THE GIRARD MOVEMENT.

Philadelphia Honors the Founder of Girard College.

Philadelphia, May 21.—The ornamental statue to Stephen Girard located on the west plaza of the city hall was unveiled yesterday afternoon with ceremonies quite an interesting, though perhaps less elaborate, than those that attended the dedication of the Washington monument. The statue is the exhibit of the Girard fund of the institution founded by the illustrious benefactor and merchant and of the citizens of Philadelphia and of the commonwealth to the memory of the great philanthropist.

The unveiling was witnessed by thousands, and among the invited guests who occupied places on the stands erected for the purpose were Governor Hastings, Mayor Warwick, many members of the legislature and of city councils, and others equally noteworthy. The only woman on the stand was Mrs. Ellen E. Girard, of Wayne, Pa., a grandniece of Girard, and the only member of the family now living, and Mrs. William B. Mann, whose husband was an active member of the board of city trustees.

The Girard statue is cast in bronze. The height of the figure, including the plinth upon which it stands, is 2 feet 3 inches, making a total height of 18 feet 4 inches from the ground to the top of the head. It cost $10,000. It was erected by the Alumni Association of Girard college and the people of Philadelphia. It bears the following inscription: "Philadelphia's greatest philanthropist, erected by the Alumni of Girard college and the people of this city and commonwealth 1897."

A NEW DISCOVERY by the SHAKERS.

For more than a hundred years the Mount Lebanon Shakers have studied the cultivation of medicinal plants and sought to extract from them their healing essences. Their labor has not been spent in vain. They have made a discovery that will prove a blessing to mankind. It consists of a cordial that causes immediate relief in cases of indigestion. The importance of this discovery will be apparent when we realize that nearly nine-tenths of our suffering are caused by dyspepsia or indigestion. Nearly every person you meet has this distressing trouble in some of its varied forms—sick headache, distress after eating, palpitation of the heart, glee, and but symptoms of indigestion. To relieve these ailments has been the study of the Shakers and they have succeeded. The reason the Shaker Digestive Cordial has such an immediate and salutary effect is that it causes the food eaten to be digested, for it is undigested food that causes the distress. The Cordial causes the food to be digested before there is time for it to ferment and sour on the stomach. When the food is so digested it gives strength and vigor to the feeble body, makes one feel bright and cheerful, and makes one gain in flesh.

The Digestive Cordial is so prompt in its action that the very first dose will give a perceptibly favorable result. It gives immediate relief.

Every druggist has been sent a supply of our handsome Donkey Puzzle Books, and a copy may be had for the asking. It tells all about the Cordial as well as faxes, the new castor oil.

Try a twenty-five cent bottle of Digestive Cordial and see what it will do for you.

Widowman Killed.
James O'Neill, a waiter employed at the restaurant 131 North Ninth street, fell from his perch at Ninth and Locust streets late on Wednesday night, and was injured so badly that he died before daylight yesterday at the Pennsylvania Hospital. O'Neill fell from his wheel while trying to steer clear of a colored boy who got in his way. The unfortunate widow's head struck one of the Belgian blocks and he had his skull fractured. He was unconscious when picked up. O'Neill has no relatives in this city. He came here a few months ago from Girardville. He was 22 years old.—Phila. Inquirer.

DENTAL ASSOCIATION.

In Session at Carbondale During the Present Week.

The Shenandoah Dental Association was in session this week at Carbondale, and the meetings were very profitable to the members. Dr. C. M. Borden, of town, was in attendance, and was honored with the election of president of the association, an evidence that he is constantly in touch with the advanced ideas of dentistry. The business sessions were very interesting and the various papers presented were favorably received.

A paper on dentistry was read by Prof. James Freeman, president of the American Dental Association, and afterwards thoroughly discussed by the members. Dr. Wheeler, of Carbondale, spoke on the "Practical Features of Electromyography as a Guide to the Pathologist." W. W. Sharp, of Brightwood, on "Pain Relief Work." F. J. Klingner, on increasing attendance at dental societies; Dr. Sharp gave a practical demonstration of his dental forceps, and Drs. Young and Jones gave an exhibition of "Cathaphoresis," which is an exhibition of using electricity to alleviate pain in dental work.

The officers elected were as follows: President, C. M. Borden, Shenandoah; Vice President, W. A. Spencer, Carbondale; Treasurer, G. W. Klump, Williamsport; Recording Secretary, V. S. Jones, Bethlehem; Corresponding Secretary, George C. Knox, Cranston. The association was dissolved upon the next place of meeting.

The German Catholics.
The annual gathering of the German Catholic Societies of Pennsylvania will be held in Potteville May 21st, continuing the entire week, will be a successful affair. Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, in personage of an invitation extended personally by Christian Duloy, chairman of the Fest Committee, has announced his purpose to visit Potteville during the convention week. His Grace will probably arrive Monday, May 21st, and on the following day review the parade of the societies. Arrangements are being perfected to receive him in all the pomp due his high station in the church. He will be accompanied by Bishop President, of the diocese. The parade of the German Catholic Societies of the state will take place on Tuesday afternoon, June 1st. That this will be a monster affair may be conceived when it is understood that special trains will bring societies from Pittsburg and other cities in the western part of the state, as well as Scranton, Carbondale, Wilkes-Barre and Philadelphia. The chief marshal of the parade will be former Sheriff Joseph Wolf, who will have as aids the following well known gentlemen: Fred. Smalley, August Grimm, W. O. Rettig, Joseph Monday, Joseph Wehinger, George Oels, Joseph F. Lehman, Michael Galsburg, Joseph Zischel, Nicholas Neider, of Old Lewis; Andrew Zerabald, of Newton; and Andrew Betz, of St. Clair.

Competing Clothing Merchants Get Mixed up in Law.

MAHANAY CITY, May 21.—Gesa Leskowitz, who two weeks ago opened a clothing store in the building, was arrested this morning at the instance of Philip Coffey, the clothing merchant, who charged that Leskowitz is acting as agent for a Hanston man and conducting a transient retail clothing store without taking out a license from the proper authorities, contrary to the Act of Assembly of 1895. The case was argued and there were lengthy arguments. Justice Ketter reserved his decision.

THE PRESBYTERIAN MODERATOR.

He is Dr. Sheldon Jackson, Alaska's Commissioner of Education.

Eagle Lake, Ind., May 21.—There were but two candidates for the moderatorship of the Presbyterian general assembly—Dr. Sheldon Jackson, the home missionary, and Dr. Henry C. Minton, the seminary professor. The politicians of the assembly were treated to a great surprise, and the election of Dr. Jackson by a vote of 213 to 228 was characterized by many delegates as a "breaking of the machine."

It was claimed as a victory for the more liberal branch of the church, and was in line with the election of Dr. Withrow last year.

When the ballot was declared Dr. Sping and Hayes were appointed a committee to escort the successful candidate to the platform, where he was welcomed with a few remarks by Dr. Withrow. The new moderator responded briefly, and after a few notices the assembly adjourned until evening, when the sacrament of the Lord's supper was celebrated. Dr. Withrow presided. He was assisted by Dr. Stephen W. Dana, of Philadelphia, who administered the bread and wine.

Dr. Sheldon Jackson, the moderator of the Presbyterian general assembly, was born at Minaville, N. Y., in 1834. He was graduated at Union college in 1855, and three years later at Princeton Theological seminary. With the exception of a portion of the period of the civil war, when he was engaged in hospital work in Tennessee, and in the employ of the Christian commission of Alabama, the whole of his life has been spent in the home mission field in almost every state and territory west of the Mississippi river, as Presbyterian and synodical missionary. In 1877 he went to Alaska, and was the father of the mission here and there. Subsequently he became United States commissioner of education for Alaska, and continued to hold this position.

Times are certainly very hard, and we realize that the people of Shenandoah and vicinity have no money to throw away. This is one reason why we have decided to make a cutting reduction on every article of Clothing in our store. Remember we are not going out of business, but we have decided that the best way to sell our immense stock is to mark it down so low that no man, boy or child can afford to be without one good suit at least. Just read these prices and consider if you can get along with that old suit this summer.
