A few min-utes later Lieutenant Governor Worthington came into the hall, and went up to the chair. Senator Goebei talked pleasantly to him and then called up Senator Bronston. It developed at once that a compromise had been reached. the lieutenant governor concluding be might have been wrong in resuming the chair before the appeal from his decision was acted upon, and he argeed to let things proceed in the regular way. Both senates met at 3 o'clock, and adjourned until today at 11 o'clock, and the appeal still pending. This means that the silver minority has won; that all the majority is not as warmly for the fusion bill as they seem, and that it will not be passed.

Bank President Scheffer Indicted. St. Paul, May 18.—Another sensation-al indictment in the bank cases was reported by the grand jury last night. The Alemania National bank was among those which failed during the past winter, and into whose affairs the grand jury has been looking, and this indictment was for grand larceny against Albert Scheffer, president of that bank. The ground for the charge is an overdraft on his personal account to the amount of $6,475.

The latest news from the seat of hos tilities shows that the battle reased about 9 o'clock last evening, but was resumed again this morning. Thus far no account of the fighting has been received from the Turkish side. It is evident from the Greek account that the Greeks have suffered a serious de-feat, and if the left wing has given way, as appears probable, Edhem Pasha may be able to cut off the Greek retreat and separate General Smolen ski, at Sourpi, from the main army.

This is Edhem Pasha's reply to the foolish attempt of Colonel Manes to anatch a victory in Epirus. If Greece had prevented Manos from playing this last card of a gambler Turkey might perhaps have censed hostilities. As it is, now she is in full possession of Thessaly, and the powers will find the task of protecting Greece more difficult than
