Peculiarities of Sakhalin.

Curious facts have lately come to light concerning the island of Sakhalin, which lies off the eastern coast of Siberia. Cold winds and sea currents circulate around it, and their effect appears to be to produce on the island a reversal of the ordinary course of nature respecting the arrangement of temperature. Usually the air is warmest near sea level and coldest on highlands and mountains, but in Sakhalin the coldest air is found near the sea, and there the plants are of an Arctic character, while in the lofty interior of the island the climate is mild, and even subtropical plants flourish on the heights.—Youth's Companion.

TO KIDNEY SUFFERERS.

An Opportunity Well Worthy of Your Notice.

If you suffer with kidney disease or any ailment arising from an improper action of the kidneys or urinary organs, this offer we make to the people of Shenandoah should interest you. In the advancement of medical science, the kidneys, being almost the organs of the greatest importance to human health, have not been neglected, and in placing before you such a cure as Doan's Kidney Pills, the proprietors recognize how far so many statements of the makers of similar preparations have fallen short of their claims, being convinced that no remedy for kidney complaints in existence equals Doan's Kidney Pills for such ailments; strengthened in these convictions by letters that are daily received of the work they are doing for mankind's benefit. old backs and young backs are being constantly freed from never-ceasing aches, and many a lame and shattered one, stooped and contracted, is strengthened, invigorated and infused with new life. With such a medicine, an offer of this kind can be made without hesitancy, for while we lose the box we give to you, we make a friend that assists us in the sale of many others.

ONE FULL BOX

of Doan's Kidney Pills will be given away free to 200 persons suffering with kidney ailments at the undersigned address. First come, first served, and only this one chance offered. Remember this is not a sample box, but a regular size box of Doan's Kidney Pills, which retails at 50 cents. For those in the country who can not call in time, a full box will be mailed on receipt of five cents in either coin or stamps, to defray expense of postage and mailing, in response to all letters received up to and including May 18th.

POOR DIRECTORS TRIAL.

The Case of Neri Deitrich, Charged With Conspiracy, on Trial.

The case of Neri Deitrich, one of the Poor Directors charged with accepting bribes, was called before Judge Archbald yesterday afternoon after the libel case was given to the jury.

The motion on the part of counsel for the defendant, Messrs. Whitehouse and Marr, to quash the indictment was overruled. It was argued that the presentment by the Grand Jury was irregular, that the information given was not the result of the jury's own discoveries, but furnished by material given by others. This information was of a character that would vitiate its legality, etc.

Considerable delay and argument was indulged in by the counsel as to the proper manner in which the examination of jurors should be conducted. Then another hitch occurred when, after four jurors had been called, it was found the panel was exhausted, being engaged in other cases, and Judge Archbald adjourned court until this morning.

Wise in Their Selection.

It is stated that out of the 1,900 daily papers published in the country not more than twenty per cent. of the number pay more than expenses. So keen has the competition become, that the wary advertiser is becoming rather shy about giving business to all the papers in any given locality, and is concentrating and cutting it down to such as he considers best, and among this class the HERALD leads the procession.

Literary Notes.

In its June number The Ladies' Home Journal will celebrate the Diamond Jubilee in a way distinctly its own. In an article by William George Jordan, entitled "What Victoria Has Seen," the reader will be taken on the British throne, and the marvelous panorama of the world's history for sixty years will pass before him. He will at a glance see the progress in art, science, invention, music, education; the great social reforms, the growth of nations and the advance of civilization. The whole story of the world's progress of the longest reign in English history will be vividly presented.

Quackenbush, commander in the navy. Postmasters: Cornelius Van Cott, at New York; J. B. Brown, at New Castle, Pa.; S. A. Ramsey, at McKee's Rocks, Pa.; T. C. Munzer, at Forest City, Pa.; S. W. Terrible Case of Destitution.

Johnstown, Pa., May 13.—One of the most shocking cases of neglect comes from Cherrytree, Indiana county. An aged and dependent citizen of that place, Charles King, is dying. For several months he has been suffering from dropsy, and just recently his left foot swelled to such immense proportions that it actually bursted the flesh. Decomposition followed, and several of his toes have literally rotted off. The poor overseers of the borough learned of his horrible condition only a few days ago, and employed a physician, who found squirming maggots in the foot, eating the human flesh. Death is certain.

Birthday Parties.

A number of little folks gathered last evening at the residence of William Brown, 417 West Coal street, and celebrated the eighth birthday anniversary of his son, Harry. Lizzie, the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Rogers, of West Oak street, tendered a number of her young friends a party last evening, the occasion of her birthday. Games were indulged in, and ice cream, cake and lemonade were served in abundance. The hostess was the recipient of many presents. Those present were: Emily Williams, Florence Ellis, Ray Rowse, Lottie Ball, Ethel Morgans, Tillie Carl, Margaret Maly, Vouda Jenis, Susie Richards, Mary Edwards, May Lauer, Pet Davis, Lucy Franks, Jennie Reeves, Jean Brown, Virtie Snyder, Gertie Powell, Cassie Cox, Gwenie Lewis, Emma Platt, Lizzie Evans, Dollie Gregory, Jennie Bittler, Robert Callen, Charles Brobst, Edward Williams, Harry May, Harry Morgans, Harrison Powell, Robert Rogers, Elmer Lauer, Clarence Reeves, William Brown, John Brown, Walter Platt, Inar Blaker, Mrs. Lauer, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. Winterstein, Mrs. Mamie Winterstein, Miss Bessie Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers.

Cellars Flooded.

Nearly every cellar on the north and south side of East Centre street, between Bowers and Emerick streets, were flooded this morning by the heavy rains and the backing up of water caused by the stone wall erected in the creek by Anthony Flynn. In some places the water is 3½ feet deep. A 40-gallon tank of coal oil was upset in Michael Graham's cellar and the oil is floating on the surface of the water.

CARRIERS' OVER TIME.

Commissioner Lorenz Adjusted the Claims In Town This Morning.

Harry L. Lorenz, Esq., one of the Commissioners of the United States Court of Claims at Washington, D. C., arrived in town this morning from Shamokin to adjust the claims of letter carriers for over time worked up to May, 1893. He met Letter Carriers Bartsch, Bock and Holman, and ex-Carriers J. H. Kehler, now of Allentown, and J. R. Boyer.

The result of the conference will not be made known until Mr. Lorenz completes his tour and presents his report at Washington. He remained here but a short time and then left for Hazleton. Claims can only be made for overtime worked up to May, 1893, and there are only three of the present force that have any, as since that date no overtime has been allowed, the schedules of the carriers being so arranged as to keep their working hours within the eight-hour limit.

An Easy Victim.

Flips is back from Chicago and the experience following is gradually gaining circulation among this friends. Flips is one of those men for whom flies are supposed to have no affinity. He knows the ins and outs of the world. He rather likes to encounter the people who live by their wits and show them that he can beat their many games.

Flips walked into one of the big hotels of the Breezy City, shook hands with the clerk as an old acquaintance, wrote his name with an extra flourish, had a room assigned him and was half way to the door when he was stopped by a fine looking man with extended hand. He called Flips by name, asked after several Detroit people and showed a disposition to keep up talk. But Flips declined to thaw out, winked at the clerk and congratulated himself that he knew a bunko artist when he saw the article.

The stranger passed through to the bar and Flips was at once accosted by a large, well dressed, rather long haired young fellow. "Did that man try his game on you?" was the salutation. "Out our way he wouldn't last long. But it's different here. Let's follow him and see if we can't land him."

"Oh, what's the use. It isn't worth the time," and Flips looked superior. Then the two fell into conversation and Flips was delightfully entertained by the stories of the westerner. At length they went out together just to look about. In the morning Flips waked up in one chair while his feet occupied another. It was a dingy place in a dingy neighborhood. He dived for his watch to ascertain the time. It was not there. He felt for his money. It must have gone with his watch. He hurried to the hotel. There he met the first stranger of the night before, an old Detroit boy. He lent Flips what he needed.—Detroit Free Press.
