GEORGE WASHINGTON. The American people to-day hower the birth of George Washington, the first of soldlers and likewise the most exemplary of citizens. His hold upon the hearts of the a secondre surprise to the people of this people is stronger than ever, and he will ever state. It is asserted here that he will remain the model to which we point our youth, the puttern of every statement, the prids of us all. We are to-day culclimiting the birth of Washington, and in doing so we: selebrate the real birthday of the nation.

Washington's success depended as much upon his character as on his genius. The American mation is the gift of no our man, but of a people to whom no one man was esscattal, and whose combined purpose and offert gave as liberality and nationality. The power of Washington's example is of incalculable benefit to the youth of the nution; he was an aristocrat by birth and association, and was surrounded by lucture month to seek below the republican an adard, but the museblob and unambitions traits of his character directed blurall through his Health is a matter of a little patch here and there. Look after the little ailments and the big ailments will take care of them selves. They will never come. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery keeps the body in perfect health. It promptly endicates the little ailments that bring serious illness. If the serious malady has already arrived it promptly cures it by removing the cause. It corrects all disorders of the digestion, invigorates the liver and makes the aspetite keen and hearty. It makes the assimilation of food perfect and supplies the blood with the life giving elements that build new and healthy tissue and firm muscles. It tones and builds up the nerves. It drives impurities and disease germs from every organ of the body. It cures all diseases the to overwork and worry and faulty nutrition. It is an unfailing remedy for weak lungs, spitting of blood, shoriness of breath acveree cough, bronchitis, asshma and kindered affections. It cures of per cent of all cases of consumption.
