BENNETT'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

We were shown a clipping from the New York Herald dated June 1st, 1840, in which the editor, James Gordon Bennett, adopted a nevel way of autouncing his declaration of love and his approaching marriage, through the columns of his paper. The elipping has been in the possession of Capt. George W. Johnson for a number of years. Here is the way the senior Bennett made the startling

I am going to be married in a few days. The weather is so beautiful; times are getting so good, the prospects of political and moral reform so auspicious, that I cannot resist the entirely cut off Wales from England divine instinct of honost nature any longer so I am going to be married to one of the most splendid women in intellect, in beart, in soul, in property, in person, in manner, that I have yet seen in the course of my interosing pilgrimage through human life.

"I can not stop in my cureor. I must fulfill that awful distiny which the Aladybty Father has written against my name, in the broad letters of life, against the wall of heaven.
