When Greek meets Turk, six powers are not strong enough to back the victims of centuries of barbarous oppression.

MARSHYON CITY'S Board of Health has that tired feeling. They made several attempts to hold a meeting, but failed.

WELCH'S failure to realize all that was expected of him shows that converting a big island like Cuba into a dower is a large undertaking.

The rewards of honesty and persevering principle are sometimes slow, but none the less certain. Holding fast to honorable principles is the best upon which success is built. This is true of newspapers as well as individuals, but especially there are certain publications that do not realize this.

The German Emperor has stirred up France into a proposition to build forty-five new battleships. Mr. Gladstone remarked recently that the Kaiser's exhibitions of judgment and experience always create consideration, and it might be added, chiefly among his own subjects.

If the Board of Health could be persuaded to expend some amount of conscientiousness in the direction of compelling property owners to keep their premises in proper sanitary condition, that they display the Flemish flag, they would receive the plaudits of a laudatory community. But, perhaps this is asking too much.

All United States bank notes are printed in sheets of four of one denomination on each sheet, and are numbered and lettered twice. All notes of which the number when divided by four shows a remainder of one, have the letter A upon them; a remainder of two, the letter B; of three, the letter C, and those which have no remainder the letter D.

This latest announcement concerning the ensuing campaign in this state is that the Quay element will slate Mr. Bacon, of Westmoreland, for State Treasurer, and Major Levi G. McKinley, of Chester, for Auditor General, and make a square fight for the delegates, provided the anti-Quayites want a fight. Major McKinley is well known as a first class man and as a soldier with a splendid record.

It is simplest sense, the term "reciprocity" as used in politics, signifies that the United States will grant commercial favors to nations which grant similar favors to us in return. When another nation is willing to accept our products from a protective or prohibitive duty, we will, in turn, exempt from taxation any of its goods or manufactures as we may need in this country for our own use.

RECIPIENCY is represented to be "quid" This is usually the case when tariff changes are under way. Not till the Dingley bill is in final shape can the great industries adjust themselves to the coming conditions. This is why President McKinley acted wisely in bringing Congress together early, and why the Republicans in the House are sensible in pushing the bill vigorously. The uncertainty will soon end, and the business revival will begin.

We are in receipt of a copy of N. W. Ayer & Son's American newspaper annual for 1907.
It contains a carefully prepared list of newspapers and periodicals published in the United States and Canada, with valuable information regarding their circulation, issue, date of establishment, political or other distinctive features, names of editors and publishers, and street addresses in cities of fifty thousand inhabitants and upward, together with the population of the counties and places in which the papers are published.
Also a description of every place in the United States and Canada in which a newspaper is published, including railroad, telegraph, express and banking facilities. No effort of expense has been spared to make the book the standard work of reference on all matters pertaining to newspapers, and the publishers have succeeded admirably.

COMMENTARY upon the "warfare of words" indulged in by the newspaper controlled by Senator Coyle and his president, over by Major Finney, the Herald's Sentinel says:
"The discussion over official fitness in Schuykill has reached the stage where physical beauty is to be the gauge of efficiency. The parties to this controversy are Senator Coyle, of Mahanoy City, and Major Finney, of Pottsville. Both own newspapers and their claims to distinction on the Adams basis are now being aired. The "Gallant Major" takes water from one man where a question of legal perfection is involved and the Senator long ago laid claim to be a subject for the modern Michael Angelo. In fine these Schuykill county politicians can't be so easily confounded with the narrative and facts, and to the people of the several localities the fact must long have been the source of what might appear self satisfaction. Not so, however.
The modesty of the men themselves precludes such an inference, and the line of controversy dispels all traces of enmity. Not even the "before and after" receipts will compete with the absorbingly interesting claims of the favored ones, and the entire district from the Hill's Kitchen in Guizna Hill should rise in congratulatory acclaim."

ROBBED A MESSENGER BOY.

Recently beaten by Two Men, Who Escaped with $500.
Chicago, April 2.—A daring robbery was committed in the business district yesterday. A messenger employed by the wholesale woolen firm of Lutz, Nathan & Fisher was robbed of $500 after being lured into a building by two men, one of whom had been sent by the boy to protect him and the firm's money. He is Edward Wilson, employed by the firm as a teamster.
Detectives are searching for the robbers.
The messenger is in a hospital at the point of death. He is Chris Baker, 17 years old, who was the trusted messenger of the firm. Both Schultz and Wilson have been in the employ of Lutz, Nathan & Fisher for several years, and were always sent to the banks (together, sometimes with thousands of dollars at a time.
Schultz and Wilson were sent to the Metropolitan National bank to collect $250. Taking a light delivery wagon the two drove to the bank, where young Schultz presented the money, which he put in a small basket. The two then started back. In front of the Bank Island depot, at Pacific avenue and Van Dusen street, a stranger called to Wilson, and after a few words of greeting got into the covered wagon, taking a position directly behind Schultz, who was on the seat with Wilson. Suddenly he was struck a blow on the head. Before he could cry out he was struck a second and a third time, and he fell back unconscious into the wagon. The two men then fled in haste and foot, placed a ring in his mouth, and then a gunnysack over his head. They then drove rapidly to Twelfth street, where they stopped, and taking the wagon containing the money disappeared. It was over an hour afterward that some inquisitive person discovered the unconscious boy in the wagon.

Don't allow the boys to be lured by the guiltless victim of a cough. It is easier to prevent consumption than to cure it.
The Cough Cure taken early will ward off any further trouble. C. H. Hagenbuch.

MILWAUKEE Breweries May Strike.
Milwaukee, April 2.—The 15,000 union brewery employees in Milwaukee have submitted a demand for eight hours work without reduced pay. The agreement which expired Thursday, required ten hours work. The employees, while not formally refusing the demand, tricked it by a counter proposition, the terms of which have not been made public. It is said the union men refused to consider this proposition.
Should no agreement be reached by Monday a strike will probably be ordered.

A DEFENSE OF M. BURTON.
London, April 2.—The Times publishes a dispatch from its Paris correspondent, who says: "The late, considerable M. Burton with the Panama scandal is a series of monstrous calumnious slanders broadcast by political jacksals who profane tombs. M. Burton died poor. On the eve of the duel in 1889 he wrote a letter to his wife in which he advised her, in the event of his being killed, to see Jules Ferry, who he hoped would get her a certain pension, and out of which she might be able to get a decent livelihood."

Many cases of "Grippe" have lately been cured by the "Little East" Cure. This preparation is especially adapted to the care of this disease. It acts quickly and prevents serious complications and when it fails, the doctor is not called.

Lightning Strikes a Chain Gang.
Weymouth, Mass., April 2.—A rash of lightning hit the chain gang, the eleventh man in a row of convicts put on a chain with his companions. The convicts were working in a field when a severe storm came up. The guard quickly seized the gang upon a long chain and hustled them towards a tree.
As he ran at one end of the chain, and the other end was made fast about the tree. A bright flash came, and in an instant the tree was in splinters. The current leaped from the tree along the chain. The flash blinded the gang, and when they recovered their eyes, they found two others were badly injured.

What Was the Trouble?
Health Broken Down, Heart Troubles, Torpid Liver, Consumption, Rheumatism Whatever It Was, Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured by Its Power as The One True Blood Purifier.

Discouraged people are numerous now — some because of lost business, others because of lost health. All may find fresh inspiration and valuable suggestions in the following:

C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.
"Gentlemen: For 12 years I have been a commercial traveler, and owing to the hardships of my life, long railroad jumps, all kinds of exposure, and sudden changes of climate, etc., my health gave way.
Physicians did not help me and I was given up to die. My illness developed a Complication of Diseases.

I was without ambition or appetite. All strength had left me. One doctor said I had heart disease, another torpid liver, a third said it was lung trouble and another consumption, and so on. I have no doubt, symptoms of all these complaints and even that of rheumatism, judging from the stiffness and pains in my joints and legs at times, were manifest. I was unable to attend to business, was confined to my room and frequently lay in a comatose state for hours. I was so feeble, and so little encouragement was offered, that I began to wonder Where I Would be Buried.

Finally, as a last effort to help myself, I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The effects of a few doses of the medicine seemed almost magical. The depressed feeling left me, and when one bottle had been taken, I had regained an appetite, and strength was coming back. After finishing the third bottle I was able to go about my commercial duties. I continued to improve, and to satisfy my mind that I had fully regained health, I submitted myself to a doctor for examination.
He pronounced me "sound as a dollar." Three months later, I passed a rigid examination for insurance. I have since been in the best of health, notwithstanding my travels, and I give "All the Credit to Hood's Sarsaparilla, as each season since I have taken several bottles. It keeps my blood in good circulation, gives me a keen appetite and leaves no room for that tired feeling which naturally finds prey among those of my calling in the summer months after an early spring hustle. I consider Hood's Sarsaparilla the means of saving my life, and I gladly speak in its favor." A. J. LUTHER, home address,
