TUESDAY, MAY 4, 1907.

The bituminous investigating committee is having troubles of its own. Its sessions are interesting, if unimportant.

The Potomac Republican advocates the abolition of the "Legislative Record." There are other publications that might meet with the same fate...

Breaking of robbery, it is considered a great "coup" to report the loss of one or two pairs of old shoes in the eyes of "naughty" journalists...

That annual chestnut—and which has become worse from age—about the failure of the peach crop is going to come again.

The movement against civil service is spreading among the politicians, especially those who are on the outside.

The thousands of old soldiers who were dismissed from office by the Democratic administration are being restored to their positions as rapidly as possible...

Vice-President Hobart is winning high commendation as a presiding officer of the Senate. One of the oldest officials of that body says he is developing greater capacity and ability...

Gen. Harrison announces that he cannot consent to be a candidate for governor of the Presbyterian General Assembly because he is too busy with his writings and law practice...

For itching piles, irritation of the genitals or itching in any part of the body, Doan's Ointment is worth its weight in gold.

A jubilee meeting of the American Medical Association will be held in Philadelphia on June 1st, and will continue in session until June 15th.

There's no discounting Senator Boies Penrose, of Pennsylvania, in his steadfast loyalty to machine politics.

Nearly a year's supply of foreign goods will have been rushed into the country before the final enactment of the Dingley law.

The House Committees

Populist Simpson Again Assaults Speaker Reed

FOR NOT APPOINTING THEM.

The Republican Majority Sustains the Speaker by an Overwhelming Vote.

An Appropriation to Provide for the Expenses of the Postal Congress.

Washington, May 4.—The issue was made, as Speaker Reed put it, in the house yesterday on the speaker's policy of postponing the appointment of committees.

Mr. Simpson, of Kansas, brought it on by another attack upon the speaker, which moved Mr. Reed to challenge him to propose a resolution instructing the speaker to appoint the committees.

When the vote was taken on the proposition the speaker was sustained by practically the solid vote of his party, assisted by 23 Democrats.

The neglect of a cold is often fatal. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup contains all the soothing virtues of the pine.

Dr. Talmage's Tour for Charity. Chicago, May 4.—The two weeks' tour of Rev. P. D. Talmage, in behalf of the starving millions in India, was concluded here last evening.

Burlock Blood Bitters is nature's true remedy for constipation and kindred ills. It acts directly on the bowels, the liver, the skin, and while cleaning the blood imparts strength to the digestive organs.

Florida's Senatorial Deadlock. Tallahassee, Fla., May 4.—The Florida legislature began yesterday its third week of daily balloting for a United States senator to succeed Wilkinson Call.

One of the prison reform bills, prepared by Francis J. Torrence, of Allegheny, a member of the state board of charities, provides that female convicts from all the counties in the state, sentenced to endure by imprisonment in the penitentiary, shall heretofore be imprisoned in the Western penitentiary.

Mr. D. P. Davis, a prominent liveryman and merchant of Goshen, Va., has this to say on the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it."

Dr. J. W. Moore's Remedy. Independence, Kan., May 4.—The murder of an old man by one of his sons is reported from Rowena, I. T., the victim being John Riley, 69 years of age.

Dr. J. W. Moore's Remedy. Barcelona, May 4.—The sentences upon the anarchists convicted of complicity in the bomb outrage of June 7 last, at the feast of Corpus Christi, when a dynamite bomb was thrown into a procession on its way to the Church of Santa Maria Delmar, killing a dozen outright and wounding nearly 50 others, some of whom have since died from their injuries.

Dr. J. W. Moore's Remedy. Nearly a year's supply of foreign goods will have been rushed into the country before the final enactment of the Dingley law.

NEWS FROM HARRISBURG I

can disruption during the approaching state campaign is first claim. There are hints that Senator Quay is more than willing to make terms with the Pittsburg and Philadelphia leaders of the opposition.

Among the bills which went down during the last week was one legalizing the sale of food and drug stores to agricultural societies. It was strongly supported by prominent turfmen of the state, and at one time its passage looked promising.

The Senate bill to discontinue the publication of the Legislative Record has passed second reading, and seems to have a chance of getting through.

Mr. Woodruff, of Philadelphia, has introduced a bill allowing judges of the United States circuit court to commit juvenile criminals to reformatories.
