Almost Sunk by an Iceberg. St. John's, N. F., April 30.—The steamer Portia, which acrived here yesterday from Halifax, saw nothing of the missing boats of the foundered Vaillant white crossing the banks. The condition of the four survivors, now at St. Plerre, continues unchanged. The physicians are agreed that they were dready insane when they are the dead body of their comrade. The scaling steamer Walrus also arrived yesterday almost in a sinking condition. Twenty feet of her starboard side was stove in, and a part of the stern torn away by collision with an leeberg. The Walrus had 150 men on board, all of whom had a narrow escape from death, as for several days the complete collapse of the vessel was momentarily ex-

Murdered in His Crowded Saloon. Chicago, April 36.—Emil Sohlern, a salconkeeper at 197 Wells street, was shot and instantly killed just before midnight by one of three men who entered the saloon for the purpose of rob-bory. Twenty men were in the place at the time, but none of them made any effort to capture the robbers or offer resistance, and the murderer and his companions escaped. The robber, who was evidently to have gone be-hind the bar to the cash register, finding that Sohlern Intended to offer re istance, drew his revolver and fired at the saloonkeeper's head. The vic tim died without speaking a word. The police were notified within five minutes after the murder, but the robbers had fied.

To Test "Unconstitutional" Decision. Indianapolis, April 30. - Yesterday John Navin was fined under an old willnance in the city police court for refusing several days ago to pay more than three cents street car fare. Navin appealed to the circuit court, which held the judgment of the lower court grand jury. The next step was to pre pare a transcript and earry the case before the state supreme court. A speedy decision is looked for. City Attorney Curtis is prosecuting Navin and Attorney General Ketcham is defending him. The suit is a friendly one, to secure from the supreme court an interpretation of the three cent fare law which Judge Showalter held uncon-
