MATTERS POLITICAL.

The statement of Schuyler county which has more politicians to the square inch than any other section of the state, is showing evidence of renewed vigor, especially those in the Republican ranks. Just at present interest centers in the future course of President McKinley and the "plum" that are to drop from the executive table at the White House. The ruling of Postmaster Gentry, to the effect that Democratic postmasters will be allowed to serve out their four years unless the applicants for appointment wish less discomfure than do the civil service rules.

It is generally believed, and with a great deal of apparent assurance, that the President will not waste time in removing Democratic officials and substituting those of his own political faith, who would fight his battles and who are deserving of recognition. Those who are close to the "fourth level" say that several plans have been decided upon, and if they fail that the civil service rules will be suspended long enough to allow the well-fitted Democrats to walk out and the hungry Republicans to assume their positions.
On the other hand, there are those who believe that McKinley favors an honest reform of the civil service rules.

Our own representative, Congressman Charles S. Brown, paid his respects to the President this week and was well pleased with his reception. He was one of a party of Pennsylvania Democrats who were distinguished by their presence. The object was to see the President and to see that the number being of the party of the President, of Northumberland county, who labored to succumb Grant. Having as a result collector for the French district, Charles Brown is almost a daily visitor to the White House, and he introduced the delegation, each of them presenting some respect for official consideration.

Will Schuyler county receive a state appointment in a question that is being freely asked. There are no far too applicants for positions, with large salaries attached, and probably a half hundred dark horses waiting for the lightning to strike them.
From present indications it looks like Schuyler will be conceded the Naval Officer of the Port of Philadelphia, although the Senator from this district is said to be making a strong bid for James B. Kelly's place as United States Marshal. John F. Finney is an avowed candidate for the former office, and has the endorsement of many of the state and county leaders. There are those who profess to believe that the Major is a sure winner.

Speaking of federal appointments, brings to mind the rumor relative to the political Tribunals, composed of three Republican leaders, formed to control the destinies of the party in this county. It comprises a prominent follower of Blackstone claiming the county seat as his residence, and a representative from north of the mountains, with the third member residing below the mountains. The latter is said to be only too willing to seek more congenial companions, and as a result of this feeling, new combinations will be formed. It is stated, in the very near future, and it will not be the liking of at least one member of the present Tribunal.

Prospective candidates for county offices are becoming more active. The bene of contention is the Shrivley nomination, no less than half a dozen faithful Republicans being in the hands of their friends with longing eyes towards the most luscious plum. Shenandoah has two candidates, and at least one of them will make the contest interesting on the home stretch. He will have a say, and a big one, too, when the county convention assembles. The contest for this nomination looks fair to be an exceedingly interesting one.

It is said by those who appear to know that the voters will be called upon to elect two, and probably three, Judges next fall.
One of them will retire even if the retiring bill does not pass the Legislature. In that event the formation of new alliances among the Republican leaders will follow. The friends of Congressman Brown are urging him to allow the use of his name in connection with judicial honors, but so far he has fought shy and refuses to consider the proposition. In the event of a vacancy on the bench, Mr. Brown may change his mind and become a candidate. His friends would regret to see him retire from the halls of Congress, even to assume the judicial duties; yet they prefer to see his retirement a fitting tribute to his ability and a position of honorable repose. Mr. Brown's nomination would be equivalent to an election. It is this view of the case that actuates those who are urging the Congressman to become a candidate in the event of a vacancy on the bench.

In discussing Mr. Brown's probable retirement from Congress, the Republican leaders very naturally turn their attention to his successor. There are several who would like to step in his shoes, at least two from north of the mountains. It would be well, however, for the politicians to keep their eyes open. A prominent young Republican, with high academic abilities and a worthy record, is being quietly groomed for the nomination, and his friends are only awaiting the decision of the Congressman to make public announcement of their favorite's candidacy. The announcement is likely to cause consternation in a certain quarter where the Congressman has been buzzing for some time.

The rumor that William Wilkins, Sen., will be nominated for Judge by the Silver Democrats, providing the men who are at the head of the Democratic party in this county do not retire, is made from the whole cloth. In the first place, Mr. Wilkins is not settling nor would he accept the nomination for Judge; in the second place, Judge Ber-

SHAKERS AND DOCTORS TALK TOGETHER.

In his able work entitled "Longevity," published a few years ago, Dr. John Gardner, of England, predicts that a vegetable agent will yet be found that shall so retard those changes that bring about old age as to prevent human life from becoming too long.

Acting, perhaps, upon the impulse produced by his thought, many eminent physicians have called from time to time upon the shakers of Mt. Lebanon to inquire of them concerning the secrets of medicinal plants, in which these shakers, unhampered and undisturbed by any of the usual causes of ailing, have attained old age.

The shakers willingly told what they had learned, and in return received from their visitors much valuable information about diseases which they at once made practical use of. The most important point was that it is possible and certain remedy could be found for indigestion and dyspepsia, and the ailments growing out of it, a long step toward the right direction. Old age, said these physicians, begins in a failure of the digestion, and so most diseases of old age, and all periods of life. The result of these observations was the discovery by the shakers of the desired specific, made wholly from herbs, and now known as the Shaker Digestive Cordial. Its action is magical and worthy of its origin.

Where there is distress after eating, heartburn, sick headache, bad taste in the mouth, biliousness, weakness, indigestion, wind, flatulence, or any other ailment, the Shaker Digestive Cordial will cure it. It is a safe and reliable remedy, and is sold in bottles of 25 cents and 50 cents. It is sold by all druggists and grocers.

It is reported that two hundred of these shakers number over a thousand men, have entered Mount Lebanon from the Vale and Lorraine districts of Thessaly.

In Philadelphia, Monteville H. Smith penned queries to subsidizing $7,000 from the Philadelphia Trust, Safe Deposit and Insurance Company, and was sentenced to one year and six months in the county prison.

A Witty Repop.
A good story is told of a war of words between the paragonical Oscar Wilde and a witty bishop when he met at a social gathering. Church and state crossed swords, and it was not the church that hit the dust.

"I am yours, my lord," said Mr. Wilde, lowering low and smiling ironically.
"In my line, indeed,"

"I am yours," said the county bishop,
"to the amount."

"The matter of 'An Ideal Husband'" continued.

"I am yours to the center of the earth," said the pillar of the church quickly responded.

"I am yours to the antipodes," said Oscar Wilde, who, feeling decidedly nettled, judgment at his defeat by a mere clergyman and a man of piety he explained, as at last throat:

"I am yours to the lowest pit of dogeatrical."

"There, Mr. Wilde," responded the divine, "I think I'd better leave you!"

CORBETT SEENED DANGER.

An Intimation That His Friends Might Make Trouble.
Carson, Nev., March 19.—Just before the big fight took place an interesting conversation took place in Corbett's dressing room at the arena between the champion and referee Eller-Corbett opened the conversation by saying:

"George, I want to win this fight fairly."
"How do you think that you are going to win it, that you make such a remark as that?" asked Eller.

"Oh, I don't mean any reflection on you," rejoined Corbett, "but there are lots of friends here, some of whom are the friends, and they will not stand it to see me lose. If Martin Julian goes into that ring he will have the whole top of his head blown off."

"That means, I suppose," said Eller, "that if I don't fight right the whole top of my head will be blown off."
"Not at all," Corbett replied. "But my friends will not stand for me to lose."

"I will tell you one thing," said Eller, "and that is the way in which you are going to get out of this thing will be an even break. That is all you are entitled to, and it is all you are going to get. That is all I am going to say.
I am going to say that you are going to lose, and he will not stand for it."

A BENEFIT TO NEVADA.
The Governor of the State Discusses the Big Fire Fight.
Carson, Nev., March 19.—"I don't think it has hurt the state," said Governor Saffler, in discussing the Fitzsimmons-Corbett fight. "On the contrary, it will be a benefit to western Nevada by having brought people here who spent some money, and when they go home they will talk about our state.
Some of them say the mines at Virginia City, and will talk about them, and it may result in some eastern people coming here."

The Warlike Greeks.
Despite the Bluebirds of Crete, War Preparation Still Continues.
London, March 19.—Popular opinion in Greece, says The Times correspondent at Athens, imperatively demands an early declaration of war with Turkey. The Greek government would then be compelled to adopt a neutral attitude. It is argued that the Greek fleet could conquer the islands in the Aegean, including Samos, while the Greek army, assisted by insurgent bands, could rapidly overrun Macedonia. It is suggested that, as the conditions in Crete do not give a sufficient pretext for a declaration of war, a more valid excuse can be found in the refusal of Turkey to concede to Greece the territory assigned to her at the Berlin conference.

The official announcement of the blockade of Crete did not produce much of a display of feeling either in the boule or on the part of the public. The slighting of the Greek vessel by the British, on the other hand, is denounced with indignation as a crime committed by a civilized state.

Great quantities of provisions and stores have been sent to Crete. It is believed that they will easily run the blockade, and that the weather happens to be rough. There is no consultation in the military preparations.

Greek Warship Sunk.
Crete, March 19.—The Austrian gun-boat Sabotico had sunk upon the coast near Candia. The Greek vessel loaded with provisions and munitions of war intended for the Greek forces in Crete.
The Sabotico, while watching the Greek ship, was fired upon by a party of insurgents. To this the Austrian vessel replied by sinking the Greek craft and driving off the insurgents.

Gordy a Second Holmes.
The Coroner's Jury Holds Him Responsible for His Bride's Death.
Wilmington, March 19.—R. C. White, attorney general of Delaware, who has been in charge of the collection of evidence against James M. Gordy, accused of the murder of his bride at Georgetown, compares Gordy to H. H.
Holmes, and says that his (Gordy's) crimes have been even more atrocious than those fastened upon the murderer Holmes. Mr. White expects to prove that Gordy was instrumental in the death of his first wife and his father, as well as the murder of his bride a few days ago. An insatiable greed for money is given as the incentive to the crimes.

At Georgetown last night the coroner's jury in the Gordy case rendered the following verdict: "That Mrs. Mary Gordy, alias Mary Lewis, of New York, came to her death from wounds upon the head inflicted by some blind instrument in the hands of James M.
Gordy, with felonious intent."

Ex-President Cleveland at Princeton.
Princeton, N. J., March 19.—Ex-President Cleveland arrived at Princeton yesterday, his carriage was in waiting, and he was driven four miles over the muddy county roads to his new home on Bayard avenue, this city. It is said that Mr. Cleveland will become the sole partner of a New York firm bearing the title of Cleveland, Carlisle & Stearns. Mr.
Carlisle is the former secretary of the treasury, and Mr. Stearns was formerly a law partner of Mr. Cleveland. Another report is that Mr. Cleveland will not engage in any business pursuits for some time; that he will remain in Princeton but a short period, and that he contemplates cruising in southern waters with E. C. Benedict, on the latter's yacht, Onida.

The Largest Schweizer Adsett.
Bath, Mo., March 19.—The schooner Frank A. Palmer, the latest of its class on the high seas, was successfully launched here yesterday afternoon. The vessel measures 261 feet on the keel; from the end of the hullroom to the foremast 220 feet; from the foremast to the mainmast 115 feet.
It is 22 feet in width, 22 feet depth of hold, with deck 2 feet 10 inches deep. It will be of about 2500 gross tons and will have a carrying capacity of about 2500 tons of coal. It is also fitted with 1000 bushels of wheat known by the name of the schooner Annie. The vessel's lower masts are five masts of Oregon pine, 12 inches in diameter and 115 feet in length.

Death of Japan's Crown Prince.
San Francisco, March 19.—The steamer Peru, just arrived here from the Orient, brings news of the death of Prince Yoshi Ito Haru-no-Miya, heir apparent to the Japanese throne. The death is being openly discussed in diplomatic circles and by those high in the Japanese government, although the event has not been publicly announced. The reason for this is that Japan has just concluded a month of mourning over the death of the dowager empress, during which period all business was at a standstill. To permit a respite from the national grief that overwhelms the Japanese people the announcement of the crown prince's death will be kept a secret of state for the present.

Bennett Will Escape Prosecution.
Washington, March 19.—By rare good luck J. Aubrey Bennett, arrested in Cape Town a few days ago at the instance of this government, who sought to secure his extradition to the United States on a charge of unbecomdisposed to expend the money necessary to defray the expense of sending out an officer to Cape Town and returning with prisoner, so United States Vice Consul Knight at Cape Town has been instructed to have the man released.

FIVE MORE FLOOD VICTIMS.

A Mother and Four Children Drowned, Mississippi River Still Rising.
Memphis, March 19.—Last night the great flood claimed five more victims.
Near Marion, Ark., Miss Lisa and her four children were trying to make their way to Marion for shelter, and while attempting to cross a railroad trestle the strong current overwhelmed the party and all perished. The oldest child was a girl of 16 years of age and the youngest an infant of 8 months.

The river is still rising at Memphis, and the indications are that it will continue to do so for some time to come.
The river stands at 59.9 feet, a rise since yesterday morning of one-tenth foot. The conclusion as to a continuation in the rise is based upon the fact that the rise is continuing at Cairo and that heavy rains are reported in all districts which feed the big river, both along the upper portion and the middle valley. Throughout the entire northwestern territory, the drainage from which swells the volume of water in the Upper Mississippi, the rainfall continues. The same conditions prevail in the territory which feeds the Ohio and other tributaries, and the heaviest rains of all are descending over the already submerged Arkansas territory.

The work of rescue and relief goes forward with unabated zeal. Four or five rescue attempts have arrived here, bringing several hundred refugees, nearly all of whom are destitute, to be cared for by the charity of Memphis.
The relief committee has its hands full.
As long as the overflow continues funds will be needed to relieve the pressing wants of the sufferers.

General Roloff Safe in Cuba.
New York, March 19.—The world says: General Carlos Roloff, secretary of war of the provincial government of Cuba, is safe in Cuba. His reason for leaving his post and avoiding trial for neutrality law violation here and in Baltimore is now told for the first time. General Roloff arrived in New York from the Cuban battle ground in the summer of last year.
He was charged by President McKinley and Spanish detectives. He was twice put in prison, being at one released on the deposit of cash bail, and it was plain that the Spanish government did not intend he should again go to Cuba.
A rumor was on foot to hold him on a charge of treason, and hence he departed for Cuba.

Tours to California.
California has been most fittingly termed the "Italy of America." All the delicious fruits, the cloudless sky, and the rich verdure of the great European peninsula are duplicated in this sunny land of the Pacific.
Here mountains in the sunshine of her own beauty, and here she has established her own sanitarium, where eternal spring inspires everlasting youth. With the snow-capped peaks of the Sierras upon the one hand, the calm Pacific with its soft breezes upon the other, and a veritable paradise of healthy fruits and plants between, man can find no needs no lovelier land. To visit such a country is a privilege, a blessing.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, recognizing the need of a more comfortable and pleasant way of crossing the continent, inaugurated a series of annual tours to California, running a train from New York to Palo Alto, and stopping at the principal points of interest en route. The great popularity of these tours demonstrates the wisdom of the project.

For the season of 1897 three tours have been arranged to leave New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, January 27, February 24, and March 27.
The first tour will run direct to San Diego via St. Louis and the Santa Fe route, and return from San Francisco via Salt Lake City, Chicago and Chicago, allowing five weeks in California.
The second tour will run via the Mammoth Cave and New Orleans to San Diego, stopping at the "Crescent City" during the Mardi Gras Carnival. This tour will return via Salt Lake City, Denver, Omaha, and Chicago, against Louis Day, an American, who was arrested at Cayla last December and confined in the Cayla prison, have been dismissed. He has been set at liberty and expelled from the island.

Charles Scott, the American, and Esteban Venero, a naturalized American, have also been set at liberty.

Blepharitis Quickly Cured.
After having been confined to the house

Death of Japan's Crown Prince.
steamer Peru, just arrived here from
the Orient, brings news of the death of
business was at a standstill. To per-
the present.

E. E. Turner of Compton, Mo., writes us after suffering from piles for seventeen years, that he is completely cured by using three boxes of DeWitt's White Hazel Salve.
It cures eczema and severe skin diseases. C. H.

Bennett Will Escape Prosecution.
good luck J. Aubrey Bennett, arrested
United States on a charge of unbecoming conduct in Ulva, N. Y., will go free. The state department has been notified by the governor of New York that the county of Ulva is not disposed to expend the money neces-
out an officer to Cape Town and returning with prisoner, so United States
released.

For example, put a couple of drops of Thompe's Electric Oil on a bit of cotton and place it in the ear. The pain will stop in a few moments. Simple enough, isn't it?
