THE INVESTIGATION. Shamakin To-day.

The members of the Legislative Investigating Committee, appointed to make inquiry as to the condition of the anthracite mine workers, arrived at Shamokin last evening. They began their first session there this morning at 2:00 o'clock. It is likely they will remain there but one day.

The Sergeaut-at-Arms says the committee will visit Pottsville to-morrow, unless the present program is changed. At the latter place an effort will be made to ascertain, from the efficials of the company, such in-formation on the subject of mining coal which the committee failed to secure by examinaion of the employes here and at Mahanoy
