Pelton For Himself and Children.

Brooklyn, May 22.—Mrs. Annie Brown tried to kill herself and her two children yesterday in this city. She walked into a drug store with her two sons, Charles and John, and ordered two glasses of soda water. The drug clerk gave her the drinks and went behind the prescription counter. Then he heard her say "good-by" and in a minute later the woman and children were screaming with pain caused by Paris green, which Mrs. Brown had put into the soda. It is said that the woman and her elder son, Charles, will die. The younger boy, John, has a chance for recovery. Mrs. Brown is only 25 years old.

MAHANOY CITY.

The Observance of Decoration Day in the Neighboring Town.

MAHANOY CITY, May 20.—At seven o'clock this morning seven Post No. 118, G. A. R., accompanied by the ladies of the Women's Relief Corps and a large number of children bearing colors, went to the cemeteries on the hill. The exercises at the soldiers' graves started with the reading of the ritual service by Adjutant Sykes, followed by prayer by Rev. G. M. Beck, of the German Lutheran church, and short addresses by Revs. Beck, DeLong and Brant. The graves were then decorated.

This year, instead of placing bouquets and plants on the soldiers' graves, after their services the post returned to town and at 9:30 the line of parade was formed. The parade concluded the exercises for the morning. This evening Miss Crawford, of Minersville, will deliver a memorial address in Kaiser's opera house and local vocalists will furnish the varied program.

THE EISENHOWER CASE.

The Supreme Court Sustains the Lower Court.

The Supreme Court has handed down a number of opinions and decisions, among the number being several of interest to Schuylkill county.

The appeal of Theodore Eisenhower, convicted of the murder of John Schwiditz, at Shenandoah, was one of those passed upon by the Supreme Court. The judgment of the lower court is affirmed, and it was ordered that the record be sent for the purpose of execution. This action on the part of the upper court is a surprise, as it was expected to affirm the decision of the lower court. Eisenhower's fate will now be placed in the hands of the Board of Pardons, who will decide whether the prisoner shall hang or spend his natural lifetime in prison.

The National Mutual Ins. Co. to the use of Office vs. the Home Benefit Society of N. J. judgment subject to direction made is affirmed.

Seltzer vs. Robbins et al., doing business as the National Polo Club, C. P., Schuylkill county, judgment reversed and a venire facias de novo awarded.

SUGAR SCANDAL AGAIN.

Senator Tillman Wants Another Investigating Committee

TO PROBE NEWSPAPER CHARGES.

The South Carolina Senator Startles the Dignified Senators With a Businessness of Speech Seldom Heard About the Halls of Congress.

Washington, May 22.—After a long period of silence, Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, started the senate yesterday by a speech no less dramatic in its delivery than sensational in its allegations. He proceeded to present a resolution for the appointment of a special committee of five senators to investigate charges of speculation by senators while the tariff bill was before the Finance committee. In advocating the resolution Mr. Tillman threw aside the usual conventionalities of the senate, and with a plainness of speech seldom heard about the halls of congress called on his associates to investigate the published charges of senatorial speculation, and if found true to purge the senate of those who had debauched it. The senator had published articles read from the desk stating that senators had recently made large sums of money in speculation in sugar stocks, and in one instance the name of the senator (Mr. Smith of New Jersey) was mentioned. Mr. Tillman spoke for nearly an hour, every line of his speech being punctuated with intense invective.

Mr. Tillman's resolution quotes the senate resolution of May 17, authorizing the original inquiry, and then proceeds as follows:

"Whereas, the committee therein designated in the pursuance of its duties examined several witnesses and;

"Whereas, several of these witnesses refused point blank to answer the questions put to them; and

"Whereas, one of these witnesses, after three years of legal contest, is now in prison under sentence of the court for contempt, said court having declared the questions put to him pertinent, and;

"Whereas, another of these witnesses was yesterday acquitted on a technicality which cannot shield him from the consequences of refusing to answer the questions put to him, if the senate will renew the inquiry; and

"Whereas, within the last 30 days, sundry newspaper correspondents have openly charged senators with speculation in sugar stocks while the sugar schedule is under discussion, and also charged that brokers in New York knew in advance as to what the senate Finance committee would report as to the sugar tariff; and

"Whereas, the Finance committee involves a question of the highest privilege, the right of the senate to protect its members from slander and to protect the body as a whole from these open charges of corruption, therefore be it

Resolved, that a committee of five be appointed, with powers to send for persons and papers, to employ a stenographer and to administer oaths, to inquire into the truth or falsehood of the charges made in May, 1894, and into the charges recently made, and the exact nature of the investigation, and everything embraced in the resolution of May 17, 1894, as well as the methods pursued by the American Sugar Refining company, better known as the sugar trust, in controlling legislation in its favor at the present time, and especially whether it has in any way contributed to or controlled the election of a senator in this body at any time.

Mr. Aldrich, in charge of the tariff bill, answered Mr. Tillman in a sweeping denial of all irregularity on the part of the Finance committee, and a specific denial of charges that the sugar trust had dictated the sugar schedule of the tariff bill.

The Tillman resolution was referred to the committee on contingent expenses of the senate.

Considerable progress was made on the tariff bill, 13 yeas being recorded. Several votes were taken during the day, but the Finance committee had a liberal majority in every instance. The Democratic members of the Finance committee made a strong effort to reduce the rates on window glass, but their amendments to that effect were defeated. The bill is being considered today. The usual Saturday recess being abandoned.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, chairman of the committee on contingent expenses of the senate, has not yet called for a meeting of his committee for the purpose of considering the Tillman resolution. It is believed to be probable that the resolution will be reported back to the senate, and that that body will order an investigation. There may be some delay on the part of the committee in acting on the resolution, but the presumption is that if a report is not forthcoming a motion will be made to discharge the committee and bring the resolution before the senate. That would mean a direct vote, and it is believed that on such a proposition the senate would vote to consider the resolution and order the investigation.

Four Hundred Convicts on Strike.

Bribe Taker Sent to Prison.
Lockport, N. Y., May 22.—EX-Alderman W. D. Davis, convicted of accepting a bribe, was yesterday sentenced to two years and four months at Auburn prison. The cases of O'Connor, Stevens and Sheldon, indicted on the same charge, were put over to the next term.

National Appeal.
It is estimated that the Government is losing three million dollars a week in revenue by the delay in the passage of the Tariff bill. The people are losing ten times as much in work on account of the delay. We earnestly ask every one of our readers to immediately write a postal to, at least, one member of the United States Senate at Washington, urging and demanding the immediate passage of a protective tariff law and such a law as will give adequate protection to American labor and American industries. Address your postal card to Hon. U. S. S., Washington, D. C.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

A Regular Meeting of the Body Held Last Night.

A regular monthly meeting of the Board of Health was held last night with four of the members in attendance, Messrs. Spalding, Hollans, Maclean and McHale.

Secretary Curtis reported that there were 20 deaths and 3 still births during the month and 44 burial permits were issued. Twelve of the burials were non-residents.

Health Officer Conry reported that he caused the abatement of seven nuisances during the month. He added that the parties on South Pear alley against whom complaints have been filed had introduced sewerage.

The Board accepted the invitation of Council to participate in the annual tour of inspection of the borough and decided to attend in a body.

Mr. Holman stated that Dr. J. P. Roberts had said he read an article from the State Board of Health to the effect that it was not necessary to placard cases of measles. Such being the case the Board should notify the physicians of the town to that effect.

President Spalding replied that the Board had not placarded cases of measles for over two years, but all such cases must be reported to the Board.

Health Officer Conry said the people of the town, generally, are complying with the health laws and the authorities are not given much trouble. President Spalding commended in the statement, but added that in the absence of a crematory the town can not be kept as clean as it should be.

The secretary was instructed to write to Hazleton to ascertain the size, cost and other particulars concerning the crematory in that city.

President Spalding suggested that as the school year is drawing to a close the vaccinating physicians should send in their bills.

The members of the Board signed petition protesting against the passage of a bill now pending in the legislature for a repeal of the vaccination laws.

BERNHARDT TESTIFIES.

Declares Her Health Benefited by Paine's Celery Compound.

The enthusiasm and the curiosity provoked by Mrs. Sarah Bernhardt has never been equaled in the history of the stage. One talks vaguely of genius, temperament, quick intelligence, passion, nervous mobility, grace, smile, voice, charm, poetry—Mrs. Bernhardt has them all.

Bernhardt is to-day as enthusiastic in her profession as though her career were but a beginning. She works as assiduously during her hours as though each performance were her "first night."

No one is more exacting in all matters pertaining to her life work. She knows the medicinal value of health, strength and high spirits as thoroughly as she comprehends the terms of her contracts, and no one knows better than she how essential to her artistic success is a vigorous nervous system.

Mrs. Bernhardt writes the following letter: "I beg leave to state that, according to your instructions, I have used Paine's Celery Compound, and I am convinced that it is the most powerful nerve strengthener that can be found."

"It is with the greatest pleasure that I send you my sincere testimonial."

"Truly yours, Sarah Bernhardt."

Good health is within the reach of every one, not only the wealthy and famous, but the poor as well, who will rely on Paine's Celery Compound.

All health and disease are not natural. One should not compromise with them. No one should give in to
