He adds: "I regret to say that the Turks have burned, after plundering, the vilinges of Ligaria, Karayel and Meralaria, destroying the churches with dynamite.

The balloting went on by the hour without any material change. Hefore the 19th ballot the Deboe side offered a resolution that, beginning with the 25th ballot, the last man on each suc

Deboe side agreed to this, The next several ballots were without interest. Then came the 24th bal-lot. The five "bolters" were for the first time gathered in one bunch in a corner of the hall. They declined to yote on the first roll call. When the absentees were called they divided between Lewis and Doyle. Then cam the fifth ballot. The five bollers again sat still. When the roll call ended De boe was within five votes of the nomi nation. Evans and but 2 votes, the five botters still refusing to vote. The ballon resulted: Deboe, 31; Holt, 13; Bennett. 5; Lewis. 6; Evans. 3. Evans' name was dropped.

The five bolters sat still again during the 26th ballot. Evans' vote all went to Holt. The five sat still during call of absentees, except Napler, who voted for Lewis. The Holt people changed votes so as to tie Hennett with Lewis and then at last the five bolters asked to vote. They voted for Boyle, and he had to be dropped. The other side then realized that the dropping resolu-tion was a farce,

On the 27th ballot Lewis and Benpett each got six votes, and the bolters did not have to vote.

On the 27th ballot the balters, led by Clark, Linney and others, nominated Deboe, Bradley had turned the card. He and the Republicans who had boiled Hunter played their preference for Deboe quietly, and until they made every Hunter devotee soild for him. Hissem, seconded by J. W. Bailey, of the Holt side, moved to make the nomination unanimous. Amid the wild scene that followed Deboe, the nominee, was brought in and made a stir-ring speech of thanks. Holt and Lewis also came in and made speeches.

W. J. Deboe is about 59 years old, -native of Crittenden county, where he was a practicing county physician for a number of years. His first po-litical prominence was his election to the state senate four years ago, His etection is assured.
