INVESTIGATORS.

New York, Fob. 16,-John E. Searles, peoretary and treasurer of the American Sugar Refining company, was the principal witness before the joint legislative committee on trusts yesterday. He testified that sugar consolidation was for the sake of economy in pro-duction. He said that ill refineries were closed in 1896, and that his company was contemplating the purchase of the United States Sugar Refinin company in Camden, N. J., although 60 per cent of the company's refineries were not now in uso. Witness said it was correct that the acquisition by the company of additional factories tended in the direction of crippling competition on the sugar market. In response to further questions Mr

Searces admitted that the company had recupitalized the stock from $7,990,
