A SHORT STORY

In Wilkes-Barre Life-Interesting to the Public at Large.

Many a reader of this life Wilkes-Barre has seen the large watch signs that hang out at No. 20 North Main street. It is there to tell the people who see it that Robert W. Haight, watchmaker, etc., can be found at that location, and perhaps you may doubt the following, in which case you can always find Mr. Haight at his address ready and pleased to verify it. Watchmaking as it is called, is no doubt thought to be a comparatively easy business on the construction of a man, but this is not the case. The constant standing position maintained while at work brings with it many aches and pains. Such positions in time effect the action of the kidneys, and this is just what it did in the case of Mr. Haight, and he began to look for a remedy that would relieve. At last he was rewarded. One day he read of Dean's Kidney Pills. Nothing was claimed for them, but that they were a kidney cure. All the ill that flesh is heir to were not set down as being subject to their wondrous influence, and this inspired confidence in them. The symptoms described by a kidney sufferer were his symptoms. He began taking them. Three or four doses brought a change, and day by day he grew better, now he says: "I am entirely cured. My trouble, Home remedies I have used, but found but little relief of a temporary nature. My greatest trouble was haematuria and stiffness in the back, with sharp shooting pains in the region of the kidneys. I consider Dean's Kidney Pills a good and safe remedy, and I recommend them to others." No better proof of merit can be offered than the plain facts as stated by the man who has experienced them. Call on Mr. Haight if you doubt this.

Dean's Kidney Pills are for sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-McMurray Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Dean's and take no other.

THE LYON-DUNN CONTEST.

Many Names Omitted in the Fourth and Fifth Wards.

The contest court was in session again yesterday and a number of witnesses from the Fourth and Fifth wards were heard. There were over one hundred names omitted from the registration books in the Fifth ward, and their names will likely be thrown out. The following witnesses were heard: Edward McFall, who could not remember whether he made proof or not. His name was added to the ballot check list. He voted for Judge Dinn.

William Sweeney voted, but made no proof. His name was added to the ballot check list. He thought he voted the full Republican ticket.

Joseph Bonshak voted, but made no proof. He could not remember for whom he voted for the Republican or Democratic ticket.

W. J. Tolson, M. J. Molden, John Wood, Patrick Claffey, Nicholas Fisher, Edward Dowling, Michael Keenan and Patrick Hand all voted, but made no proof. They all voted for Judge Dinn.

John D. Billingsley voted, but made no proof. The respondent found him properly registered and he was excused.

Thomas McFall also came next. He was a scribble. He voted, but was not registered. He made no proof of his right to vote. Being asked how he voted, he said he could not remember. Asked whether he voted a straight ticket he said he didn't think that was a fair question. He, however, could not tell which ticket he voted.

Joseph Ryan voted but made no proof. The respondent found him properly registered, and he was let go.

Joseph Wyckas voted but made no proof. He could not remember for whom he voted, whether the Republican or Democratic ticket.

Thomas Dowling and Martin Monaghan both voted but made no proof. As neither was registered they were asked for whom they voted, and both answered Mr. Dinn.

Philip Terzafsky voted but made no proof. He was attacked on non-registration, but the respondent found him registered, but there was a slight error in the spelling of his name on the register list.

John Mitchell voted but made no proof. Did not remember for whom he voted. John Hamer was in the same fix, his memory being poor.

John Malone couldn't remember whether he voted in 1895 or not.

Anthony Ghio, Charles Wysocki, James McTale, Michael Ryan, Joseph Mandusky were all unregistered and all voted for Judge Dinn.

John Hoffman and H. Robinson were attacked on non-registration, but the respondent found both properly registered.

Patrick Brennan, of Brownsville, was next. He said he never voted in the Fifth ward of Shenandoah, but the man who subpoenaed the witnesses told him he could find on Patrick Brennan's list, and he would subpoena the Brunswick man, although the latter protested. He was not examined.

The President's Social Life.

The Ladies' Home Journal are creating such widespread interest, will write about "The Social Life of the President" in the April issue of that magazine. The ex-President will tell of the dinner, reception, etc., that was given by the Chief Executive, and detail the great social demands made upon him. He also gives a peep into the White House dining-room and silver closet, and notes the beauty of the service used for state dinners, which was bought at second hand. It is said that he also gives a list of the oft-quoted question, "How much of his salary can a President lay aside?"

TOOK HER ADVICE.

A clergyman in a southern state was called to perform a marriage ceremony in a poor white settlement. After the knot was tied the mother of the bride placed before the guests refreshments in the form of rye whiskey. The pastor, by virtue of his office as a Christian minister, remonstrated with her for thus starting in life the new couple. The mother, a large woman, about a foot taller than the minister, placing her arms akimbo and looking him straight in the eye, said, "Look a yere, mister preacher, yer kin yer to marry this yere couple. Yere married this yere couple. Now git."—New York Tribune.

A Man of Resource.

A good story is told of the late Count Gleichen when he was an ambassador in London. At a dinner party it was his hard luck to have to conduct to table a lady of a taciturn and unresponsive nature.

To all his polite nothings she answered never a word. Nothing flattered, he continued to ply her with small talk, till at last she slowly turned her head toward him and deliberately yawned.

The count was equal to the occasion. "Ah, madam," he said loudly, "I also have gold in my teeth."—Strand Magazine.

There never has been a shoe store that gave more value for your money than we do.

The old penny-wise-and-pound-foolish idea of giving as little as a man could for money has no place in our store.

With Us, it's As Much as We Can, Not as Little.

We want to draw your shoe trade here; but we don't expect to get it unless we can convince you that we are giving more good, solid, worth-your-money service than any other shoe store can.

We're proving that we DO do this to more people to-day than we ever did. We'd like YOU to be among the number.

You should be.

And then we make our customers a present of a beautiful Parlor Lamp when purchases amount to $25.00.
