SITUATION AT ATHENS.

Strong indications that Greek will turn upon Greece. Special to EVENING HERALD. ATHENS, April 28.—Public excitement is increasing here hourly and Greece seems to be on the brink of a revolution. The foreign residents are hoisting their national flags over their respective buildings. A popular outbreak against the government is feared.

BIG HAUL BY BURGLARS.

ZIONS GROVE, April 28.—The largest and boldest robbery ever committed in this vicinity was perpetrated at the general store of Isaac Davis at this place last night by men who are at present unknown. The store was robbed of $800 worth of dry goods, boots, shoes, cigars, etc. The robbery was committed at midnight. The store is situated in a lonely place. The nearest house is 300 yards distant. The stolen goods were hauled away in two wagons, each drawn by one horse. The robbery was not discovered until the clerk opened the store at seven o'clock this morning.

SIX MEN GO DOWN TO JAIL.

They Must Await Developments in John Hall's Case.

THE VICTIM SLOWLY IMPROVING.

It is Believed the Folks Will be Able to Convict at Least Three of the Men Who Have Been Arrested—Hall Informed To-day For the First Time That He Lost His Foot.

A great crowd of men and boys was attracted to Justice Cardin's office last night when four of the men arrested on suspicion of being connected with the assault upon John Hall were taken from the lockup to the Justice's office to be arraigned on a charge of vagrancy. During the day Chief of Police Toah had visited the District Attorney's office at Pottsville and consulted with Deputy District Attorney McLaughlin. The result of the conference was a decision to hold all the suspected men pending further investigation and to have those unable to furnish bail committed to jail on charges of vagrancy. When taken before Justice Cardin last night the two Flynn brothers, William Talbot, Patrick Slattery and Jacob Salinski, alias "Suffolk Jake," gave bail for their appearance when wanted. The rest were kept in the lockup for the night and this morning Paltogen, Foltz, Kester, Goodman and Baltzer took them down to jail. The men committed are Matt Dulany, James Woods, James Dougherty, William Bradley, Joe Mickalocky and Thomas Susslerland. Another of the men arrested on suspicion, William Leahy, has been discharged from custody.

It seems quarters there have been some commotions over the wholesale arrests that have been made in connection with the case, but it is quite apparent that the police had some foundation for their work and were not scooping in men at random. Chief of Police Toah is keeping a pretty close watch and it is impossible to guess him any any direct information as to the status of the case. There is reason to believe, however, that he has a good playing card up his sleeve and if he does not convict at least three of the men who have been arrested he will make it very warm for them on the trial of the case and that he has excellent reasons for holding them for trial.

A report was spread this morning that one of the six men taken to jail had squeaked. This is unfounded, but it is quite likely that before many days pass one of the men in custody will tell a very interesting story.

Hall, the victim of the outrage, is very much improved to-day. He was so weak yesterday that Dr. Callow was somewhat apprehensive, but to-day the patient is strong and cheerful and the doctor thinks the chances for recovery are very good. Hall did not know until to-day that he had lost his foot. He knew the train struck his foot but did not realize the result. The information was given to him gently by the physician in attendance and the patient received it with admirable fortitude. He hadn't the slightest idea that his injuries were so extensive. To-day he complained of a soreness of his chest and a pain at the back of the neck, where he received the blows when sand-lagged.

Manufacturers Demand Lower Wages. Pittsburg, April 28.—There may be a serious hitch in the settlement of the annual wage scale of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel and Tin Workers of the West. The scale will be prepared at the convention to be held in Detroit beginning on May 18. Some important changes will be made if the new tariff bill is adopted. It is understood that the manufacturers will interpose objections to the committee of the differential rates which are upon the tin plate prices for all sheets made. This may cause trouble. Notwithstanding the efforts of the manufacturers to lower the scale of wages President Garland of the Amalgamated says there will not be a change.

Highwayman on a Bicycle. Hazleton, Pa., April 28.—J. A. Swoley, a wholesale candy dealer, was attacked by footpads on a road near Humboldt in broad daylight yesterday. He was terribly beaten, and his assailants were about to rifle his clothing when Michael O'Brien and his partner intervened and gave chase. One of the highwaymen had followed Swoley from the village on a bicycle, and when he reached the spot where his pals were hidden caught Swoley's horse and held it until they came up. Then they set upon the old man and beat him with a sandbag. He is 87 years old, and fears are entertained for his recovery.

Sale of a Bride. Williamsport, Pa., April 23.—Mrs. Dean Hagerman yesterday committed suicide by drinking ten cents worth of carbolic acid. She had been married only three months. She accompanied her husband over his milk route, and upon their arrival home she took the bottle from her pocket and remarked: "I'll clear you from all blame; here it goes, Dean." She died within 20 minutes.

Bath in a Tar Vat. James Moran, of Palo Alto, a laborer employed at the lower Pottsville shops, met with a unique accident yesterday, which might have been attended with fatal consequences. He is employed about the tar vat, and in adjusting a hook fell into the vat. He did not fall headlong, or he would have met his death, but caught hold of a bar. The pitch was only lukewarm, and he escaped apparently unhurt.

TWO MILLION DOLLAR FIRE.

Three Vessels and Two Piers Destroyed at Newport News. Newport News, Va., April 28.—Fire broke out in the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad company's pier No. 5 at an early hour in the morning, and before the flames were checked damage to the extent of $2,000,000 had been done. Two of the company's immense piers were destroyed, three vessels burned to the water's edge, a tugboat entirely destroyed and eight persons injured, some of them seriously. The flames spread with such rapidity that it was impossible to make any headway against them. The British steamship Clontonia, which is loading with oil, tobacco and general merchandise at pier No. 5, was soon ablaze. Tugs pulled her out into the middle of the river, where an ineffectual battle was waged against the flames. She was burned to the water line. The Norwegian steamship Valseng, which was loading grain, next caught. The crew managed to escape by climbing down the ladders to the pier, but the vessel was destroyed, as was the Chesapeake and Ohio tug Wanderer.

The German sailing ship J. D. Bischoff, taking on grain from the north side of pier No. 5, also caught. The flames obtained such a headway on her that they could not be conquered, and she went to the bottom. The crew of this vessel had a narrow escape from being cremated. They were aroused by John Anderson, one of the crew, and rescued with the greatest difficulty, after the captain and the boat-swain had been badly burned. The heavy north wind and the heroic efforts of the fire department saved the large grain elevator of the Chesapeake and Ohio company from destruction. The fire was rapidly spreading across the conveyors that connect the elevator with the piers, but with the aid of a locomotive and an immense chain the conveyors themselves were pulled down and the danger averted.

The injured are: Captain Forest, of the Wanderer, slightly burned about the face and hands; John Digma, mate of the Wanderer, badly burned about the head and arms; Captain Keyte, of the Bischoff, severely, fatally burned; boat-swain of the same vessel, terribly burned about the arms.

A REPUBLIC FOR THE GREEKS

Now Loudly Talked of by Discontented Athenians.

THE PEOPLE TERRIBLY INCENSED

Over the Retreat of the Greek Troops—The Conquering Turks at Larissa Act With the Greatest Forbearance—No Pillaging Indulged In.

London, April 28.—A dispatch from Athens says: Popular feeling points to a revolution in favor of a republic. The citizens are greatly excited at the revelations made by former Minister Hall as to the conduct of the campaign. Yesterday large meetings were held in Constitution Square and other places of public resort, and fiery harangues were delivered by well known orators in denunciation of "those who would betray Greece." The fall of the ministry is regarded as certain.

Yesterday afternoon 500 men formed themselves into a volunteer body, forced their way into the gunsmiths' shops, armed themselves with rifles and revolvers and paraded the street in front of M. Ralli's residence. Several deputies addressed them, exhorting them to remain calm and to await the progress of events. Finally they believed the government to be contemplating the withdrawal of the Greek troops from Crete and an appeal to the powers to settle the troubles. This change upon the part of the government is due to Edhem Pasha having intimated his intention of marching upon Athens.

The newspaper organ of M. Ralli says that a meeting of the legislative assembly is the result of a conference of the leaders of the Opposition, Sotiro-poulos, Roli, Monoulo, Stoudoulos and Carapanos with the king and his ministers. These leaders pointed out the necessity of preserving order, and a necessary measure to meet the danger urged the immediate assembly of the legislative assembly to decide upon a possible solution. The king and his ministers consented to this.

The correspondent of the Associated Press with the Turkish army at Larissa telegraphs that he never saw such perfect discipline as when the victorious Turks occupied Larissa. The peace was not disturbed in a single quarter of the town. As an instance of the strictness of the orders against pillage, the correspondent has just seen a Turkish soldier who took a shirt from an abandoned, half closed store seized by a patrol and arrested.

Practically the whole Greek population fled from the town. One of the few persons who remained informed the correspondent that there was a continual exodus throughout Saturday. Only a number of volunteers remained. At the moment the regular troops had gone, began pillaging the stores, and also liberated the criminals from the jail. The released prisoners joined in the looting, and the volunteers afterwards began to shoot the Mussulmans, who throughout the preceding week have been maltreated by the Greeks whenever they appeared on the streets.

It is stated here that before the Greeks fled Prince Constantine, the Greek commander-in-chief, begged them to remain and face the enemy, but they refused, and a regular saut qui peut ensued. The Greek soldiers actually faced the crown prince as they refused to face the enemy again.

The Greek soldiers are furious at the Ethniko Heteria, the Greek national league. They seized all the members of that organization they could find, saying: "It is you who have brought all this misfortune upon us."

The Greek prisoners are well treated by the Turks, and a Greek officer who was seen by the correspondent had been supplied with coffee and cigarettes. He remarked to the correspondent: "We were always told the Turks were barbarous, but I should like to see more of this barbarity among our own people."

A Greek newspaper, published at Larissa, of which the correspondent procured a copy, is full of the most gross misrepresentations. At the moment the Turks were entering the plain of Thessaly it is announced that the Turks were in full retreat, and declared the Greeks would die to the last man before they would allow a single Turk to enter Greece.

The Turks have looted up all the banks, business houses and other places containing money or other valuables, and have placed armed guards over them.

Everything now points to the conclusion of the campaign by the intervention of the powers. There is no continuation of the report that the Greek ministry has fallen. It is probable that a coalition cabinet will be formed. It is stated that preparations are being made on King George's property at Sandstrup, Denmark, with a view of having the castle ready for its owner in case of his abdication or deposition.

Everything sent from Athens by the special correspondents emphasize the increasing gravity of the situation there and the rapid development of revolutionary feeling. This condition of things appears to have resulted largely from the cessation of hostilities in Epirus. While there is no doubt that the Turks are occupied in establishing their lines of communication, it is equally evident that the Greek disaster in Epirus is much more serious than was at first supposed. It now looks like a hopeless task to renew the advance upon Janina, as Turkey is in a position to send overwhelming reinforcements.
