Rescued by the Life Savers.

Thirteen, N. S., May 18.—During a dense fog that shrouded the Florida coast, a schooner from Turkey Island, laden with salt, dashed on the rocks at Fort Lauderdale, on the coast of Duval county, and became a total wreck. The vessel began to go to pieces at once in the heavy sea, and the boats were broken against the side of the boat. The life saving crew sent a life line over the wreck, and after two hours of anxiety and peril the crew were all landed on the beach.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Joseph Ueh, of St. Clair, sent yesterday her...

Mrs. Mary Hupper, of Shenandoah, is being entertained by town friends.

Mrs. Clara and Emma Seltzer spent Sunday with friends at Lakeside.

John A. Reilly, Jr., went to Philadelphia this morning to transact business.

Mrs. Mary Hupper, of Shenandoah, and her brother, Joseph Hupper, were Potsville visitors yesterday.

Cemeterian Margale, Frank Schmitt and Joseph Hill spent today angling for trout at Hudsonville.

M. M. Burke, Esq., is in Philadelphia, attending to legal business in the United States District Court.

William Davidson Harvey Jansky spent yesterday fishing and returned home with twenty-six fish trout.

Mrs. Maud Dunn and Maud Houghen, of Mahanoy City, spent last evening in town at the home of Miss Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kistler, who have been visiting their son, Dr. J. S. Kistler, since Saturday, returned to their home at Westernville.

Howard Barchill and Thomas McGinty, two representatives of the Mahanoy City Iron and Steel Company, were in town yesterday afternoon.

Edward White, of West Oak street, was pleasantly entertained by Miss Dencie Wisleman at her residence in Ashland yesterday.

Sam. William T. Evans, of the Home Friendly Society, is in Williamsport, attending the state convention of the Odd Fellows as a delegate.

J. M. O'Connor, of Mahanoy City, was in town yesterday looking after the interests of the bank of that city, a weekly newspaper which is to be issued by T. J. Joyce, formerly of the American.

Dr. Walter H. Vincl, of Harrisburg, but resident here, is in town, and will be in town to engage in business as a veterinary surgeon. His headquarters will be at the Hotel Fenwick.

Thomas Beckman and Benjamin Broxton have returned from Philadelphia. While in the city they were the guests of Mr. Beckman's brother, who is general superintendent of the Caledonian Club, and were entertained there.

Complete line of roses to mouthblow, hybrids and hardy perennials, all colors from 1 to 2 years old, at Payne's nurseries, Girardville.

The June Number of the Delineator and its presentation of warm-weather modes, fabrics, dress trimmings and millinery is made brilliantly attractive by the handsome color plates. The literary features include contributions by a quintette of famous women.

Sister Angeline, a daily humorist of life in a Louisiana convent in Philadelphia. Of allied interest is Anna T. Sadler's account of the Lady Antiquarians of Montreal. Jeanie M. Drake's second study of New York Social Types will be found quite as pleasantly as was her description of the Metropolitan Woman Society. In timely recognition of the season for fittings is the paper by Mary Caldwell Jones, entitled At Home and Abroad. Mrs. Witherspoon's June Tea-Table Chat, Mr. Vick's suggestions for the Flower Garden, and the paper devoted to Seasonable Cookery and the New Books are of habitual excellence. The Young People will find described some novel forms of entertainments, and the children are not forgotten. Ladies interested in artistic needlework should not miss this number the regular departments of Tatting, Crocheting, Lace-Making, etc., being supplemented by Emma Higginson's special lessons for Fancy Stitches and Embroideries and Ecclesiastical Embroidery, and Bertha E. J. Hodgett's directions for making an unbrothered box for presentation to a June bride.

Harper's Magazine. The June number of Harper's Magazine will be distinguished by the first installment of a new novel by Frank R. Stockton, "The Great Stone of Sardis," dealing in the humorist's most whimsical vein with events in the twentieth century, including a submarine expedition to the North Pole. Among the other features will be the first of two papers on the British Parliament, "The Celebrities of the House of Commons," by T. P. O'Connor, and an installment of "The Merton," which will be given, as it was left unfinished. The illustrations will include C. D. Gibson, Frederic Remington, and F. H. Langtry.

PENNSYLVANIA'S HIGHWAYS.

A Bill to appropriate $1,000,000 for the improvement of the highways.

Harrisburg, May 15.—A bill appropriating $1,000,000 to rebuild and improve the public roads of the state, under the supervision of the State Highway Commission, was introduced in the House last evening by Chairman Martin, of the committee on agriculture. The money is to be distributed to the boards of supervisors according to the number of miles of roads in each township. No township shall receive a larger sum than it raises by local taxation on road purposes. The bill also appropriates $1,000 for the employment of a clerk to keep the books and accounts and $2,000 for postage and contingent expenses.

Mr. Todd, of Lawrence, presented a bill amending the factory inspectors act of April 22, 1897, to regulate the employment and provide for the health and safety of men, women and children over 13 years in manufacturing establishments, mercantile industries, laundries, renovating works or printing offices. A bill was introduced by Mr. Harwood, of Westmoreland, amending the act of April 3, 1891, empowering the burroughs town council of any borough or other tract of land on the petition of a majority of the citizens and resident householders.

The bill giving trolley companies the right of eminent domain was practically killed by this session by the defeat of a resolution to make a special order for it for second and third readings.

The bill requiring counties to pay the cost and expenses of apprehending and returning a fugitive from justice charged with or convicted of felony came up on a special order for final passage and was introduced by Mr. Harwood, of Westmoreland, amending the act of April 3, 1891, empowering the burroughs town council of any borough or other tract of land on the petition of a majority of the citizens and resident householders.
