president bills until committees were filled. The resolution led to another hearted debate, in which Messra: Chandler, Gear and Allen participated The resolution finally went over.

Later in the day the bankruptey bill was passed by the decisive vote of 45 to 5. The bill passed is the substitute framed by Mr. Nelson, of Minnesota. The success of this subfitute in displacing the committee bill was a great surprise and disappointment to the judiciary committee. Which had reported a comprehensive bill known as the Torry bill. It was regarded as a personal triumph of Mr. Nelson.

The bill is comparatively brief and imple compared with the Torrey bill. The Nelson bill provides that any debt or other than a corporation owing said or more who is unable to pay his debte may file his petition in the United States district court, asking for a discharge from his debts, and offering to surrender all his property for the payment of his debts, except such as is exempt by law of his demicile from execution and list of all his property for the payment of his debts, and offering to surrender all his property for the payment of his debts, and shall conclude and list of all his creditors, and the amount and nature of the debts five each, and shall offer to surrender all his property for the payment of his debts, and shall conclude and list of all his creditors, etc. Preference four months prior to the court not less than 30 or more than 35 debts and lishifies.

The petition shall be heard by the court not less than 30 or more than 35 debts and lishifies.

The petition shall be heard by the court of certain enumerated grounds and list of all his creditors, etc. Preference four months prior to the filling of the bankrupt is transferred to an assignce for settlement. Accianting is #4 years old, and a native of Artegnac, a village of the province of Udine, three inlies south of Gemona. Accianto declares that he was impelled to the act by hunger, but it appears that on Wednesday he uttered vague threats of an intention to kill an exalted person.

This is the second time the life of King Humbert has been attempted. As his majesty was entering Napler on Nov. 17, 1878, the year of his accession to the throne, a man named Glo-vanni Passanante approached the king's carriage and attempted to stab his majesty with a dagger. The king, however, was only scratched by the blade, but Signor Cairoll, who was then prime minister, and who was with his majesty in the carriage, was severely wounded in the thigh. Passanante was sentenced to death, but the king commuted his sentence to inversoument
