WATCHMAN SHOT.

Desperate Encounter With Burglars in an Ashland Store.

Special to Eventus Hugaro. ABILAND, Feb. 23.—Burglars visited Mc-Connell Bros. timemith store early this mornting and in an exchange of shots that fellowed the discovery of their presence by the watchman, the latter, James Cleaver, a young man 19 years of age, was shot, but not dangerously injured. It is also believed that one of the burglars was shot.

Cleaver attended, the performance in the footsteps in the apartment outside the office. A burglar had alid down the elevator rops and was walking to the office when Cleave was awakened. When he Jamped up from his couch Cleaver observed a second man sliding down the elevator rope and fixed a shot at him. At the same time the first man thrust his arm through the office door and fired a shot at Cleaver. The ball entered the watchman's left thigh. The burglars retreated, the man on the rope climbing with all possible speed and reaching the hatchway above. The second burglar, the one who had fired the shot, also started up the rope. Cleaver fired two shots at him. He believes he hit the man, but is not positive, as the would in his thigh caused him to faint. He thinks the burglar was hit because the latter dropped his revolver immediately after the watchman's shot was fired. Meanwhile William Neir and William Stromeyer, neighbors who had heard the shots, burried to the front entrance of the shop. Cleaver had recovered his senses and crawled to and unlocked the door. No trace of the burglars could be found. It was learned that they had gained entrance to the warehouse at the rear of the main building and crawled through a second story window.
