There is always more or less suspicion attached to snything that is effered free but sometimes a man so overflows with generosity that he cannot rest until his discovery is known to the world, is order that his followness may profit by what he has discovered. It is upon this principal that a resident of Kalamason, Mich., desires to send free formankind a prescription which will cure them of any form of nervous dobility; releves there of all the doubt and uncertainty which such men any peculiarly liable to and restores the organs to natural size and vigor. As it costs nothing to try the experiment it would seem that any man, suffering with the nervous troubies that usually situack mon who never stopped to realize what might be the fimil result, sught to be deeply interested in a remeely which will restore them to health, strength and vigor, without which they continue to live an existence of untold misory. As the remedy in question was the result of imany years research in to what combination would be peculiarly effective in restoring to une the strength they need, it would seem that all men aufering with any form of nervous weakiness ought to write for would seem that all men sufering with any form of nervous weakiness ought to write for such a readed at some A request to H. C. Olds, Hox 1712, Kalamasee, Mich., stating that you are not a udding for the prescription out of title carically, but that you wish to make use of the medicine by giving it a trial, will be answered promptly and without evidence as to where information came from. The prescription is sent free and although some may wonder how Mr. Olds ramaffeed to give away his discovery, there is no doubt about the effer being genuine. Cut this out and send to Mr. Olds so that he may know who you same to write him.

Mr. Frank B. Martin, who is engaged in the jewelry business at 925 Penn-sylvania Avenue, Washington City, where he is well and favorably known, was a victim of that worst form of discase—contagious blood poison. Me realized that his life was about to be realized that his life was about to be blasted, for this terrible disease has baffled the skill of the physicians for ages, and they have never yet been able to effect a cure. His mental despair can better be imagined than of the delta, which is 1,000 fest with described. Memphis, March 31.-There are now it was not long before I was in a terrible condition. I immediately placed myself under treatment of two of the best physicians in Washington city. Their treatment, which I took faithfully for six months, cost me just three hundred dollars, and left me worse than when I began it. My condition can are and its chord, which is the Riversible division of the Yasco and Mississippi valley instituced.
