THE CRETAN CONFLICT.

Crote, Sonds In His Resignation and Departs Without the Consent of the Sultan. Geneks Rager for a Conflict.

Athens, Pete 15 - It is evident that the Greenan government has talom a serious step in sending troops to Crots for the purpose of protecting the Chris-tians. A force consisting of a regiment of infantry, battery and artillery em-barked at Pirneus Saturday on board three steamers. There was a scene of great enthusiams before the departure of the troops. Crown Prince Constan-tine, the Duke of Sparta, reviewed the men, and addressing them said: "Officers and men, remember where you are going, and that you are Hollenes."

The troops then marched past in the presence of the queen, the crown princess and an immense crowd. The crown princes with his staff, was at the head of the men, and conducted them to the radway station at Athens, en route for the port of Pirocus, the opulare meanwhile cheering for Crete, the army and the royal family. Bimllar scenes of enthumnam were also witnessed during the embarkation of the soldiers. The arrival of the transthe soldiers. The arrival of the trainsports has already been reported from the inland of Milo. All of the Greeten newspapers hall the departure of the troops with expressions of delight. Arrangements for the Event Rapidly Mearing Completion.

FIFTY THOUSAND IN THE PARADE.

It Will Require Over Four Bours to Pass a diven Point-General Howard Will Command the Division Composed of Veterane-Elaborate Decorations.

Washington, Peb. 15,-The arrangements for the thanguration of President slot the thanguration of President-slot McKinley two weeks from next Thursday are rapidly nearing completion, and the indications are that in point of billiamcy and attractiveness the cure months, the decorations and the Testivities incident to inthan those of former versa in the decorations of the ballroom flaer results are expected than ever before. All spectacular effects will be avoided, and a more artistic and harmonious arrangement of flowers, lights and bunting will be secured. About $13,000 will be spent by the inaugural commit-tee in decorating the male ballcoom and the private rooms set apart for the use of the presidential and vice presidential purities.

The great height of the court of the bension building, where the ball will be held, will be overcome by bunting fes-tooned from the center of each of the three divisions of the court to the top of the ascond gallery. The bare walls everywhere and all of the smaller pil-lars will be covered with bunting as a background for the flowers and greens hackground for the flowers and greens which will be the prominent features of the decorations. The bunting and thousands of they electric fairy lamps will be used principally to bring out in greater relief the floral designs.

The president and vice president, with their families, will attend the ball, and will be in charge of a reception committee of which Major General Nelson A. Miles is chairman. The cost of tickets to the ball has been fixed at $5 for each person, and $1 extra if support in desired. In answer to many inquiries is desired. In answer to many inquiries received at headquarters it may be stated that no invitations to the ball are necessary to secure lickets, and none are issued except to foreign minlaters. Tickets are now on sale, and may be had by anyone at the price named. The promenade concert will consist of six selections and the dance

The ball will be held on Thursday night, and in addition a series of five inaugural grand concerts will be given in the ballroom on the following Pri-day and Saturday. The ball decora-tions will remain in place. The first concert will be given at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning, in honor of the United States army. At 2 o'clock on Pri-day afternoon a concert will be given in honor of the United States navy and at night the concert will be given in honor of the states of the Union, represented by the governors of the states and their staffs. The concert Saturday afternoon will be in honor of congress, represented by the president congress, represented by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house. The last concert, Saturday night, will be in honor of the people of the United States. Admission to each concert will be 50 cents. Notwithstanding the fact that the Pennsylvania National Guard finds it impossible to attend the inauguration, the probabilities are that the parade will be vary large. General Horace will be very large. General Horace Porter, of New York, with the mem-bers of his staff, is busy with the de-tails of arranging the divisions. General Forter will act as grand marshal, and will have as his chief of staff Mr. A. The first di-if you want to quit tobacco using easily vision will be organized into two brigades, the first comprising United States troops as well as the naval buttallons. The second belgade will be composed of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, 1,500 strong, and the Washington High School cadets, 400 strong. The second division will be composed of the National Guards of the various states, headed respectively by the governor and staff of each state. The third division of the military grand division will be composed of all veteran organizations, and will be commanded by General O. O. Howard. The civic division will be command-ed by Mr. B. H. Warner, of the city of Washington, as chief marshal, and will be made up of civic clubs of all descriptions. Prominent in this grand al League, of which Mr. D. D. Wood-mansee, of Cincinnati, its president, will act as marshal. It is estimated that there will be from 40,000 to 50,000 people in the pa-rade, and in order to move so vast an army in the space of time allowed they will be so formed that they can be murched past a given point at the rate of 12,000 an hour. Conspicuous among the civic organizations will be the delegation of about 200 students from the Indian school at Carlisle, Pa.

The decorations of the city promise to be unusually attractive. The review-ing stands, for the first time, will be decorated by the mangural committee eral design furnished by the Fioral Exchange, of Philadelphia. The president's reviewing stand will be excep-tionally fine, the design for it having been selected from a large number re-ceived in answer to an offer of a prize for the best.
