

ONE DISEASE AND ONE REMEDY.

"The art of painting," said Mills, "consists in selecting the right colors and putting them in the right places." "To me to win a battle," said Napoleon, "is to possess your opponent at the critical moment against the weakest spot in his army's line." "The way to cure many ailments," said Dr. A. H. H. Allen, "is to purify the greatest organ in which they arise, generally the torpid and inflamed digestive system."

Thus wisdom and experience simplify and condense. Thus the Shakers of Mount Lebanon reasoned when they sought, and finally found, a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. Where one person has something else, they argued, a thousand have this. To cure this ailment will almost rid the world of sickness. Why should we vex ourselves with costly definitions? A good digestion is life and health; a bad one disease and death. Hence, from the healing and stimulating mountain herbs, they extracted the principles which make the Shaker Digestive Cordial the most and most effective of medicines for one disease, and one only—indigestion and dyspepsia.

You suffer from any of these miserable feelings—depression of spirits, heaviness and pain in the stomach after meals, bad taste in the mouth, wind in the bowels, irritable disposition, nervous weakness and alarm, worry and weariness, costiveness or irregularity of the bowels, nausea, palpitation, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite and sleep, dry skin, etc.—?

Don't indulge in fifty foolish fancies. You have indigestion and dyspepsia and nothing else. Set the disordered stomach right with the one medicine which will surely do it, Shaker Digestive Cordial, and these symptoms will vanish with their cause. A good effect will follow the first dose. Even chronic cases soon yield.

Test the cordial, at practically no cost, by taking a ten-cent trial bottle. For sale by nearly all druggists.

GREEK AND THE POWERS

Italians Believe That King George Is Playing a Part.

THE BLOCKADE OF THE PIRAEUS.

It is Now Said the Powers are Unanimous in Thus Deciding—Greek Soldiers at Arta are Losing Their Enthusiasm.

London, April 6.—The Times prints the following dispatch from its Rome correspondent:

"It is understood here in official circles that the ambassadors at Constantinople have drawn up an extremely broad scheme of autonomy for Crete, giving the assembly power to choose a governor, who must afterward be approved by the sultan. Italian sympathy for the Greeks is weakening, in consequence of the growing conviction that Greece is playing a comedy, and never really intended to make war. The position now is precisely what it was in 1878 and 1886. The powers prevented a collision then. If the same result is not attained now it will be due to the hesitancy of the powers."

"A letter has been received here from an important official of the Greek government, who declares that all the movements in Greece are provoked from Athens, and that the present menace of the Greek government are merely part of the comedy."

"The powers are unanimous as to the blockade of Piraeus."

The Daily Mail's correspondent at Arta says: "The Greek soldiers are losing their first glow of enthusiasm. The weather up to Friday last was bright, but during the past two days it has rained heavily. Many of the tents are pitched in unsuitable positions, and have been flooded. The troops are thus experiencing some of the hardships of real campaigning, and the result is a visible cooling of their ardor."

"The chief danger lies in the presence of the irregulars. The Greek National Society, nearly a thousand members of which are in the vicinity of Arta, is acting quite independently of the government. Many are genuine patriots, but others are more outlaws and brigands. If the government remains inactive much longer they will commence raiding, which the Turks will be justified in regarding as the beginning of a revolution, since the latter will in all circumstances be displeased when the fraternization of the officers with their leaders."

The Daily News correspondent at Larissa telegraphs: "Both the army and the auxiliary corps of Macedonian irregulars are all anxiously looking for the signal for action from Athens. What I saw of the later corps yesterday convinced me that an outbreak is likely to occur very soon. The Greek army has a most valuable auxiliary in this corps of irregulars, which is well equipped, mountain warriors."

The Daily Telegraph's Vienna correspondent says that France and Russia are at present diligently engaged in trying to delay a blockade of Greece. The Daily Express reports to King George that Colonel Vasos should retire from Crete, whereupon the original plan for the plebiscite might be carried out. The powers have not yet reached an entente as to this point, but Russia and France proceed in the matter on their own responsibility, on the presumption that if King George agrees the other powers will not raise any difficulties. The situation is officially described as "more assuring."

The Daily Telegraph prints the following dispatch from its war correspondent at Larissa: "It is said that a plan of campaign has been decided upon by the Crown Prince Constantine and the other Greek leaders, but even now there is no sure indication as to the direction in which the first blow will be delivered. There has not been much progress in the repair of the frontier roads and bridges, certainly not enough to warrant the belief that an immediate advance is contemplated. The main burden of the army under the circumstances would be almost out of the question."

The Union Pacific Foreclosure.

Omaha, April 6.—General John C. Cowan, special counsel for the United States government in the foreclosure suits of the government railroad, said the Union Pacific railway, returned yesterday from Washington. He had been in conference with the attorney general and other government officials regarding the foreclosure. General Cowan said that the government would probably be sued in May. Then it should not be more than a matter of 60 or 90 days after that until the foreclosure is complete.

Publisher Howell's Retirement. Atlanta, April 6.—Captain Ewan P. Howell, for years the head of the Atlanta Constitution, retired from the management of the paper at the meeting of its directors yesterday, and is succeeded as editor-in-chief by his son, Clark Howell. W. A. Hempfling was elected president of the company. There will be no change in the policy of the paper.

GAME OF TASHOLI.

Standard Form of Amusement Among the Zuni Indians. A really new game—one that can be played with genuine interest like the old games—is a thing equally rare and desirable. Such a game is Tasholi—that is, it is new to all young folks living in civilized countries, though it has been played by the Indian people from time immemorial. Like most of the best games, it was never invented by any one person, but has gradually developed, doubtless from the rudest beginnings, into its present form. Like most of the best games also, it requires only the simplest and most easily procured material.

Tasholi is played both by children and adults among the Indians of New Mexico. The game was first brought to my notice when I visited the Organ mountains on a sketching expedition several years ago, and as it was something altogether new to me I investigated the matter and found out how it was done. The older Indians, I was told, frequently become so absorbed in it that they can play for 24 hours and more without ceasing. The equipment for playing Tasholi consists of three sticks, 40 inches long and some sort of a counter for each person playing. The sticks should be of exactly the same size, each 5/8 inches long, 2 inches wide and three-quarters of an inch thick. They must be so stained or colored as to be easily distinguished from one another. The 40 pebbles are arranged in a circle of about 2 1/2 feet in diameter, placed at uniform distances, except that the starting point is marked by a wider space. The counters may be flowers, or any convenient objects that can be easily distinguished.

The players kneel or crouch around the outside of the circle. The three sticks are grasped between thumb and fingers in such a manner as to be perpendicular. They are then thrown down so as to drop simultaneously on their lower ends, near the center of the circle as possible. They will rebound a little and probably fall in different directions. If two turn up dark and one light, it counts 2; two light and one dark, 3; three dark, 3; three light, 4; either a 2 or a 3 or 4 or 5 or 6 or 7 or 8 or 9 or 10 or 11 or 12 or 13 or 14 or 15 or 16 or FREE CURE FOR MEN.

Michigan Man Offers to Send His Discovery Free. aims to Be a Benefactor to Weakened Mankind.

There is always more or less suspicion attached to anything that is offered free but sometimes a man so overflows with generosity that he cannot rest until his discovery is known to the world, or until he has found out how many people it will cure. It is upon this principle that a resident of Kalamazoo, Mich., desires to send free to mankind a prescription which will cure those of any form of nervous debility; relieve them of all the doubts and uncertainties which such cases so peculiarly invite to and reform the organs to natural size and vigor. As it costs nothing to try the experiment it would seem that any man, suffering with the nervous troubles that usually attend such cases, who never stopped to realize what might be the final result, ought to be deeply interested in a remedy which will restore them to health, strength and vigor, without which they continue to live an existence of ungodly misery. As the remedy in question was the result of many years' research, as to what combination would be the best for restoring to men the strength they need, it would seem that all men suffering with any form of nervous functional disorders, such as weakness, exhaustion, loss of vitality, etc., ought to be deeply interested in a remedy which will restore them to health, strength and vigor, without which they continue to live an existence of ungodly misery. Memphis Is Overburdened with the Care of the Homeless.

THE FLOOD STILL THREATENING.

Planters Are Now Anxious as to the Duration of the Deluge—A Crop of Cotton May Yet Be Raised in the Deluged District.

Memphis, April 6.—The prediction made in these dispatches last Friday that deluge to the Mississippi delta would follow the breaking of the levees on the east side of the river north of Helena, Ark., has been terribly realized. The break at Flower Lake, which occurred Sunday morning, has grown from a dozen feet in length to a thousand. This was the condition of the levee last night, when an Associated Press representative left the levee. Efforts are being made to tie up the delta, but the difficulty of getting material from the railroad, five miles away, the success of the effort is doubtful. This levee break is at the head of the delta, and will cause an overflow of the northern tier of counties in Mississippi with the exception of parts of Tunica
