The Bill Creating the Office Defeated in the House Yestevilay.

HARRISON NAY 7 - The bill creating the office of county detective in counties leaving a population of 150,000, and which was introduced by Representative Gridiths, of Schrylkill county, rame up for second reading in the House yesterday. Representative Suth Orme, of the same county, opposed the measure in a speech that carried conviction with it. He said that though the little was second in character it was intended ill was general in character it was intended bill was general in character it was intended principally if not altogether for Schuylkill county, and his people did not want it. The courts already had ample power in that di-rection, as in conjunction with the District Attorney it had authority to appoint detec-tives for sported purposes. Upon a vote being taken on the passage of the hill to third reading, it was negatived and the bill killed. The bill construction diver a Fish Warner.
