ONLY FOUR SURVIVED

Of Thirty-seven Who Abandoned a French Steamer.

A TERRIBLE STORY OF SUFFERING.

Boat Found Adrift in the Ocean with Four Corp es and Four Nearly Dead on Beard-The Others Hall Succumbed to Cold, Starvation or Madness.

New York, March 18.-The steamer Ville de St. Nazaire, belonging to the French line to the West Indies, sailed from New York on March 6 for Port au Prince Mayagues, etc., with 57 persons on board, and has not since been reported. She was a bark rigged screw steamer of 2,610 tons regis-

The schooner Hilds, that plies along the coast between Perth Amboy and Savannah, came into port last night bearing with her a story borrible even he the annuls of the Atlantic ecean. She carried in her cabin four passon-gers whom she had picked up in a boat on Monday ten miles off shore. It was Captain Riemes, skipper of the Hilds, who first sighted the bout. As the schooner draw nearer the outlines. the schooner draw nearer the outlines of human figures were made out, and then came a cry of mortal distress.

A boat was lowered, and the chief mate and four scamen jumped in and rowed out to the helpless craft. At the prow of the boat, and apparently in charge of the party, was an old man wearing the uniform of a ship's officer. The mate presently recognized in the face, hollow and sunken with the cold and want of many days, the featof the best known of the commanders line, and now long transferred to the Tour to California via Pennsylvania Balt-
