THE NEEDY POOR.

The organization effected last week, in responus to the appeal made in these columns, is evidence that substantial aid will be given to the needy poor of Shennidoah. The move ment is headed by some of the leading and most substantial residents of the town, and has the hearty endorsement of the clergy. Realizing the great necessity of immediat action, the committees have taken prompt steps to relieve the antituing and wants of these poor unfortunates, the victims of dyconstances.

Shemandosh is not the only town suffering trees the hard times. In almost every word and action Blood from the hard times. In almost every want and suffering is reported among the i poor chames. Hundreds of deservise, industrious working people, with large families depending upon them for daily solutance have barely sufficient to keep the walf from their doors. The condition of many are known; while others cooline the panza of hunger and the want of the meessaries o keeping their poverty hid from the public view, thus depriving themselves of the natistance that would be chearfully given by their more fortunate neighbors.

In order that the relief organization may effectively carry out their plane. It is nevermary that their appeal for provisions, club 1 ig. etc., much with a ready response.
