THE JUSTICES' CASES.

Judge Bechtel Reserves Decision and Speaks of Briefs. POTTSVILLE, April 19.—A. W. Schulz, Esq., this morning presented application to Judge Bechtel, asking that he decree that notices be served on Justice Lawler and Cardin, of Shenandoah, and Justice Coyle and Jones, of Mahanoy City, enjoining them from discharging the functions of Justices of the Peace.

EASTER ARRESTS.

Many Jollifications Follow the Close of the Lenten Season. The close of the Lenten season brought a harvest of jail prisoners to the Peace. Many people of the foreign classes, who had religiously observed Lent seemed to feel relief from a great restraint and started in to celebrate Easter by indulgence in intoxicants.

Justice Cardin had five cases yesterday. They were all based on charges of simple assault and battery, except that in which Joe Sabolski, who was held for carrying a revolver, in addition to a charge of assault and battery made by Matt. Taris.

These were all cases in Justice Lawler's court yesterday and more are on the calendar. John Schlotnick was arrested for breaking the hat of Michael Schultz. He settled by paying damages and costs.

Joseph Miller got drunk and broke open the door of Joe Paulkoma's home, on North White street. When Constable Matt. Gilman went to make the arrest Peter Tamalensis interfered and was arrested with Miller, and both were jailed for trial at court.

The case were based on simple charges of assault and battery, including one against Anthony Sabolski, who was arrested on complaint of his wife. He was put under $300 bail.

BOND APPROVED.

The Court Dismisses the Proceedings Instituted by T. J. Mullane. POTTSVILLE, Apr. 19.—Judge Bechtel this morning dismissed the proceedings of T. J. Mullane and approved the bond of Borough Treasurer T. J. Davies, who was elected by the Borough Council of Shenandoah, Pa. In doing so Judge Bechtel stated that he did not decide the merits of Mr. Mullane's claims, but that the proceedings before him were irregular; that if the latter wants a test of his claims to the office under the alleged election by the people last February he must resort to quo warranto proceedings.

Assaulted in a Car.

MAHANOCY CITY, April 19.—George Engle, a Pole residing on West Railroad street, was before Justice Coyle this morning, charged with taking undue liberties with a thirteen-year-old girl, the daughter of respectable people of this town, on a Lakeside Railway car, near the Lehigh Valley depot, last night. Engle insulted the girl while the car was in darkness on account of the trolley which had just left the trolley. He attempted to escape, but Conductor James caught him. Engle was taken back to the car and held prisoner until the terminus was reached, when he was turned over to an officer. This morning he was taken to jail in default of $500 bail. The railway company is the prosecutor and will press the case to the full extent of the law.

Easter At Wm. Penn.

Easter Sunday was very appropriately observed in the Methodist Episcopal church at Wm. Penn last evening. The singing was of a superior order and the exercises as a whole very appropriate. The following program was rendered: Opening chorus, "Ring, Ye Bells," invocation; scriptures lesson from Mark 10:1-8, by the superintendent of the Sunday School, W. H. Lewis, chorus, "Hallelujah, Hallelujah," responsive reading, Superintendent and Sunday School; recitation "In the Early Morning," Miss Kate Chalmers, chorus, "What Easter Brings," address by the pastor, Rev. John Dixon, chorus, "Jesus is Victor," recitation, "Whiter Than Snow," Miss Margaret Mullard; chorus, "About the Happy Song," recitation, "Some-time," May I. Seltzer; chorus, "We Sing With Grateful Hearts," chorus and solo, "Morn of Joy," closing chorus, "Beautiful Easteride."

Early Morning Fire.

About 1:30 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in one of the sleeping apartments occupied by a little child in the residence of Jacob Polinsky, on West Centre street. Officers Tush and Kester aroused the occupants and extinguished the flames which had already gotten considerable headway. The fire was caused by the servant girl leaving a lighted candle on the table. It burned to the edge and set fire to the table cloth.

Greeks and Turks Battle Thirty Hours Without Rest.

BUT SMALL LOSS OF LIFE.

Not Over Two Hundred Dead as the Result of the Conflict.

TURKS MAKE BEST APPEARANCE.

Their Officers Seem More Cool and Collected Than Do the Greek Commanders—Both Turkey and Greece Charge Each Other With Responsibility for the Beginning of Hostilities—All Greeks Ordered to Leave Turkey.

Athens, April 19.—The Turkish batteries at Preveza, on the north shore of the entrance of the Gulf of Arta, where, according to the treaty of Berlin, the Turks had no right to erect fortifications, fired on and sank a Greek steamer, the Macedonia, yesterday while she was attempting to leave the Gulf of Ambracia. The crew of the steamer were saved by boats from the shore, but the captain of the Macedonia was severely wounded.

The Greek commander at Actium, Theodoros, telegraphed and ordered to land the opposite Preveza, and the minister of war ordered him to bombard Preveza immediately.

It appears that the bombardment of Preveza only began at 11:30 a. m., whereas the Turkish forts there opened a hot fire upon Actium at 8:30 a. m. Actium was formerly a telegraph station, but the building was converted into a fort and was garrisoned by 250 men. The Turkish fire completely destroyed it, several of the garrison being killed and wounded.

The Turkish minister here, Assin Bey, has asked for his passports. He has been handed him, and he has left Athens for Constantinople. The Greek minister at Constantinople, Prince Maurocordato, has been recalled. The German minister at Athens, Baron Von Plessen, has undertaken to protect Turkish interests in Greece during the severance of diplomatic relations between the two countries.

Assin Bey has handed to M. Skouzas, the Greek minister of foreign affairs, the following note: "In consequence of the aggressive attitude of Greece diplomatic relations between the king of the Hellenes and his imperial majesty, the sultan of Turkey, and their respective governments are hereby broken off. The Greek minister at Constantinople and the Turkish minister at Athens are ordered to quit Turkish territory. For the same reason the Turkish consuls in Greece have been recalled to Constantinople. Within a fortnight from the date of this announcement all Greek subjects must leave Turkish territory. Ottoman subjects are ordered to leave Turkey immediately. Throughout yesterday there were scenes of extraordinary excitement here. The streets were crowded with people eagerly discussing the outbreak of war and the probable outcome. The general feeling was one of satisfaction at the relief from the irritating tension of the past few weeks, which had gradually become almost unbearable, and which is ended at last by overt acts. It is claimed here, upon the part of Turkey:

The Greeks hold that it was an attempt upon the part of the Turkish forces to occupy a strategic position near Mount Anaktipolis, not far from Naxos. In the neutral zone which lay between the two countries, the Greek minister at Constantinople and the Turkish minister at Athens are ordered to quit Turkish territory. For the same reason the Turkish consuls in Greece have been recalled to Constantinople. Within a fortnight from the date of this announcement all Greek subjects must leave Turkish territory. Ottoman subjects are ordered to leave Turkey immediately.

The so-called outrage of Preveza yesterday, when the Turkish batteries there sank the Greek steamer Macedonia further justified Greece, in the minds of the Athenians, in waging war to the death against Turkey. The Greek government, therefore, is warmly commended for recalling the Greek minister at Constantinople, and not waiting, according to the Greek version, until Prince Maurocordato was handed his passports.

It is stated in some quarters that Assin Bey, the Turkish minister to Greece, did not wait for his passports to be handed to him, but so soon as he received the sum of 5,000 francs telegraphed him from Constantinople for traveling expenses, etc. He hastily quitted this city.

Little news of a reliable nature has been received here or allowed to leak out regarding what has really transpired on the frontier. It is known, however, that the whole frontier of Thessaly has been blazing with murderous firing since early yesterday morning, and that the Greeks have captured a fortified position at Menex, in Macedonia.

According to the general understanding here, the Turkish plan of campaign is a concentration of the Turks near the important Greek frontier town of Tyrnavos, with a view of forcing the mountain passes leading toward Larissa. One report, which is generally credited, has it that Edhem Pasha, at the head of 15,000 men, has already begun this movement, and rumors in this respect are flying. The substance of them being that the battle which is expected to be fought at or near Tyrnavos has already commenced.

The Greek plan of campaign, so far as it is understood by the Athenians, is founded on the defense of Larissa in the first instance, an attack upon that place having been anticipated and prepared for by occupying and taking every possible advantage of all strategic points. The country there is admirably suited for defense, and while this defense is undertaken the Greek

THE WEEK IN CONGRESS. Senate Will Finish the Appropriation Bills This Week. Washington, April 19.—The senate will conclude its consideration of the appropriation bills this week. The Indian bill will pass today, and the sundry civil and agricultural will follow in the order named. There is no expectation that there will be any protracted debate upon any of the bills. There will be an effort to amend the sundry civil bill by the addition of a provision for the regulation of the forest reservations. This may lead to some discussion, but the friends of the amendment do not anticipate much trouble in having the amendment agreed to.

Senator Davis has announced his purpose to press the arbitration treaty to final action at an early date as possible. He expects to have little difficulty in securing an agreement for a date, but some of the objecting senators intimate that there still may be opposition. The matter of pairs has been definitely arranged on the basis of last vote for the treaty to one against it. It is not believed that a great deal of time will be given to the treaty during the week, whatever the degree of Mr. Davis' success in securing an agreement for a date for a vote.

The bankruptcy bill will continue to hold its place on the calendar as the unfinished business, but it probably will not be seriously pressed. Senator Morgan has announced his intention to insist daily upon the consideration of his Cuban resolution during the morning hour, but he will not block other business with it.

The house this week will continue the program of three day adjournments unless the Indian appropriation bill is returned from the senate when the house meets on Wednesday. The complications arising out of the situation in eastern Europe possibly may figure in the proceedings of both houses the latter part of the week.

Robbed by Masked Burglars.

WILKESBORO, Pa., April 19.—At 2 o'clock in the morning four masked burglars entered the home of Henry Anderson, at Hughesston, and going to Mr. Anderson's room demanded his money. Two of the burglars stood over Anderson with pointed revolvers while the other two started to search the house. They succeeded in getting $11 in money and two silver watches. They then fled Anderson to the bed with a rope and fled.

Shooting Results in Lockjaw.

HOLLERSBURG, Pa., April 19.—Charles Kratzer, the 15-year-old son of Peter Kratzer, died Saturday from the result of an operation performed for the purpose of saving his life, and Harry Ketter is in jail to answer to the charge of murder. A few weeks ago Kratzer struck Ketter with a snubnail. The latter, it is alleged, drew a revolver and shot the boy in the leg. Lockjaw resulted, making the operation necessary.

EASTER AT THE CHURCHES.

Many Places of Worship Beautifully Decorated With Flowers.

CHOIRS RENDER EASTER MUSIC!

Elaborate Programs Offered Out With Highly Impressive Effect—Beautiful Services in All Saints' and Annunciation Churches.

The observance of Easter Sunday in many of the churches of town yesterday surpassed previous efforts in that direction, in point of decorations and choral arrangements especially.

The services at All Saints' Protestant Episcopal church were characterized by an impressive character that none of Rev. Van Fossen's predecessors ever attempted, and attracted congregations to both morning and evening services that taxed the capacity of the spacious lecture room. The altar and chancel were beautified with blooming plants and the vested choir which Mr. F. L. Stempson has organized and trained, made its first appearance on the joyous occasion and effected great credit upon that gentleman's ability as a leader. The service was a full choral one at both services and the solo "Eye Hath Not Seen" by Miss Edith Morgan at the morning service, and the duet, "I waited for the Lord" by Messrs. Stempson and Nichols in the evening were fine efforts.

The services at the Annunciation Roman Catholic church were of a most solemn character. The organ was beautifully decorated with flowers and plants and the choral arrangements exceeded anything ever attempted in the history of the congregation.

At the morning service, Gauz's second mass in "D" was given with orchestral accompaniment. The organ was especially impressive after the offertory, "Laudate Zion" (Lambillotte) by Rev. Henry Naylon, of the service on the restriction and the service closed with an orchestral selection.

In the evening the attendance at the church was still greater than at the morning service. Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, the parish priest, officiated at the solemn vespers and benediction, assisted by Rev. Henry Naylon, of town, and Rev. Charles Prendergast, of Mahanoy City. The vespers were accompanied by the Riley and Cleary orchestras.

"Magnificat," "Lauda Zion," "Regina Coeli," "Tantum Ergo" and "Laudate Dominum" were most beautifully rendered by the choir of twenty-five voices under the leadership of Prof. Edward Conklin and the solo "O, Sanctus" by Miss Kate Mailey with violin obligato by the orchestra.

With the closing of the services and Mailey was the organist at the services and acquitted herself admirably. The orchestra is also deserving of special mention.

The Easter services in the Trinity Reformed church were also of a very impressive character. In the evening the attendance was so large that many people were unable to gain admission. The church was elaborately decorated with Easter lilies and potted plants. Holy communion was celebrated at each service and the number of communicants was the largest in the history of the congregation.

The confirmation of the preceding Sunday was confirmed on the preceding Sunday. The communicants of the church has ever had. Rev. Robert O'Boyle, the pastor, preached an impressive sermon at each service.

Easter was observed in the Calvary Baptist church last evening by a special service arranged by the Baptist Young People's Union, at which the choir very effectively rendered two beautiful Easter anthems and in addition Miss Gwendoline Ross rendered the solo, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth."
