WASHINGTON NEWS.

All Interest Seems to Center on the Cuban Question.
WASHINGTON, May 15.—Rumors are in circulation that the President's message on Cuba will take more advanced ground than has been expected.
It comes from good authority that whether the President's message on Cuba is sent in Monday or Tuesday depends largely upon information received from Cuba meantime. Reports are expected from General Lee and W. J. Cohan. If the message goes on Monday it is expected to be delivered to Congress.
In any event the Morgan resolution is made the regular order in the Senate at two o'clock on Monday and cannot be displaced, except by unanimous consent.
The absence of the President has caused a lull in Cuban affairs and there will probably be no new developments before Monday.
The World correspondent says President McKinley so strongly opposed to the sugar schedule that he would veto the bill if it came to him with that schedule.

Stickers Win.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 15.—The Carbondale Coal Company of Eastington yields to the demands of the miners and restores the old rates after a strike of a few hours. Other mines which ordered reductions will probably yield also.

Turkey's Big Demand.
CONSTANTINOPLE, May 15.—Turkey will ask a war indemnity of 10,000,000 pounds, or about $50,000,000.

Grain Too High.
CINCINNATI, O., May 15.—It is claimed that distilleries cannot make goods from grain at current prices.

Gilson to McDonald.
EDITOR EVENING HERALD—I hereby cover the forfeit of $50 of David McDonald, which is said to be in the hands of HERALD, to contain in print in the issue of May 15, 1897, an account of the trial of McDonald, if it is not arranged to take place in nearby counties, it will be limited to fifteen pages, including seconds, timekeeper, referee and spectators. If the above is not satisfactory, I will contest for a purse including stake before any court of law in Pennsylvania, or New York. This proposition is open for ten days. The manager of the undersigned can be seen at H. J. Muldoon's Fifth Ward hotel, or at P. J. Muldoon's 14 East Centre street, Shenandoah, Pa., or his backers, please answer hurriedly and make arrangements as to time and place of contest.
WILLIAM E. GILSON,
Shenandoah, Pa., May 13th, 1897.

A Treat For Ladies.
Nothing is more pleasing than a delicious plate of ice cream served daintily and in elegant parlors. H. J. Muldoon's ice cream parlors at 208 West Centre street are notable for this. Ice cream of all flavors and all kinds of water ices are served in a manner that delights patrons, and no extra charge is made for the fine service.

For Sale.
One first-class lady's wheel and one gent's steel, for sale cheap. Apply at 405 West Cherry street, Shenandoah, Pa. 5-14-97

From the Northwest.
John Bolch, who left town a few years ago to take up his residence in Canada, South Dakota, writes to the HERALD renewing his subscription to the paper and stating that he has located in New Denver, British Columbia. He says he believes the latter place is the coming country. There is great excitement there now. Men are crowding in from all parts of the United States and Canada. Mr. Bolch left Spokane, Washington, on May 2d on a Northern Pacific railroad train of six coaches crowded with men bound for the gold and silver fields of British Columbia. He arrived there on May 5th.

At Krepichinski's Arcade Cafe.
Oyster soup on Monday morning.

Female Bicycleists Organize.
Since Shenandoah has been favored with a number of the fair sex who have begun to propel the wheel the formation of a ladies bicycle club has been begun. Among those who are interested in the new organization are: Misses Sallie Porter, Mattie Leasing, Edna Bolch, Jessie Glover, Hannah Morrison and Mrs. B. R. Severn. A permanent organization is to be effected.

Kendrick House Free Lunch.
Soup, trout and Frankfurts, free, to all our patrons to-night.

Commissions Arrived.
The commissions of Alexander May and M. M. Ketterer as Justices of the Peace of the borough of Mahanoy City and Wm. H. Shemmaker and Jeremiah Toomey as Justices of the borough of Shenandoah, were received by Recorder Jenkyu from Harrisburg this morning so that all doubt upon the matter is now set definitely at rest.

Hickert's Cafe.
Chicken soup, free, to-night.

Notice to Consumers.
All water rents for the six months ending May 1st, 1897, are long over due. The undersigned will be at his office, corner of Oak and Jardin streets, every day from 7 a. m. until 5 p. m. to receive payments, which should be made at once.

The Clothing Slaughter House.
J. B. Howich, the one price clothier, received from a big clothing syndicate over $10,000 worth of clothing which must go in 30 days to raise money. Come and see the prices. You will be astonished. All new goods made up this summer. No. 10 and 12 South Main street.

A Good Shot.
When John Barbach, the letter carrier, was passing along East Centre street this morning he saw a big black dog belonging to a saloon-keeper on that street rushed to and bit the carrier in the leg. Barbach drew his revolver and shot the brute in the body. The dog ran off howling and after running about half a square dropped dead. Barbach had previously been bitten by the animal.

At Monaghan's.
Great bargains in all kinds of carpets. Also wash goods and dress goods of all kinds cheap. Children's hose 5 cents per pair. Good Gingham at 4 cents. Sheeting, ten-quarters wide, 12 1/2 cents. It will pay you to visit our store.

Whewlons.
Joseph Platt, John Lang, Thomas Wain, David Holvey, Joseph K. Tompsett, Adam Stauffer and Alfred Evans have formed a bicycle club.
Orders for flowers from Payne's nurseries, left at Morgan's Bazaar, will receive prompt attention. 5-13-97

LONG TALK OVER ELECTRIC LIGHTS

Council Postpones Action in the Matter For Three Weeks.

THERE WERE LIVELY DISCUSSIONS.

Some of the Councilmen Insisted That There Should be a Charter Behind the Application For a Right of Way For Poles and Wires.

The Borough Council had another prolonged session last night, it being close upon midnight when the gavel of the president fell busily and the members started for their respective homes. The Councilmen in attendance were Messrs. McGuire, Coakley, Lally, Boehm, Magargle, Shoemaker, D. R. James, Straught, English, Gable, Reese and Hand.
The star event of the evening was another lengthy discussion over electric lights in which Mr. Burke, representing the proposed new electric light company got into very warm exchanges with several of the members. The bill was opened by D. R. James stating that the lamp and watch committee had met Messrs. Burke, Frazer, Mann and others representing the new company and the latter requested that Council defer entering into a contract for street lights until they complete their plan and have a chance to bid. Also that, whether they get the contract or not for the arc light, they be given the right of way to put in a wire for incandescent and commercial lights. This right they wanted immediately.
Mr. Lally moved that the right of way be granted.
Mr. Gable objected. He stated that the Borough Solicitor had drawn up a bond in conformity to the stipulations made by Mr. Burke at the last meeting and the company had refused to sign the bond.
The bond was read by the secretary. It contained the following, to which Mr. Burke made a vigorous objection: "And in consideration of which right the said M. M. Burke and sundry other persons associated with him have agreed to and with the said Borough of Shenandoah to introduce a better and cheaper electric light for the lighting of the public streets of said Borough for the term of one year, to-wit: that the said M. M. Burke, or his assigns, shall, at their own expense, furnish, or will in the future be furnished by the Citizens' Electric Light Company of Shenandoah on a competitive bid." The bond was in the sum of $10,000 and provided that should the company fail to furnish a better or cheaper light it would pay the Borough all damages it might sustain.
Mr. Burke's point in objecting to the bond was that his company didn't propose to bond itself to furnish a better light than the old company would for all time to come. This would be unreasonable, he said, as the old company would be free to improve by adopting improved methods.
Mr. Gable said that to eliminate the part in the bond to which Mr. Burke objected would destroy the whole bond, because it was the only clause which was a safe guard against the new company consolidating with the old company and raising the price in the future.
Mr. McGuire said the members of the new company were reputable and responsible men and he did not see why a bond should be required in such a case. No bond had been required in such cases in the past.
D. R. James did not think it safe to give rights of way to any company not having a charter and he could not see why the matter could not be delayed until a charter could be secured.
Mr. Hand echoed the sentiments of Mr. McGuire.
Mr. Boehm thought a charter should be secured before rights of way are granted, and as to the bond he said it was prepared on the proposition made by Mr. Burke at the last meeting.
Mr. Reese was opposed to the granting of the right on the managing grounds.
Mr. Burke, in reply to the several statements made, said the people he represented were of a character that he could not allow their motives to be impugned. He became emphatic in his remarks and President Straught interrupted the remark that Mr. Burke had not been in the privilege of coming to the floor for criticism. Messrs. Gable and Reese got into close quarters with the lawyer as to remarks made.
Finally Mr. Burke said he would admit that he had made an error at the last meeting when he offered to furnish a better light than that now furnished, but he would still guarantee a cheaper one, without reducing the quality of the light. "If the members of Council don't see fit to give us a chance to bid for the lighting of the streets, then give us an opportunity to pole and line the streets to put in incandescent and commercial lights," said Mr. Burke in conclusion.
It was finally decided by a vote of 6 to 5 to lay the matter over for three weeks, the idea being that by that time the new company will have received its charter and be in a better condition to receive rights of way. Messrs. Lally, McGuire and Coakley asked that their votes be changed to the affirmative.

A Proposition from the Citizens Electric Light Co. was likewise disposed of. Mr. Boehm stated that the Thomas Coal Company had stopped the borough from using the stone quarry at the north end of Main street.
Mr. Reese, of the Fire Apparatus Committee, stated that the committee and Columbia and Resour, makers had met and nominated a Chief Fire Marshal and Second Assistant. The Phoenix Fire Company still refused to co-operate and he wanted Council to act in the matter. It was decided that the secretary write to the Phoenix officers and notify them to appear at the next Council meeting and state why they won't go into the organization.

A fire plug at Turkey Run was reported out of service.
The discussion on the grade of the sidewalk in front of the Armory market on Centre street was resumed and disposed of by a motion that a common sense grade be made there.

The grade of the Mahanoy and Perrell properties on West Cherry street was also taken up and, by motion, the Chief Burgess was instructed to notify Mr. Perrell to put his pavement down to grade. The Borough Surveyor said it was from 5 to 7 inches too high.

The grade of East Centre street, between Union and Emerick streets, was also discussed with the surveyor and resulted in a motion that the street committee cut the street down to grade and the Chief Burgess notify the Lakeside Railroad Company to lower its track.
The street and surveyor committees were instructed to visit Laurel street, between Jardin and West, with reference to grade.

The law committee was instructed to see Judge Denton and the counsel in the Flynn case and urge that the case be pushed to speedy trial and settlement.
This motion followed a statement by Mr. Coakley that collapse on East Centre street had been flooded by water backed up by Flynn's stone wall.
It was reported that the coal hauling from the Brandonville railway station to the pumping station had been given to Mr. Reichert pending settlement of the difference with Mr. Peifer over demurrage.
The matter was referred back to the committee with instructions to consult the solicitor as to the status of the contract between Mr. Peifer and the borough.
A petition from the Defender Hose Company and superintendent Stout made statements as to why one of the firemen had been discharged from the pumping station, which were followed by a motion that the fireman and one of the engineers be called before the water committee for investigation of similar charges.

An invitation from the O. A. R. to participate in the Memorial Day parade was accepted, Council to turn out on the day. It was also decided that carriages be hired and after the parade a tour of the town be made and the pumping station visited.

A petition from the Defender Hose Company and several property holders of Turkey Run, asking that the company be given an annual appropriation to help erect a building for its apparatus and meeting purposes was referred to the finance committee.

A petition for a street light to be placed at the corner of White and Cherry streets was referred to the lamp and watch committee.
President Straught stated that he would make temporary appointments to fill vacancies on committees caused by the removal from town of T. J. James.

Mr. McGuire objected and upon his motion the law committee was instructed to ascertain if Mr. T. J. James' seat had become vacant by the removal.
Questions of courtesy were also raised on account of the absence of two Democratic members and the President said that, as a matter of courtesy, he would defer filling the vacancies for the present.

The water committee was instructed to report at the next meeting as to a safe for the water superintendent's office.
The Chief Burgess was instructed by motion to have all tax payments in the town reported.

PHILADELPHIA'S CELEBRATION I

Washington's Memory Honored in Pennsylvania's Metropolis.

THE PRESIDENT IN ATTENDANCE.

Formal Unveiling of the Beautiful Tribute to the Nation's Liberator Honored by the Presence of the Ruler of the Republic Re Founded.

Philadelphia, May 15.—Washington and his memory rules Philadelphia today. The entire city presents a gala appearance in honor of the street pageant and the exercises connected with the unveiling of the Washington monument in Fairmount park, and the city is crowded with visitors from this and adjoining states. While the day has not been declared a legal holiday, it is practically so, many of the business houses and practically all of the industrial establishments having closed before noon.
All day yesterday and last night troops were arriving at the different railway stations, and today the city has a decidedly military appearance. The troops were met by detachments of the various local commands, who escorted them to the different quarters, where they will be entertained during their stay in the city.
The first important event in connection with the demonstration was the arrival yesterday afternoon of President

McKinley, Vice President Robert and the members of the cabinet, with the exception of Secretaries Sherman and Long. Representative Bailey, of Texas, and Secretary Porter accompanied them. The president was escorted to the Hotel Walton and the vice president to the Lafayette. The president was afterwards waited upon by a committee from the University of Pennsylvania and a committee from the Manufacturers' club.

Last night a banquet was given at the Union League in honor of the president, vice president and cabinet officers. About 50 persons sat down. The address of welcome was made by C. Stuart Patterson, president of the Union League, and the president made a short reply.

Besides the president and vice president and the cabinet officers, there were present Governor Origen of New Jersey, Governor Hastings of Pennsylvania, Governor Tunnell of Delaware, Mayor Strong of New York, Mayor Warwick of Philadelphia, George C. Thomas, Elias W. Peck, John Russell Young, Senator Boies Penrose, General Charles H. Grosvenor, C. C. Harrison, provost of the University of Pennsylvania; Frank Thomson, president of the Pennsylvania railroad; Joseph S. Hart, president of the Reading railroad; Clement A. Griscom, A. J. Cassatt, Dr. William Pepper, Charles H. Cramp, Thomas Dolan, William M. Singler, Theodore C. S. Search, General Bugles, V. S. A., and Major General Brooks, U. S. A.

Following the banquet there was a reception, during which several hundred members of the league and many invited guests met the president and his party.

The ceremonies incident to the unveiling began at 12 o'clock. At that hour the troops began to form at Broad and Spruce streets. At 1 o'clock the members of the Society of the Cincinnati started in carriages for the Green street entrance to the park to await the coming of the president and his party. President McKinley and party left the hotel Walton in carriages at 1:30 o'clock, escorted by the City Troop. At the monument the distinguished guests were formally received by the Society of the Cincinnati, the Municipal band playing "Hail to the Chief."

Shortly after the presidential party left the Hotel Walton the military parade started up Broad street from Spruce. The march will be in progress while the ceremonies at the monument are going on, and it is expected the head of the line will reach the monument at the conclusion of the ceremonies. President McKinley will have the first view of the big stand near the monument for a smaller one, from which he will review the troops.

Major General George H. Snowden is chief marshal of the parade, which is composed of the cavalry, artillery, infantry and engineers of the regular army, marines from the navy yards, the officers and men of the American and foreign warships in port and the state guard from Delaware, Pennsylvania and New Jersey in the order named.

General J. P. S. Gobin is in command of the state guard and Governor Hastings and his staff are at the head of the line. Governor Tunnell of Delaware and Governor Origen of New Jersey are also riding at the head of their troops.

The formation of the column is, first, the cavalry, artillery, engineer corps and infantry of the regular army, followed by the naval battalions from the French and Italian warships and the forces of the Texas, Texas, Columbia, the North Atlantic squadron. After these come the militia in the order in which their respective states ratified the constitution of the United States, this being the custom at all the inaugural parades. According to this regulation the National Guard of Delaware takes precedence, followed by that of Pennsylvania and New Jersey in turn.

The unveiling ceremonies begin at 2 o'clock. Major William Wayne, who is president of the State Society of the Cincinnati and president of the national organization, will direct the ceremonies. President McKinley will pull the cord which frees the drape covering the monument. At the pulling of the cord the national salute of twenty-one guns will be fired by a battery located in
