WASHINGTON NEWS.
Senator Stewart Offers an Amendment to The Tariff Bill.
Special to EVENING HERALD.
WASHINGTON, May 18.—Senator Stewart to-day offered an amendment to the tariff bill which provides that the treasury available balance be fixed at $20,000,000, that when it is in excess of that sum the surplus shall be used in redemption of outstanding bonds; when the balance falls below that figure legal tender notes are to be issued sufficient to make up the deficiency.
Senator Tillman will offer a resolution for another sugar trust investigation in a few days.
The Comptroller has called for the condition of the National banks at the close of May 17th.

HOSTILITIES STOPPED.
Russia Succeeds in Causing The Sultan to Desist.
Special to EVENING HERALD.
LONDON, May 18.—Russia is credited with bringing about the Turkish change in the plans to march on Athens. At 11:30 o'clock this morning Ethem Pasha was ordered to cease hostilities. There is a rumor that Bulgaria is mobilizing.

STRUCK BY STONES.
Serious Result of a Stone Fight Between Boys.
Yesterday several boys from Mt. Carmel stole a ride on a train to town and while here became engaged in a fight with boys residing in the vicinity of South Bowers street. At about nine o'clock the Mt. Carmel boys boarded a freight train bound for Mt. Carmel, and provided themselves with stones, as the town boys had threatened to throw stones at them when the train passed under the electric railway bridge. When the train reached that place the battle started. Stones flew thick and fast to and from the train.
Charles Hall, 18 years old, happened to pass in the vicinity and a stone struck him over the head, knocking him senseless. At about the same time a stone struck Mrs. Lewis, of Peach Alley, and caused a dislocation of her right wrist. Hall regained consciousness and was assisted home by Policeman Goodman.
The boy was apparently fully recovered from the effects of the injury to-day. He is a brother of the young man who was assaulted by train on the railroad recently. Mrs.
Lewis says the stones that struck Hall and herself were thrown by the boys on the freight train. No warrants have been sworn out.

AN OPEN SWITCH.
It Causes Wreckage at the Lehigh Valley Depot.
After running a car of lumber to be used in repairing the platform at the Lehigh Valley depot on a side track this morning a brakeman left the switch open. At noon a freight train ran from the main line on the side track, threw the car of lumber against the Shenandoah Beef Company's house, and ran on to another switch, where all the wheels of the locomotive left the track and spun over the side for a distance of about thirty yards before the engineer could bring it to a stop. The corner of the beef company's building was badly damaged and one of the cylinder caps of the engine was cracked.

Push on Hand Again.
Last evening for men called at the Kendrick House cafe and ordered some eatables and drinks. After each one had set 'em up they all paid but the first one, who became abusive and insulted the bartender and one of the lady occupants. Fearing a riot the bartender promptly sent out for Chief Tash who was nearby, in whose charge the manager was given and placed in the lockup.

Petty Robberies.
Early this morning a boy about 15 years of age, who had been loitering around Main's motion store on West Centre street, for some time, was seen to take three caps from a box which were displayed on the outside. The clerk followed the boy and overtook him at the Lehigh Valley station, where the stolen goods were returned and the boy was released. On Saturday evening a lady was caught in the act of putting a chausse curtain under her shawl at the same place by the clerk.

Victim of the Flames.
A harrowing and cruel death was the fate of Margaret, the three-year-old daughter of John O'Neill, of Little Mine Run, after suffering intense agony for twenty-four hours. A neighbor ignited a small fire to destroy a pile of rubbish, and the little girl while playing nearby, was soon enveloped in flames, her clothing having caught by a spark from the fire. She screamed aloud as she saw her little apron in flames, and turning began to run rapidly toward her home, the dresses gradually fanning the flames into great fierceness. Her mother heard the cry and instinctively her thoughts turned to ward her daughter, and rushing to the door she saw the little one wrapped in a fiery embrasure. The flames were extinguished, and she was barely saved from being roasted alive.

CUBA AND THE TARIFF
Bill to Aid Distressed Americans May Cause a Deadlock
AND DELAY THE TARIFF BILL!

Mr. Bailey, the Democratic House Leader, Declares That Senator Morgan's Resolution Must Accompany the Relief Bill Urged by the President.

Washington, May 18.—The Cuban congress-ed the attention of the senate yesterday.
The public interest in the subject was shown by the great crowds which bestrenged the galleries throughout the day. Among the occupants of the diplomatic gallery were Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, and Minister Hatch, of Hawaii, and in the reserved gallery was General Dan Stick-less, ex-United States minister to Spain.
Neither the Spanish legation nor the Cuban bureau in Washington were represented in the galleries, so far as could be ascertained.
Two phases of the subject were presented. First came the question of relief to destitute and starving Americans in Cuba. This was presented in the president's message as soon as the session opened. In his message the president says:
"Official information from our consuls in Cuba establishes the fact that a large number of American citizens in the island are in a state of destitute suffering from want of food and medicine. This applies particularly to the rural districts of the central and eastern parts.
"The agricultural classes have been forced from their farms into the nearest towns, where they are without work or money. The local authorities of the several towns, however kindly disposed, are unable to relieve the needs of their own people and are altogether powerless to help our citizens.
"The latest report of Consul Lee estimates 600 to 800 Americans are without means of support. I have assured him that prompt relief would be made at once to relieve them. To that end I recommend that Congress make an appropriation of not less than $50,000, to be immediately available for use under the direction of the secretary of war. It is desirable that a part of the sum be used for the transport and return of American citizens who, desiring to return to the United States, are without means to do so." Immediately following the reading of the message Mr. Davis, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, presented a favorable report on the joint resolution, originally introduced by Mr. Gallinger, appropriating $50,000 for relief of American citizens in Cuba.
The resolution went through by unanimous vote.
The second phase of the subject came up at 5 o'clock, when the Morgan resolution declaring that a condition of war exists in Cuba was taken up. Mr.
Wellington, the new senator from Maryland, came forward for his initial speech in the senate, making a vigorous protest against the resolution, on the ground that it threatened war with Spain. The senator condemned "jingoism" and gave his indorsement to President Cleveland's conservatism on the Cuban question. Mr. Daniel, of Virginia, spoke in favor of the resolution, with the vigorous assertion that it was a calumny greater than war for a nation to withhold justice through fear of war.
The house confronted the Cuban question, made a party issue of it, and adjourned without taking any action.
Immediately following the bill amendment proposed by Mr. Bailey without the amendment, so for the time the question was sidetracked.
Then the house devoted two hours to debate on the conference report on the features of the Indian appropriation bill opening up settlement of the Gilsonite lands on the Uncompane Indian reservation in Utah, refused to accept the compromise agreed on by the conference and asked for another conference with the senate on the bill.
In the meantime the senate resolution, originally introduced by Mr.
Hitt's bill had been sent to the house, and Mr. Hitt asked unanimous consent for its consideration. The deadlock between Mr. Dingley and Mr. Bailey was re-nacted, and while Mr. Bailey was endeavoring to get consent for the consideration of the two Cuban propositions together Mr. Dingley put in a motion to adjourn. This motion was carried by a vote of 99 to 71. It was practically a party alignment, only three Republicans—Messrs. Cooper of Winconsin, Lindsay of North Carolina and Marsh of Illinois—voting against adjournment, and all the Democrats and Populists, except Mr. Baker of Illinois, and the independent silverites voting the same way. The adjournment carries the question over to Thursday.
There is a possibility of a clash between the friends of the Cuban belli-gerency resolution and the tariff bill.
The advocates of the Cuban resolution apprehend that their opponents will make an effort to prevent a vote before next Monday, when the tariff bill is to be taken up under agreement. Senator Morgan is hopeful of securing a vote before that time. Senator Mason, who is an enthusiastic supporter of the Cuban cause, said today that if a vote should be prevented this week by billistering tactics the tariff bill could not be taken up next Monday. "We must have a vote on Cuba before the tariff is considered," he said, "or we shall see some filibustering such as the senate is not used to."
Mr. Bailey, the Democratic house leader, proposes to secure a vote on the question by presenting a minority report from the committee on rules, which will make it in order to offer the substance of the Morgan resolution as an amendment.
Mr. Dingley said today that a minority report could not be made to the house unless it proposed minor germane to the majority report. He doubted, he said, whether a proposition to recognize the insurgents as belligerents could be considered germane to any appropriation for the relief of American citizens.

It is not unlikely that Speaker Reed will declare a minority report out of order. The Democrats, however, are determined to bring the house to a vote on the question of recognition of Cuban belligerency. Mr. Hitt says that the Republicans are willing to meet that question again, although they adopted a resolution declaring themselves in favor of Cuba in the last house. They do not intend, however, to complicate a simple resolution for an appropriation with the question of belligerency, he says.
Mr. Bailey said today that the Republicans did not want to meet the question with a Republican president, who would be put in the position of enforcing or disregarding the recommendation of congress. He added, when asked if a minority report would be ordered, that the Democrats would be tempted to repeat the scenes of the Fifty-first congress if the speaker refused to allow consideration of such a report from the committee on rules.

Nominations by the President.
Washington, May 18.—"The president yesterday sent the following nominations to the senate: Frank A. Vand-erlip of Illinois, to be assistant secretary of the treasury; Brigadier General Za-na B. Bliss, to be major general. Mr.
Vanderlip has been Secretary Gage's private secretary since March. He was formerly editor of the Chicago Economist.
"The president also appointed Charles E. Keeler, of Illinois, to be assistant secretary of the treasury.
The president also appointed James H. Blount, of Georgia, to be assistant secretary of the treasury.

Lithuanians' Night.
The first drama in the Lithuanian tongue ever presented in Shenandoah was rendered by types of that nation in Ferguson's theatre last night. It was a four act drama and depicted scenes of Russian life, the title of the play being "Under the Bana of Russia." The cast numbered 32 players and were greeted by a fair audience, among them being a number of our English speaking people.
The music was furnished by the Lithuanian band. A short street parade by the band followed by the performers attired in the stage attire attracted many people.

Attempted Burglary.
Richard Harris was arraigned before Justice Shookmaker last night, charged with attempting to break into and rob the store and dwelling of Amadis Womer. He was put under bail for trial at court. At three o'clock this morning Harris tried to force open the rear door of Womer's dwelling and attempted to break in. Womer, who opened a window and shouted for the police, burst into the room of Richard Harris, and with a man O'Hara on Par Alley. The officers had been watching Harris all night and followed him from place to place. They lost track of him shortly before he made the attempt at Womer's.
