The Walls of a Crowded Church Fell Victims of Divine Wrath,

New York, May 12 .- The Journal to- many : New York, May II.—The Journal to-day publishes the following: Earth-quakes are shaking the Islands of Guadelope and Montserrat, of the Lec-kidney disorders?"

When the steamer reached Antigua, 40 miles from Guadelope, on May 1, every one in port was discussing the shocks. The heaviest had occurred two days before, when 50 colored people had been allied outright by being burled in the ruins of their houses. In a brick church a congregation of 100 people were caught by the collapse of the walls and 50 crushed to death. Those in the streets saw the houses sway back and forth and the walls of the brick structure crack. The report also said that 25 or 35 people had to their lives at Point.—Pitre. Tweive brick houses in Gaudelope had been demolish houses in Gaudelope had been demolished and scores of others cracked and searned by the shocks

From Antigua the Madiana steamed before the earthquake, had not been noted for the plety of its people, but while the Madiana was in that port meetings were held at short intervals in all of the churches, which were crowded with worshippers. The the habitants firmly believed that it was on account of their indiquities that they had been visited by earthquake shocks, and that if they did not support their indiquities that they had been visited by earthquake shocks, and that if they did not support the support of their indiquities that they had been visited by earthquake shocks.

Crow Deserted a Stuking Schooner, Now York, May 12.—The schooler Thomas N. Stone, of Boston, Captain Sewcomb, left Philadelphia on April 26 for Kingston, Jamaica, laden with coal. On May 1 the vessel was found to be leaking badly. Pumps were started, and all efforts made to locate and stop the leak, but to no avail. Later on the same day, with eight feet of water in the hold and the leak gaining fast, Captain Newcomb and his crew of six men took to the boat. For four days they were adrift, but suffered no hardships. On May 5 the British bark Africa, Captain Davidson, Montevideo for New York, picked them up, and they were landed at this port yesterday.

Death of the Earl of Dartrey. London, May 12.—Richard Dawson, Earl of Dartrey, is dead. The late earl was born Sept. 7, 1817, and was made a peer of the United Kingdom in 1886. He had his education at Eton, and from 1857 to 1868 was a lord in walting. In 1871 he was appointed lord fleuten-ant of Monaghan, and he had his country seat in that county. When in town he occupied a handsome mansion in Eaton square. He is succeeded in the title and the estate by his eldest son.
