have schemed and plotted, and some of them only to be friendly to themselves. The Democrats who have stood by the party in the past as a matter of principle, resent this, and openly express their condemnation of the tactics resorted to—and for what? To install the two gentlemen into office. One of them held back certain information that the people should have known in order to secure an appointment for himself. No respecting Democrat will tolerate such methods.

READY FOR THE ELECTION

Last of the Ballots Sent Out by the Commissioners.

COURT APPOINTMENTS TO-DAY

Judge Bechtel Names Ten Overseers For Shenandoah and Certificates Are Also Issued for Forty Watchers—Republicans, Citizens and Democrats Will be Represented.

When the next issue of the HERALD is given to the public, the battle of the ballots will be all but over, and it will be one of the most vigorous and determined elections held in the town for many years. Ever hour, day and night, now seems to be devoted to work by one or the other of the parties to the election and little outside of politics is being mentioned anywhere. Politicians are actively manning various places to another and another holding on the street has become so frequent as to almost pass unnoticed.

From present appearances there will be a big vote polled to-morrow, but it will not begin to show itself until the afternoon, as all the collations will be operated in the morning. The working time has been so arranged for this week as to make three three-quarter days, and yet allow half a day for election purposes. To-day the collations started up at 7 a. m. and quit at 4:15 p. m. To-morrow they will work from 7 a. m. until noon, and on Wednesday they will work from 7 a. m. until 4:15 p. m.

A new Democratic dodge was discovered to-day. The information comes from a reliable source. In order to manufacture voters the Democrats to-day secured a large number of tax receipts signed by an ex-Tax Collector, but dated so as to bring them within the two-year limit. The Republicans and Citizens will no doubt watch for these slips of paper at the polls to-morrow.

The number of overseers and watchers at the polls will be greater than at any time since the introduction of the Baker ballot law. All the political parties have had appointments made and with the election board appointed officials and voters in the respective polling places there will be no room for the curious, or others having no business in the places.

Judge Bechtel this morning appointed the following Overseers for the polling places in this town and the certificates of appointments will be delivered to the respective Judges of Election:

- FIRST WARD—Frank Hanna, Democrat; Robert Anderson, Republican. SECOND WARD—J. Brennan, Democrat; Abe Green, Republican. THIRD WARD—M. H. Master, Democrat; D. J. Brooks, Republican. FOURTH WARD—Thomas Manley, Democrat; George Hays, Republican. FIFTH WARD—Lawrence Cullen, Democrat; George W. Davis, Republican. Certificates were also issued at the Potomac court to-day for forty watchers for duty at the polls in town to-morrow. The names of the watchers, the wards they will serve in and the political parties they will represent are as follows:

- FIRST WARD—Republican, Alex. Morris, and William Ranna, Citizens, William Reeves, E. A. Doherty and Edward Mader, Democrat, Martin Udelsky, Patrick Graham and Thomas Tracy. SECOND WARD—Republican, D. H. Llewellyn and Harry Goodman, Citizens, Edward Keary, Willie Conception, T. M. Scott, Democrat, W. W. Rykiewicz, Thomas Dalton and Clayton Palmer. THIRD WARD—Republican, Andrew Combs and Moses Rogers, Citizens, R. M. Glover, Samuel McVeterson and James O. Sampson, Democrat, S. A. Rosonant and Owen Braun. FOURTH WARD—Republican, John Krapowick and Joseph Temple, Citizens, Lewis Lohr, Jr., Frank Gubeich and William J. Evans, Democrat, Patrick Canfield, John Scullion and George Critch. FIFTH WARD—Republican, R. D. Keos, Edith Wray, William Conception, T. M. Scott, William Giles and Anthony Brailer, Democrat, Michael Conners, M. B. Britt and Anthony Wisloski.

The County Commissioners to-day announced that all the ballots and everything else had been put in readiness for the elections in all the wards of the county. The last installments of ballots were sent out this morning to Mahanoy City, Frankville, Tremont, Porter township, Gordon, Pottsville, Port Carbon, Palo Alto, Yorkville, Orrisburg and Cresora.

A Pitiable Case. A woman who has aroused much sympathy is Mrs. Mary Bantock, a Hungarian, whose name has appeared in the newspapers frequently during the past few weeks on account of her troubles with her husband, who resides and works at Wm. Penn. Within a short time the woman has had her husband arrested for a charge of assault and battery and although he is one or two in a state of insanity he is still in the county jail. The woman wanted the Justice to cause the husband's arrest and then telegraph to McAdoo and learn if the brother was dead. The manner and speech of the woman convinced the Justice that ill treatment had at last caused her mind to give way and no steps were taken on her complaint.

IMPORTANT TO TAXPAYERS!

The School Board of the Borough of Shenandoah, through its undersigned finance committee, desires to submit the following statement in connection with the proposed increase of the bonded indebtedness of the school district, and which the voters of the borough will be called upon to decide at the borough election to be held on the 16th inst.:

Within the past five years the School Board has erected three new and commodious school buildings, which have been constructed on the most improved plans and are in every way a credit to the town. These new structures, together with the grounds upon which they are erected, and the interior furnishings, have cost the Board about $30,000 and are located in the most prominent and thickly populated parts of the borough, viz: West street, just south of Centre; corner of Jardin and Cherry streets; White street, between Centre and Lloyd streets.

The erection of these additional buildings became an absolute necessity, by reason of the great steady increase in the population of the borough and the desire of the people to keep the curriculum of the schools, as it always has been, second to none in the state. This growth of attendance and fidelity to the welfare of the cause of public education has led to the establishment of more teachers, improvement in heating and ventilating methods in class rooms, the addition of advanced and modern studies in all branches, and a general course of outlay far in excess of what was required in the public school system in earlier years. Moreover the school tax has been increased, within recent years, from nine to ten months and the free text book law has caused an additional annual expenditure of considerable proportions.

All these sources of increased indebtedness have been met successfully until the present year, when the School Board found itself confronted with the problem as to whether all its efforts of the past should go for naught and the schools left in a crowded condition, or whether the people should be asked to provide funds with which to relieve the pressure. The School Board has the power to add several mills to its present tax rate, and had the power to do so last Spring, but with confidence in the people's pride in the cause of public education, it was concluded to erect another school building (the one on White street) and trust to the good faith of the people to meet the cost. In addition to this it has become evident that to afford suitable accommodations for the pupils and teachers of the High school, and therefore maintain the standard, an addition to the structure must be erected.

The School Board is now carrying a floating indebtedness of $30,000, created mainly by the erection and furnishing of the new school building on White street. There are but two ways in which this indebtedness can be met, viz: By an increase in the tax rate, or the issuance of bonds. With confidence in the intelligence of the taxpayers and their ability to understand that the latter is the simplest, easiest and best method by which to meet the obligation, the School Board of the Borough of Shenandoah, through its undersigned finance committee, asks that the application for a $45,000 increase in the bonded indebtedness of the school district be sustained at the borough election to be held on Tuesday, 16th inst.

Respectfully submitted, WILLIAM T. TRIGINE, Chairman, DANIEL OGDEN, FRANK HANNA, JAMES DEWITT, THOMAS S. JAMES, Finance Committee.

Free Concert. Every evening at Fuller's saloon, 38 East Centre street. Pianist and vocalist, Prof. R. Williams. Bar is stocked with finest liquors, cigars, fresh beer and porter and fresh and stock ale. A hearty welcome is tendered to all. Respectfully, JOHN FULLER, 38 East Centre street.

NEWS FROM HARRISBURG I

Grace Church Has All the Features of a Capitol Building.

NEED OF INCREASED TAXATION I

Measures Which Propose a Revenue From the Great Natural Resources of the Commonwealth—Opposition to Increasing the Burden of the Farmers.

Harrisburg, Feb. 15.—There has been a great transformation of the improved quarters of the legislature, in the past few days, and Grace Methodist Episcopal church at the present time presents in its interior all the features of a capitol building, so that when the legislature convenes again on Wednesday the members will find new desks have been provided, and everything established to add to their comfort and convenience. It is to be hoped nothing further will hinder them in their work during the remainder of the session. One of the members remarked in a peculiar way a few days ago that it is good to see the legislature in a building that has two things accomplished since the organization—the election of a United States senator and the burning of the capitol. But there is a determination to get down to business, and from present indications there is every reason to justify the belief that much good will be accomplished this session.

There has been much discussion among the members of both branches of the legislature on a number of questions of importance to the state, and the many plans proposed would lead a person to conclude that, after all, the fire was a blessing in disguise. One thing is certain, it will result in a more efficient fire department in Harrisburg, and greater security will be given to the remainder of the property of the state on the hill, especially those things which contain the important records of the state. It is possible that, through the loss entailed, and the fact that a greater revenue will be required, a new source of revenue will be developed.

Why Minerals Should be Taxed. It is contended by some of the members that the citizens of Pennsylvania have made a mistake heretofore in not exacting a state tax on the more important minerals mined and produced within the limits of the state. They claim that the mineral of coal has become profitable to a number of persons who have taken their profits to build palaces in New York city and engage in enterprises in other states.

The production of petroleum has been the means of securing great wealth to a number of persons, some of whom have used it to engage in manufacturing on a gigantic scale in other states, and also used a part of their profits in the establishment of universities in different parts of the country. It is claimed that the development of these enterprises have been a great source of expense to the state, owing to the large percentage of foreigners that have been brought into the state, and through whom the percentage of crime has increased, resulting in an increased expenditure in the state in their incarceration in the prisons. Then, as there is more or less hazard connection with these occupations, there is necessarily an increase in the number of patients to the various hospitals belonging to the state. These, and the fact that considerable expense is necessary in the surveillance over the various mining interests by the state, and other features, they believe, justifies the state in demanding a state tax on coal, petroleum and other mineral products; and with these, in addition to the returns now collected, there can be sufficient raised to build a new capitol building that will be a credit, and have a balance to devote to the improvement of roads, school purposes or anything else of importance to Pennsylvania.

Those who oppose the imposing of a tax on the various mineral resources of the state claim that it would only put a further burden on the consumers of the state, who are very large users of these minerals and who would have to pay this tax at the end, and in fact how to eliminate this feature from the question is what is perplexing those who are advocating a tax on the principal mineral elements.

A bill recently introduced imposes a tax on all beer and porter manufactured or brewed in the state during the ensuing three years. The amount of the tax is one-half of 1 per cent, upon each gallon of beer, ale or porter brewed within the state, and in this tax it is thought considerable revenue can be derived.

There is a determined stand against any increase of taxes on the farming interests, which will have an influence on legislation increasing the taxes on farms, and no further burden is likely to be imposed on this overburdened class.

Additional Taxation Proposed. A bill was introduced by Mr. Eiles, of Delaware, imposing these additional taxes, all of which shall be retained in the state treasury for the use of the commonwealth: One mill on the actual value of all capital stock and gross receipts subject to taxation under these acts; 2 per cent on the gross receipts of every character and description received from business done within the commonwealth during the next three years by insurance companies of other states and foreign governments, subject to the act of 1889; one mill on the par value, or actual value, of the shares of all banks, savings institutions and national banks; 1 per cent on all annual net earnings or incomes subject to the act of 1889; $1 per 100 of the clear value of every estate subject to the act of 1887. This act is to be in force until Jan. 1, 1900. Basing the estimate on the tax realized in 1895 this would aggregate an increase of the revenue of $2,381,371.

Among the bills introduced prior to the adjournment last week was one providing that every person entitled to a vote who failed to cast a ballot at any of the elections be subject to a fine of $5.

Mr. Keiter's bill to grant an appropriation for the purchase of a new capitol building.

STABBING AFFRAY.

Serious Result of a Quarrel Between Two Boys.

Two boys named James Gaughan and Joseph Seward, residing at the west end of Coal street, now hailed each other yesterday and one of them, upon being struck in the face with some snow, became angry and a fight in earnest resulted. During the exchange of blows Gaughan whipped out a penknife and stabbed Seward in the left breast. The blade penetrated in the region of the heart, but Dr. J. Myers Roberts, who was called in, said he did not anticipate fatal results. No arrest was made and it seems to be the desire of both families as yet to do as little as possible concerning the matter.
