The Pingree Plan.

Always ED. HERALD :- In view of the continues depression in the authracite coal, market and the resulting lack of work which is causing so much suffering and privation in the county, I have been led to think that prob a by we could enable a good many of our worthy citizens, who are only too willing to work but anable to find it, to do something for themselves somewhat after the Pingree plan, which was made famous and uneful by the present Governor of Michigan. The land adjoining town is not of the best from 666 an agricultural point of view, but many fine gardens have been made out of it, and it has Twenty-five pieces of Importen Novelty Dress Goods for 25c, per yard.
